

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Teacher: Peace be with you, my friends, and greetings to you, my son. It gives me great pleasure to be with you tonight and to be able to speak to you through this instrument.

My friends, it is the time when truth shall spread upon this planet. I am sure that each of you have noticed that many things of what might have been termed in your words, "offbeat" subjects are being discussed quite openly these days, for the time is here when these things must become known to your people. Each of you is finding that you are being placed in a position where you, yourself, can do something about these things, and help to promote the truth as you know it. Now is the time, my friends, to take up your banner and march forward in the name of truth.

We have great hopes that the organizations you are attempting to start will be a great success, but there are certain things, beloved friends, which you must remember. It is not enough to merely discuss with others these truths. They must be put to practice. A program is needed upon your planet to promote understanding, and I mean by this, my friends, it is necessary to promote understanding in many ways. There is a great lack among your people, of understanding. This is very evident in the rivalry among men of various races. These are some of the problems that need to be solved by your people, but this can only be done if your people have a desire within their own hearts to understand their fellow man, regardless of race, color or creed. In your own country today rages a great conflict among men of different colors.

Man, as a whole, cannot rise spiritually to any great degree, until he comes into an understanding of his fellow man. This lack of understanding does not only exist among your white and your black races, but among many other races in the confines of your country. Once man has become tolerant of his fellow man, of his beliefs, his understandings, his truths, then he is on the threshold of understanding.

This program is being attempted by many groups and many individuals upon your planet, and we hope that soon all of the people who are working in this effort shall be able to join hands and make their force felt among Earth people. Understanding is taking root upon your planet, and we who are working in your behalf from other realms are doing everything in our power to cultivate and encourage the growth of this idea. You have our blessings in your work and we shall help you in every way that is possible.

Concentration should be upon the tasks at hand and if your efforts are sincere, the need shall be met, and you shall receive much more help than you realize. But each must use his own intelligence. He must follow or learn to follow that still small voice from within which is your surest and your highest guide. This source, once you are able to follow it and contact it, will never lead you in a wrong direction.

May the love, peace and blessings of the infinite one clothe each of you and may each of you be most successful in your efforts to spread understanding through your demonstrations.

It has been my pleasure and my privilege. Peace be with you, my friends. ☸
