Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends, I am Oxal of Arcturus.

Once more it is my pleasure to speak with you, and once more I should like to state that we are still within your system fulfilling our mission that has been assigned to us, and we shall continue, until we have completed our work. We are attempting in every way to bring aid to all of you in your search for understanding, for truth.

Each man and each woman, as you well know, have within them a spark of something that urges them on in their search for understanding. What, my friends, does this spark of energy within you consist of, from whence does it come? Call it what you may, for words are but symbols. Some of you call it the God within you, others will call it the Christ within them, and still others may use terms of a different nature, but call it what you may, it is that part of you which joins you to the universal mind, the universal power or powers.

This is your pipeline, so to speak, to all truth.

This, beloved ones, is why we urge you to spend your efforts in awakening within you the function of this connection. Earth man has so many potentialities within him that lie dormant. He must awaken to the realization of the powers, talents and capabilities that lie within him. These are yours to use, to bring into your being, the love, the understanding and the truth that will raise you to mastership. These are your rights, your privileges.

Make your decision, beloved friends, and when you have made it, let nothing stand in your way in your development, for you can be what you will to be. You have only to awaken within yourself the desire and follow it with action. It is not as difficult as it might seem. It requires only determination and effort. We shall aid in every way possible, when you are making the effort.

Let not the illusionary visions that surround you cause you to deviate from your path, but rather come up out of this dream world in which you now exist. Come forth into the reality of what you really are, and you are really not at all what you see. Your real self is a much greater being. A much wiser being than you now visualize yourself as being.

Take advantage of all the aids that come your way, and there shall be a number of them, as there has been in the past. As one of your great teachers said to you long ago, "Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let fear enter therein," for you have nothing to fear when you follow the path.

My love and blessings I leave with you, and I extend to you the love and the understanding of my people.

I am Oxal ☸
