

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Teacher: Greetings to you, my beloved brothers and sisters.

It is my pleasure to again have this opportunity to come among you and to speak with you, I have overheard some of your conversation and your discussion, which was a good and lively one. I will not comment about it but I will say that in my opinion the most important thing in the minds of all of you today should be in developing yourselves, living in the now and developing your own abilities to cope with the situations that are upon you.

In the days to come you will find great need to be physically fit, to be mentally alert, to have a mind that will function under stress, mind that will be powerful in bringing about that which you need and the ability to cope with other people, to be able to associate with other people in times of stress, to be able to calm them and to give them hope and courage, for many will need this.

So, develop a mind that is pure, alert and is open, that is powerful in a way that will put you in command of all situations, where you do not let the situation dominate you, but you dominate the situation.

These things will be of uppermost importance, especially to those who are in positions where this is needed.

We ask you to ponder these things well.

May the blessings of all the Great Ones rest upon each of you now.

My peace and my love I leave with you. Peace, peace.

Teacher: Greetings to you, my beloved brothers and sisters.

It is my pleasure to again have this opportunity to come among you and to speak with you. I have overheard some of your conversation and your discussion, which was a good and lively one. I will not comment about it but I will say that in my opinion the most important thing in the minds of all of you today should be in developing yourselves, living in the now and developing your own abilities to cope with the situations that are upon you.

In the days to come, you will find great need to be physically fit, to be mentally alert, have a mind that will function under stress. A mind that will be powerful in bringing about that which you need and the ability to cope with other people, to be able to associate with other people in times of stress; to be able to calm and to give them hope and courage, for many will need this.

So develop a mind that is pure, alert and is open, that is powerful in a way that will put you in command of all situations, where you do not let the situation dominate you, but you dominate the situation. These things will be of uppermost importance, especially to those who are in positions where this is needed.

These things will be of uppermost importance, especially to those who are in positions, such as you will be, my son, and your mate and those with whom you choose to work closely.

You have yet a great task before you. You will need all of the courage, at times, that you can muster. You will need finesse and wisdom. Your problems will be many but not unsolvable for you will have the power and the love to handle these situations in a satisfactory manner.

As we have said before, there will be help coming when it is needed. Many will come who have talents and knowledge that you can use. Already some of these are looming upon the horizon. Most of them you have not yet seen. But if you hold steadfast in your visions, your hopes, you will bring about and draw to you that which you need.

So I bring to you the love and the encouragement and the hope of many others who wish to see you succeed in your endeavors. We, at all times, are surrounding you here with our love and our encouraging thoughts and vibrations. And we know that you are sincere, we know that you seek to do only that which is right and good for your brothers and sisters that surround you, and with this intent and desire and your constant improvement of your power of concentration and visualization you are bound to succeed regardless of how insurmountable some problems may seem at times.

So press forward, ever moving onward and upward toward your goals and your hopes.

We, from our realm, will aid you in every way possible.

Our love and our peace we enfold each of you in.

Our love and our blessings will ever be with each of you as you go forth upon your journey.

May the peace of the Great Ones enfold you.

Peace, peace, peace. ♣
