April 8, 1980

During each of our three weekly meditation classes, held prior to April 8, the same beautiful Being appeared, dressed in a soft, light rose gown. Her aura was so radiant that it was almost blinding.

She chanted and performed symbols in each class which increased our vibrations of peace and love. Beams of light came from her hands as she extended them to each person. At one time she touched each one on the forehead which caused them to feel a surge of spiritual upliftment.

Then, during our meditation class of April 8, this being, whom we have named Tara, again appeared and with the assistance of our own wisdoms, performed the ceremony which is described on the following page.

We have used this ceremony as a visualization exercise in class, by having someone read it slowly with the necessary pauses, which gave us ample time to visualize each step.

We know that if you do this, you will find, as we did, that it is a very powerful exercise which will lead you into a beautiful, deep meditation.

Clyde: Anthon has asked me to repeat this to you as I see it happening.

Right now all of your individual wisdoms are with each of you and they are chanting as they are doing some hand symbols.

Now something has appeared in the middle of the room. I am not quite sure what it is. It is in the shape of a bird bath, somewhat resembling one made of brass. I believe it is called a brazier. It now has a deep blue flame in it and it changes color. I do not know the significance of this brazier. The teachers continue to chant while doing symbols.

Now there is beginning to appear next to the brazier a very white light which is taking the form of a person. I now recognize this person as the same beautiful lady who has blessed us with Light energy for the past three weeks. I can see her very clearly now. She has materialized fully. She is now holding her hands above the flames in the brazier as the flames leap high and low. Now she is stepping back, rubbing her hands together. She is starting to make some symbols with her hands while chanting. She now motions for the other wisdoms to do as she is doing as she continues.

Now I begin to see a light substance forming around each of you. It is very dim but it is gradually taking more form and becoming more visible. It has now formed a cone of white light extending from your waist to a point a foot above your head. Now it is pale pink, then taking a reddish color and beginning to rotate clockwise. The color is becoming a deeper red. Now it is a dark red and continues to rotate rather rapidly as the chanting and rotation increases in tempo. The red is gradually getting lighter and lighter now, fading to a pale pink as it continues to rotate. Simultaneously as the cones change color, the flame in the brazier changes also.

Now the cone is fading from pink to a light blue, becoming a deeper dark blue and continuing to rotate quite rapidly. It is now gradually becoming lighter, taking on a greenish cast. The green cones are becoming a deeper and deeper green and they continue to rotate very rapidly as the chanting continues together with the symbols. The cones are now a dark green color but they are now gradually fading to a lighter pale green which is barely detectable. Now it has changed to a light yellow, then becomes a darker orange. Gradually it is becoming a pale yellow again as it continues to rotate.

The rotation is now slowing down rapidly and has now stopped. Up to this point it has been rotating clockwise but now it is starting to rotate counter clockwise. The rotational speed of the pale yellow cones is rapidly increasing to its original momentum.

Now all of a sudden the cones have turned a brilliant white and they are continuing to rotate. From the top part of the cones there is a shaft of Light emerging which is extending up another eight inches longer. It is one inch in diameter.

Now the chanting is gradually becoming slower and the rotation is gradually decreasing. The Light cones are beginning to fade, becoming less and less bright. Finally they are coming to a stop and as they stop the shafts on the cones are gradually disintegrating.

Each of our wisdoms are making a gesture toward this beautiful being. These gestures seem to be some type of salute or respect that they are giving to her. Again she holds her hands high and as she does, the energy flows from them as she gradually circles the room with her arms extended.

Now she is doing symbols with her hands. As she finishes she speaks a few words in a language which I do not understand.

She is gradually fading into the Light from whence she came and now, she is gone. ✨
