Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends.

Questioner: Good evening Yaum.

Yaum: It is my pleasure to once more come among you. I thought that perhaps tonight after your discussion, which was very interesting, you might have a few questions. If I can be of any service to you in this manner, I shall be happy to do so.

Questioner: I know about the Holy Breath of course, but what about Mr. R. saying, years ago in Detroit, that one day we would be touched by the Light? Would you elaborate on that? Would this be anything like the Christ Love being born in your heart?

Yaum: This can be a result of the development of the Christ Love in your heart.

Questioner: You mean being touched by the Light?

Yaum: Yes. One is not touched by the Light, or given this experience, which would be a spiritual experience and would bring to them more enlightenment and open them up. This is a phrase, of course, that is used.

Questioner: I realize that, but the phrases used then were, I think, applicable to our neophyte state of mind.

Yaum: One does not receive this experience without having earned it. It may appear that it has happened to some who have not earned it. But you see, you only see a part of the picture. You do not see the whole. Or, it can be a case sometimes where this individual is to be used for a certain purpose and actually the person came into this life to be used in this way. And often the acts and events proceeding this experience may bring about an appearance that this person was not worthy of it. Yet this whole thing may have a purpose back of it. It may have had to be done in this way.

Questioner: But they still would have to have earned it?

Yaum: Yes. Nothing is free. There are no freeloaders in the spiritual world. You must earn your position there. Does this answer your question?

Questioner: Probably as much as I can understand about it. But is the birth of the Christ Child the gift of love in your heart and is this a spectacular or noticeable event, like being awakened and touched by the Light?

Yaum: No, not necessarily.

Questioner: Does it come quietly and you wouldn't even be aware of it for awhile maybe?

Yaum: This is of course all symbolic. The Christ is the love. The love is born in your heart. This may, in the beginning, be in a very small way. But the thing is, that if you want this, it will happen. You bring it yourself into your life, into your heart, and then you nourish it. Through your own actions, your own living and so forth, you bring this into a full blossom of Universal Love.

Questioner: It's been suggested that we ask for the experience of being touched by the Holy Breath.

Yaum: Yes, that is right, but this again is a matter of development. You are not going to get this without earning it.

Questioner: But it can come in a moment, the realization?

Yaum: The realization can come in a spectacular way and in these cases it is usually an awakening of what is already there. But karma is involved in many of these things. There are many people who have earned a great deal and yet in their past they have some unpaid karma which they need to take care of, and sometimes, when this karma is paid, this brings about the event in their lives.

Questioner: In California we met a Noble Prize winner who was a scientist of some nature. His experience, in fact his Aura, was just so beautiful that it seemed he was hardly of this dimension. That certainly was an awakening and an experience on his part. It was a beautiful thing to behold.

Yaum: Yes, but he had earned this through his service to mankind and through his living in this life and other lives.

Questioner: Do you think it might happen to some of us in the group?

Yaum: This depends on each individual. It can happen to anyone once they have earned it.

Questioner: Is this in degrees Yaum. Do we receive it in degrees at times rather than the whole thing at once?

Yaum: No one gains all knowledge at one time. There are cases where this knowledge is there, as I have previously stated, and it has been withheld. Just as when you come into this life, your memories of lives have been wiped out of your conscious state and this is as should be. It must be this way, otherwise it would be very difficult for you to function on this level.

Questioner: Then it can come in several ways—momentarily, slowly or spectacularly?

Yaum: Well, it depends on how you are thinking of it. If you are thinking of someone who is completely ignorant of all these things and has no knowledge of it in the past either, it is not going to come all in one big flash.

Questioner: But then, if it's awakening them to what they already know ...

Yaum: If they have earned this and it is in their consciousness, although it may not be at the surface at the time, it may be brought to the surface then.

Questioner: We have another expression, "Practicing the Presence." Isn't that the reason for prayer and meditation and trying to follow the laws?

Yaum: Yes, through your own efforts you do this, by living the laws and through prayer and meditation. It is through these things of the service to your fellow man. Never forget this. One of the greatest assets is your service to your fellow man. And this is part of this Universal Love, for when you have this Universal Love, you love all mankind. You love not only all mankind, but you love all of nature, all creation, and you want to serve it, you want to know how it functions. So you see, this love is not a love as you think of it here on Earth. It is not a physical love. It is a great feeling of a oneness with all life, and a feeling of wanting to do something about this oneness, to be a part of it, to serve it. Man must lose the feeling of self, of self service and concern for self, and turn it to the concern of the whole. He would not do anything that would not be for the benefit of the whole but would be only a benefit to one's self. This he would not do.

Questioner: Yaum, I've known of several cases where children have this Presence or this awareness and they also may have claimed to have had a space contact or unusual spiritual contact. I would like to know why, in so many of the cases, at least in the ones that I have come across, that they have such difficulty in their external lives or their life surrounding them, and also why the words or the messages that these children are given are so similar?

Yaum: Persecution has always been a part of those who have these qualities. Was not your Master Jesus persecuted? Have not all of your great Avatars been persecuted? And you too, my friends, if you develop these things, will be persecuted. You will suffer. But through this suffering, you will gain great spiritual strength. And it is only in this way that you can gain great spiritual strength. One must reach the bottom before he can reach the top. This is difficult for many people to understand, yet it is so necessary for the development of each soul.

Questioner: What about the similarity?

Yaum: The similarity is just what I said, that all of those who bring this sort of thing, and show this sort of thing in their life, will be persecuted by the ignorant. It is a matter of ignorance among those whom you come in contact with.

Questioner: Then it isn't always a matter of karma?

Yaum: Not always. There can be karma involved. Each case would be a different case, and you would have to know the individual and know their past and so forth, in order to be able to know why certain things happened. You see, your own life karma is intertwined with the race karma of your planet, and at times becomes very involved. Because you see, you have lived through thousands of incarnations and many different civilizations of races. So the karma becomes very entwined and only a Master Mind could trace these things. Does this answer your question?

Questioner: Yes, thank you.

Questioner: How can we best prepare to deal with the persecution that we will receive?

Yaum: Through your own spiritual development, and to put less importance upon the physical life. You see, one of the things that makes it difficult for people to stand in the fire is their fear of death. They put great value on their life and this is good to a certain point, because life should be good and should be valued, but not to the point of where you give up your principles for it. As your great Master said, "He who loses his life for my sake, will gain his life." So, spiritual strength is the most valued thing that you can develop and this can be done through the development of love, through the service to your fellow man, through meditation and sincere searching and learning.

Questioner: Aren't we fearful of suffering? This, to me, is much more awesome than death.

Yaum: Yes, many are. But it is through suffering that one reaches the heights.

Questioner: Are we able to sort out the value of our experiences? Sometimes what seems to us to be perhaps the persecution, criticism, the hard trials, may be in the end, even as we can look back at them, really the greatest of blessings.

Yaum: Surely. This is actually the case with all experiences. That's why suffering at the time, seems terrible, but it brings new values to you, new understanding, and raises your spiritual strength.

Questioner: It's really quite important for us to watch our attitudes isn't it?

Yaum: Attitudes are very important.

Questioner: So we must learn to endure the suffering with some sort of positive attitude?

Yaum: Yes, knowing that it brings your salvation. There are many of your great spiritual leaders in the past who have endured great suffering, and as you read the histories of these great beings, you will find that all of them experienced these things. For how would you understand lest you had experienced? Man must experience all things in order to come into a true understanding, to develop compassion and love, and without these things you can never reach a great height in spiritual wisdom.

Questioner: Knowing this then, we can be as thankful for our suffering as we can be for our blessings because they're one and the same, right?

Yaum: They are one and the same in that they are bringing about our development. They are helping us to grow into a mature, spiritual being.

Questioner: Do we somewhere along the line volunteer for which way we are going to experience our suffering or does that come out as a surprise?

Yaum: Actually you choose your own ways because you go through periods in between incarnations where you review your past and what you need to experience to reach the next step on the ladder. Although Man often gets deterred from these plans somewhat and does not always follow the exact path that he had intended to.

Questioner: Then we can create more of our own miseries than what we bargained for when we came in?

Yaum: You can always create more. You created what you have and you can create more misery or you can create more good, depending on your thinking because you do not act before you think—or do you?

Questioner: Well, as long as we sincerely pray for the will of God and do our best to do that, according to our understanding, then we shouldn't have any trouble following the path that we chose, right?

Yaum: This is correct, if you sincerely want to do the will of the Father and you are really sincere about it. Many people say "I want to do the will of the Father, I want to do what He wants me to do," but if you are really sincere in this and pray and meditate to be guided into the right path, you will not stray very far from the path. But this does not mean that you may not experience many trials and tribulations because they may be necessary on your path.

Questioner: Yaum, perhaps you would like to say something to us regarding our discussion of the Inner Planes.

Yaum: Well, the training that you are receiving is to prepare you for the great tasks that you will go through, as some of the teachers have expressed before, and to refresh many of the things that you have learned and known in the dim far past. Because you see, contrary to the belief of most of your peoples, you have been here for many, many, many, many, many thousands of years. And you have learned to do great things that have been lost through the downfall of civilizations.

So it is necessary that these things be refreshed now because you are going into a New Age that is different than any age that has ever come about on this planet before. And all of these things that we have talked about must be relearned and brought to the surface where Man can use them. Until Man does master these things, master this knowledge and wisdom, the love and the power, this earth will go on and on until Man here does master them. All things that have a beginning have an end, so eventually your planet will have an end. But before that end comes, Man must reach a state of perfection, and without this knowledge and wisdom and love, he cannot reach perfection. So, again the attempt is being made to bring Earth Man to the state of perfection, and in the New Age that is to come, it is hoped that Man will reach that state. So is not this reason enough for this training?

It is the Higher Beings—through their love of Mankind, through their love for you, the people of Earth—who are going to all of this work for you. They are extending themselves, putting forth the effort to try to help their brother man. They put this above any self desire. They would much rather help you people of Earth than to do anything that would bring gain or pleasure to themselves. By this I mean of the nature that would be strictly for themselves. This love of which I speak, and of which they speak is an Infinite love. This is why it is so difficult for the finite mind to conceive of this. The Infinite can never be fully understood by the finite. To really understand the Infinite, one must become Infinite, and this stage will be at one time reached by each of you, and this is the goal of all Man, to become Infinite. Most men do not realize this, but this is where you are going ... Now you know where you are going.

Now friends, as I leave, I should like to extend to each of you my most sincere blessings, my love and peace. And I ask that the blessings and the love and the peace of all the Great Ones be invoked upon each of you now.

Peace my friends, peace. Go in peace. ✨
