Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends, I am Oxal.

It is our pleasure to visit with you again. We have not been in contact with you here at Center R too often recently, but we are aware of all that goes on here. We perhaps know more about you than you know about yourselves.

My friends, you are about to the center of the cusp. The coronation is at hand, the midnight hour is near. Soon the crown will be passed. The great ceremony of the Cherubim, the Seraphim is about to take place. We look forward to viewing this from our vantage point. We only wish that you could be here to view it with us.

Great rejoicing is taking place among the other people of your solar system. They rejoice because they realize how much greater will be the new Age. They welcome the new sun into your solar system for they how it will bring with it vibrations and influences that will improve the consciousness of all mankind in your system.

I am sure that as you look around you today, you recognize the signs, the happenings that we have pointed out to you in the past that would occur. These are all signs of the approaching times. Those who have eyes to see, let them see, those who have ears to hear, let them hear. You can expect the situations that are occurring upon your planet today to continually increase in intensity and in numbers. You can expect those who are being affected negatively by the influences being brought about by the forces of the Antichrist, to also worsen or increase.

These forces are making their last stand against the forces of light. They will wage a great battle, but they shall not win. Eventually they shall go down to defeat and the forces of light will stand triumphant.

You can expect the food situation upon your whole planet to continue to worsen and the same goes for your monetary system. Great struggle will take place to attempt to save it but in the end they will fail. Anything that is built upon a weak foundation can be expected to fall in due time and this is why, my friends, all of these things are taking place upon your planet for the foundation upon which they were built was made of sand and cannot stand the weather they shall not win.

So, my friends, be sure that you build your future upon the rock, where it is solid and cannot crumble—the rock of His Light. Those who have built upon the spiritual rock, the rock of justice, of good will and brotherly love, shall stand staunch and firm through the storm and through the fire. They shall not falter, they shall not fall for the Light of peace, of love and of understanding cannot be penetrated by the negative forces. So stand forth upon the things that you know to be right and good and just.

Let not those tempt you who would offer you power and carnal wealth. Say to them as did your Master, “Get thee behind me, Satan; thou hast no place in my life.” Seek ye first His Kingdom and His righteousness. These are the things that will bring you through, will hold you firm and be your staff.

We regret, as do others in your solar system, that the masses of planet Earth have not the knowledge or the realization of what is taking place and have not prepared themselves. For had they done so, many of the things that they will experience would not have occurred. Prophecies are given so that they might be changed and man can change prophecies for a prophecy is only prophesying a result. If man would remove the cause the result would not occur but Earth man did not do this. He brought about the cause and now he is reaping the effect. Nature reacts to cause as do all things and this is what is happening upon your planet today.

Many of your people did make a choice in time and did turn to the light and to the service of mankind. But by and large your humanity did not. This saddens us but we are helpless to do anything about it. We cannot interfere with the laws of the universe and would not if we could. Justice is always done by universal law you cannot escape it but it is just. And whatsoever the results might be you can be assured that they are just.

that we could say this about man-made laws. But man does not have the wisdom to make laws as just and as binding as are the laws of the Creators.

As each of you go forth on your path of life, may you find more and more of His light, may you walk in greater light day-by-day that each of you might be wiser, happier and more fruitful.

I leave you by extending to you the love, the light and the understanding of my people.

I am Oxal. ✨
