November 24, 1973

Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends. Once more it is my pleasure to come among you. I should like to extend my greetings to each of you and especially to my new friends who are among you tonight. I see that a couple of our new friends have been here before so I guess they were not treated too badly since they have returned! I do extend my most sincere love and greetings to each of you and it is my privilege and joy to be among you. Now what would you like to talk about?

Questioner: My friends and I would like to know about the effects of drugs, psychedelic and others, positive and negative, for spiritual growth?

Yaum: First, my friends I should like to make clear that I am only sharing my understanding with you on any subject that you might approach. You do not need to take my word as the final word. All that I can do is share my understanding with you and if it does not agree with your understanding I will not be offended.

Now to get to your question. I do not sanction the use of any drugs I do not believe that drugs in any way can give you greater spiritual growth or understanding. You may go through some unusual experiences, your consciousness may open up to any number of things. But how do you know that what you experience is of Truth? Anything that would put into your system that would bring about these conditions is entirely foreign to your chemical system and is bound to bring about shock, is bound to do harm to you physically. And very likely, if carried to any extent will do damage to you mentally. So I can see no advantage in the use of these things. It is not necessary for one to do this in order to grow spiritually in my opinion.

Questioner: What is your perspective on what has been happening in Washington in the Nixon administration? Do you see that surviving or not?

Yaum: My friends, I do not care to get into any great detail on this. But if you could really see what is going on behind the scenes of your political playacting, you would be appalled at what is going on. Nothing is like it seems on the surface. It doesn't look like Mr. Nixon is going to resign, although there are certain powers that would like to see this happen. They would like to see him go as did Mr. Agnew. This was entirely a maneuvered situation. Not that perhaps he was not guilty of some of the things that he was accused of, but they were only brought to the surface to remove him from his position. There are very few in your government who, if the powers that be wanted to remove them could not find serious charges, if not worse. You will not see him prosecuted because he was given a choice, to remove himself or they would remove him.

The same situation, they would like to bring about with the President but at the moment it does not look like they are going to be able to complete this. This does not mean that I am endorsing or saying that Mr. Nixon is 100% right or wrong. All I am saying is that those who appear to be in power are not the ones who are in power. The real power lies back of them. Your whole Mid-East situation is a maneuvering of the world powers, the real world powers, to bring about certain conditions that they would like to bring about that would give them more power. Unless you can see the entire picture which is impossible for you to do, you cannot really understand it, how they maneuver and how they work to bring about certain situations, wars or anything that would bring about their increase in greater power. But it is becoming more and more difficult, for this great world power, for years, had in mind to bring your country to its knees, so to speak, where they would have more power over it. But the middle class of your country has become too strong and they must try to break this, if possible, and it looks very much like they may do it.

All of this was prophesied by the Ancients. You would have to do a little studying to understand the way it was given at that time. I was just saying what today's observations appear to be.

Questioner: Can you say any more about who the "world powers" are that are actually doing this work so that we can identify them?

Yaum: My friend, this would not be a good thing for me to do. I do not wish to put you, or our instrument here or anyone else in a position that would be dangerous to him. Knowing these powers as I do, I would not wish to do this, because, my friend, you do not know or realize the viciousness of these groups. How many people have been murdered who came into knowledge that they did not wish them to have, or ruined financially, or their reputations ruined! Their arms reach out into every phase of your life, your industries, your financial institutions, your power supplies, your food supplies, into everything that you can imagine. They have gained control over all of these things and they have their people who are watching and listening. So I would not want to put any of you in a position that might endanger you in any way.

Questioner: I have heard a lot about much destruction coming soon and that a New Age is coming. So I wonder if we should start new families?

Yaum: This is something that it would not be well to advise someone to or not to. For those who are scheduled to incarnate into this civilization at this time, are going to incarnate one way or another, whether they are your children or someone else's children because they have themselves determined that. If you can accept reincarnation then you can understand what I mean. If you cannot then it may be a little difficult for you to understand. In any universal law whether you believe in it or not is not too important as you are subject to it regardless as you will have to live with it.

Now regarding destruction, it is true we are entering a New Age and great changes are going to take place and they are taking place all about you today. If you will observe you will see this happening all over your planet. Many more changes will come about suddenly: cataclysms and things of that nature, due to the fact that man has defied the law of Nature. He has depleted the ground so that it is becoming more and more difficult to raise edible foods so that they are nutritious. The waters and your air are all becoming polluted and the earth's resources are running out. Nature herself has ways of taking care of this, you see. She has provided cycles for earth to go through to repair man's destruction. When man becomes wise enough, loving enough to work with God's laws instead of against them, Nature will not react so violently. So in these changes, man is going to go through a great deal of suffering, a great deal of discomfort in order that the earth be cleansed. Not only is your earth going through a cyclic change but your whole solar system is also as it travels through space. It is going into a new area of space and will be under a new vibration which will bring about a very great change in man of Earth, in animal and plant. It will affect the Earth and everything upon it and within it. But to say that no one should have children, no family should be raised this would not be good advice to give. For those who have decided to come in will come in one way or another, so you would not be doing anything good for Nature.

Questioner: Could you give an amateur astronomer any clues as to what the new sun is?

Yaum: As I understand it, it is what you would call a star. This is not particularly my field, I am not all-wise in the study of astronomy. But I have been told by some who work in this field that this body is moving in towards the earth and that some astronomers have picked this up on some of their more powerful telescopes as some sort of a body. They did not know what it was or speculate as to what it might be, other than a body out in space. I believe that they did not suspect that it might be a body moving towards your solar system and eventually become a part of your system. Other than that I do not believe that I could give you any more information. It is still a long ways out and cannot be identified as such and I do not believe that your astronomers are going to realize what it is until it actually comes into your solar system.

Questioner: Could this happen at the time of the flip of the poles?

Yaum: I would imagine that this would be about the time it would happen, although the poles have changed before without this sort of thing happening. It is not necessary for a new sun to appear to cause the poles to flip, which happens to the earth every so often as the ice transfers from the north to the south pole. The melting of the ice causes the earth to tip and it is off now around 15 degrees.

I do not know the exact degree, however, but eventually it will reverse itself. Your geologists have found all kinds of proof that this has happened before.

Questioner: I understand that Jesus is currently very active in the affairs of this planet and will return in and physical form. Is the Buddha also active on this planet?

Yaum: The Master Jesus, has been active so far as this planet is concerned ever since He was on the planet the last time because at that time He became the Logos of this planet. This is really His charge. Buddha, Krishna all of these are active in the interest of planet Earth as are many, many others. There are millions of great beings who are interested in your planet, your solar system and are doing great work to help in this transition that is coming about. They are doing much more than you could possibly realize. They have many times perhaps saved your planet from destruction, because the madness of some of your people on this Earth could have destroyed it several times had not someone intervened. So they are active.

The Master will return as he said, that he will return as he left, on a cloud but not a cloud as you know it. Clouds do not make very good vehicles to travel in, they are just not too solid, you know.

Questioner: Some people might think that it is hopeless to try to improve on the future. How can we best help ourselves and others to face the cataclysms and the new Age?

Yaum: Concerning yourself, the greatest thing that you can do is to try to develop your own spiritual understanding, to purify yourself, your mind, your body and your soul, that you might be able to encounter those times surrounded in the Light, that His Light might be your protector. This is the only sure protection that one can have so learn to build your own Light. You do this by developing the Christ love within yourself. Let the Christ love be born in your heart and nourish it to maturity. For when one has a true understanding of the Christ love he has everything and this must be done through purification, through prayer, meditation and service to your fellow man.

Whether we are going to have catastrophes or not does not change man's obligation to his fellow man. For this is the way we earn our entrance to His Kingdom, through our service. We can serve in many ways, the main thing is to be aware, observing, and serve our fellow man wherever we see an opportunity, whether it be in a large way or a small way. Even a smile and a kind word sometimes can be a great service to another individual who is in the depths of despair.

But the other side of this same picture is that you cannot force your ideas or your concepts on another. If they are receptive and you can help them to understand, fine. If they reject you, rebuke you, you are only casting your pearls before the swine and this is a waste of time and effort.

For those you can only pray that they may find the Light. So do not try to force people to do anything and many of those that you try to make aware will rebuke you, reject you. But there is no more that you can do. If they do not want to believe or hear, you are only wasting your time. To those who have ears to hear and eyes to see, let them see, let them hear.

Questioner: Many young people are preoccupied with sex. Will you please comment on sex experience prior to the time of full commitment between a man and a woman? Is this advisable for spiritual growth or is abstinence at that stage to be recommended?

Yaum: This is only a weakness in people. They are allowing their physical desires to control them instead of controlling their physical desires. In the first place, sex was meant only for reproduction, but as the animal nature of man grew stronger in his being, this drive—which is of course a strong drive as it was intended to be in order to propagate the race—became more powerful. It has become in your civilization, more of a pleasure device than anything else. Your great Master, Jesus the Christ, spelled this out quite clearly in His talks and in His laying down of the laws of the Creator but this has been ignored. If these forces were used properly they could be a great aid in the spiritual growth of man and if the energies of these glands were directed properly—one can learn to do this—in such a way as to bring about a greater spiritual growth. Then the urge for the pleasure release becomes less and less. But this has not been learned in Earth's civilization.

This has not been altogether man's fault because it has not been taught in your religions. Many things were taken out of them many years ago by the self righteous priests who did not wish to follow the spiritual path and were following the path of self-power and therefore they encouraged the wrong use rather than the right use of these energies. This is like any other power in the universe, any other energy, it can be used for good or for evil. It can be used to lift man into higher realizations, spiritual growth or it can be used to drag him down to the gutter. Sex, when indulged in pure love, for a pure purpose, is a thing of great beauty. But when it is used in the sense of lust, of pleasure, it becomes a great detriment to mankind.

Questioner: There can be a feeling of love, a deep commitment between two people, not transitory, can there not? Without a legal ceremony?

Yaum: So far as a paper is concerned, this does not, in the eyes of God justify anything. As your Master Jesus said, "marriages are made in Heaven" and because a priest joins two together and gives them a piece of paper, does not make it a better marriage. This commitment that you speak of must be the joining together of two souls with understanding and knowing. But too often the commitment is made through emotion and then they find later that maybe they were wrong, that they should have not made the commitment and that they should now go separate ways. But the real marriage that is made in Heaven will last forever, so the commitment depends upon what kind of commitment it really is. Too often people make this commitment with lack of understanding, they are making it through emotion instead of pure love and understanding.

Questioner: Can you tell us if the comet Kohoutek is doing anything unpredicted yet?

Yaum: I don't believe so yet. I think that it may hold some surprise for the astronomers. It may not follow exactly as they have predicted and there may be some unusual things develop from this. It is bound to have certain influences upon your solar system, your planets and your people as has already been given to you. I think that it shall bring about some very great disturbances in some people who have been lacking in their spiritual development and have been more or less critical of many spiritual things. It is going to cause some people to turn to their Maker, others to turn away, depending upon the makeup of the individuals.

Questioner: Will this activity awaken any to the fact that there are people here from other planets, attempting to help us?

Yaum: No, I do not think that that is going to affect that too much because people consider it as a natural phenomena and will not connect it in any way and it really isn't connected.

Questioner: Do men and women stay of the same sex through their many incarnations or is there a changing back and forth?

Yaum: There is change back and forth because as man incarnates through, various lifetimes in order to become a well-rounded soul he must experience all things. He may incarnate many times as a positive polarity then he may change for one, two or however many lifetimes to the negative. He is originally either a positive or a negative as to the soul, so to speak, as each individual is also positive and negative, as is each cell in your body. The soul original was positive and negative both before it was divided. Then symbolically God took a rib from Adam and made woman. This was the division of the soul, the negative and the positive. Eventually they will come back again as one.

Now, my friends, I have stayed my time. It has been my pleasure to have spent this time with you. If I have been of any service to you I am very happy.

I wish to extend to each of you my love and my peace and I would ask that all of the Great Ones pour forth their love and their blessings upon each of you. And as you go forth on your path of life may each day bring you to a new and more beautiful understanding of His love, His peace and His joy.

Go in peace, my friends. ✿
