Samuel: Greetings to you, my children, I am Samuel.

The days of trials and tribulations are fast approaching. Few of your peoples there are who are ready for these times. The bridegroom is approaching but few there are who have their lamps filled and their wicks trimmed. This is sad, my friends, in view of the fact that Earth people have been warned of this for many centuries, yet they heeded not. Their attitudes were that this was something that, if it happened at all, was in the far distant future and need not concern them at this time.

But you see these things that we ignore and put off have a way of coming upon us at times when we expect it the least. This is the situation that the masses of Earth find themselves in today. A situation is coming upon them of which they are not aware due to their lack of observation, their lack of thinking, their refusal to investigate rather than to ignore.

For those who are aware, let them take heed. Let them fill their lamps and trim their wicks and how do you do this? By getting your own affairs in order. You cannot do it by trying to get someone else's affairs in order. It is necessary to remove the log from our own eyes before we can remove the mote from the eye of another. One must get rid of the selfish ego. Forget self, become humble, be willing to share for in the times ahead there will be no room for those things. Those who reach the height in the kingdom to come will be those who eliminate self, who live for the service that they can render to their loved ones and to those about them. All jealousy, hatred and greed must become nonexistent if one, is to qualify for His Kingdom.

So, I say to all Earth people, review yourself. Look deeply into yourself with eyes that will see, not as you would have them see, but as things really are. For one cannot deceive himself, he only thinks he can, so one must be honest in the observations of self if one is to remove the obstacles that are holding him back and causing him to stumble. No one can do this for you, it is a task that each must perform for himself and if one truly wants to qualify he will do this, knowing that it is the only way.

My friends, I have come to you tonight, in the main, to bring you our blessings and to pour out our blessings upon each of you. I, and others, are pouring out our blessings and our love to each of you this night and from this we hope that each of you will receive much benefit. For we are most happy when our Earth brothers are also happy and when their well being is high.

May each of you go forth this night filled with a new love, a new joy, a new peace and may this love, joy and peace open up new doors for you and may you see a new light your responsibilities, your desires, your loves.

Peace, my friends, Peace. Go in Peace. ☸
