

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Master Teacher: Peace, peace, peace.

Thrice be ye blest, children of the light. I address thee thus, for each of ye are here because ye are seeking, ye are seeking to know truth, to understand thyself. It saddens me greatly to know that so few of your people today are in search of truth. Yea, were it not so. It is sad that your peoples are in such great pursuit of self-satisfying themselves with power. A great power madness has possessed your planet. The great tension that is rising today among your people is only a result of the great pursuit for power. It should never be upon the surface of any planet, that man should desire power over his fellow man. In great lands of plenty, man does not need power to maintain life. It is also sad that a civilization should pursue these things to a point of destruction. Yet this very thing is happening upon your planet today, and without question, unless some intervention is brought about from the observers beyond your planet, this very thing will come to pass.

I say to you, my children, you who are seeking to know and understand truth, reach out with your consciousness and build for yourself a world of love, of truth, of understanding. For only in this way will you escape the results of the power mad men of your Earth. So I say to you, my beloved ones, gather for yourself understanding. Learn to know thyself that you might know all men. Make your life one of service and dedication to mankind. Rise up, come forth and stand out as one who believes, who knows truth and lives the truth that he knows. Great experiences portend for those of you who follow this path, for all of these things of which I spoke shall pass away, but he who has built up on the rock shall stand forever as a monument to truth.

Rededicate yourself daily to your goal, reminding yourself continually of your birthright, acknowledging that which you are, for you are only an extension of your creator. So bear this in mind at all times, and continually declare your Sonship. The new civilization that shall emerge upon your planet will consist of those who have followed this path, and their accomplishments shall be great, much greater than ye think or realize. For man in his true form, is limitless in his power. He is a creator in his own right. So let us not overlook this fact, for man must truly learn to love himself. And when he has truly learned this, he has truly learned to love all mankind, for he has realized his oneness with it.

Let not the things that you face bring fear or resentment into your hearts, but rather maintain an attitude of reverence, an attitude of gratitude, knowing that "these things are not a part of me, nor do they affect me, for I AM that I AM,"

And now, my beloved children, I am going to leave this instrument for a few moments, and I am going to stand before each of you for a moment and invoke a special blessing for each of you.

(Pause while this is done.)

I thank thee, my children, for receiving.

Receive ye now the love and the blessings of all the great Masters of the Brotherhood.

Peace, peace, peace.

So be it, so be it, so be it. ✿
