Jeremiah: Greetings to thee.

It is my pleasure to have this opportunity to speak with you. I am known among my associates as Jeremiah. I have not had the opportunity to speak to you here at Center R, so I am grateful for this opportunity.

Your celebration that takes place at this time of year I know is a sacred one to you. This is as it should be. The story as it is told in your Scriptures is not altogether accurate. Many happenings at this occasion were not recorded, mostly for the reason that those who did the recording were not there at the time. Many things that occurred there at the tomb were seen only by the Roman soldiers of that time who were on guard at the tomb. Their stories were not recorded and perhaps if they had been would have been very inaccurate, due to the fact that they were so frightened and uncomprehensive of what was happening that they would not have been able to give an accurate story.

The story as it was written by Levi is about as accurate as one as you will find and there is no need for me to repeat that.

Much of what took place has deep significance. It goes far beyond man's comprehension. I would have to say to you as the Great Master himself said unto His disciples before He left, for they did not comprehend either. He said unto them that there were many things He had not told them, many things that He could not give them at that time because they could not comprehend. But He was going to prepare a way and a place for them so that they too, could comprehend the mysteries that at that time were unconprehensible to them. This place, beloved ones is now prepared and His children are about to enter therein. There, their minds, their consciousness will be expanded, many things will be opened up to them and they will comprehend. They will know the mysteries that have not been available to them because of their lack of ability to comprehend. Do not feel from what I have said that you are lacking abilities, for your abilities are as good as they could be from where you stand.

But this time is nigh. You can see the signs of its approach all about you and you can see new signs revealing themselves day-by-day. There will be more and more as time goes on. Those of you who are seeking his light will be given all the aid possible in these times. You will be given strength, you will be given courage and much will be needed.

Tonight, one of great light stood among you and poured out his blessing to each of you. A blessing that should raise the vibrations of your soul and the quality of your soul, not to mention the physical.

I am honored and grateful that he would do this in my presence and I know each of you must have felt his presence. We are interested deeply in those who are trying to walk in the light.

Our love for them is great, greater than you think or realize. Our love is a deeper love than you could possibly know for it is not a love that man of Earth knows in depth. Some have experienced degrees of this but none have experienced it in its magnitude. This is something my friends, that you have to look forward to and as you experience it in greater and greater degrees you shall have welling up within you a greater and greater desire to experience more and more of this in greater magnitude.

May each of you as you go forth this night find a new and greater love spring forth from your heart and may you feel this flowing back to you in greater and greater degrees.

Go forth in peace, in love and in understanding. ☸
