Questioner: Greetings, Athens. Yes, you are a little too far to the right—a little more—now back a little. Good, that feels like it is centered. Yes, why don't you do that?

Athens: Greetings to you there at Center R, I am Athens. I thought that upon this occasion I would like to extend to you my best wishes and greetings.

Questioner: Thank you, Athens.

Athens: And now our beloved Oxal will speak to you.

Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends,

"Peace on Earth, good will to man." We hear this phrase throughout your civilization this time of year, yet as we observe your planet we see very little of this. It is sad that your peoples give so much lip-service to this with very little thought of the true meaning of it, or the thought of putting it into practice. But, my friends, the time is coming in the not too far distant future, when this will prevail upon your planet. And its peoples will know and understand the true meaning of brotherly love, the true meaning of peace and goodwill. The lack of this has brought your planet and its civilization to a crisis point in its evolution.

The Christ love dwells in the hearts of so few, so few understand why the Christ came to your planet and why He has come so many times. Many of your peoples do not realize that the Christ has manifested many times upon your planet. In fact at the beginning of every age the Christ has manifested to the people of Earth, attempting to bring to them the true meaning of Christ, trying to place in their hearts an understanding of these things. Yet, time after time, their peoples have turned away from the Christ to the carnal desires that man finds in his heart. They have established their own Gods, they have preferred to worship the Golden Calf and still, after all of these centuries of time, and the rise and fall of civilizations and nations, the multitudes of your people are still worshipping the Golden Calf. Many of them do not realize what they are doing. They seem to think that without material wealth they cannot exist. They do not realize how much richer they would be were they to follow His way.

The Father cares for those who walk in His path. He showers them with blessings: they do not want. He gives them His Kingdom and He will give to all who follow him. Those who follow the path of the carnal ways may attain great material wealth, may appear to be great in their works, yet as long as they worship those things they cannot gain spiritual understanding. Sooner or later their great material gains shall destroy them. This is not to say that man is not to have material possessions or wealth as you call it. It is not wrong to have these things, but when the Father bestows these things upon you, use them wisely, use them to glorify Him.

Wealth when used properly and used for the benefit of the needy, is not wrong and to those who do this the Father will bestow much to them. Their cups will be filled to overflowing but they will not desire it for themselves. They will desire it only that they might do good for their fellow man. So, beloved ones, when the Father bestows those responsibilities to you make sure that you use them wisely. Use them in the Father's work and you will be blest many fold.

But if you use His blessings to satisfy your own carnal desires these blessings will become a curse to you.

As your new age dawns upon you again the Christ will manifest upon your planet and will lead and show the way and will be instrumental in establishing upon your Earth a true understanding of the Christ love. For without love man is nothing. This is man's first step into the Kingdom—his understanding and development of the Christ love within him.

May each of you find this love within you and may it grow, may it become your consciousness and when it does you will truly understand the true meaning of Christmas.

I leave you by extending to you the love, the light and the understanding of my people.

I am Oxal. ✨
