

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Zalhem: Greetings to you, Children in The Light, I am Zalhem.

I have observed your study here at this time. Much was discussed in regard to the Triune, the Power, the Wisdom and the Love. Listening to your discussion has been of interest to me. Your discussion was very good.

I am going to speak tonight to those of you here and to the other members of Center R in various parts of your nation. I do not mean by this that my words cannot be applied to other Light Centers throughout your world and to other Light workers. But since we have been designated to work with your group, I shall speak to you as such.

Now these aspects that you have discussed tonight are very, very important for you to be aware of at all times and to develop these aspects in your own personal life. Especially important at this time for all of you is to develop the love and the wisdom aspect, to be aware of this at all times—to try to develop these parts of your nature. The reason that I emphasize this is because you now stand on the threshold of some very important times in the history of your civilization. These will be trying times, times when these parts of your nature will be very important.

All of you who are working in the Light, who are sincere and are dedicated to the Path, have a service to perform in these coming times. These services will be varied. None will be asked to do that which is beyond his or her capacity to do. Each will serve in the capacity which they are best prepared to do.

All of you are aware of the times that you are taken into the inner planes in your sleep period and taught. As we have said before, many of these classes are merely refresher courses, bringing closer to the surface, knowledge that you have had and known in the dim, far past.

Some of this knowledge is new to you, knowledge which you have not heretofore known. Each is being taught in an individual way, is being taught the things that are best suited for him or her—things which they can best comprehend and carry out when the time is right and when the time is right we have ways of awakening you individually to this knowledge.

The proper use of this knowledge will require wisdom, love, compassion. The wisdom, the love, are very, very important in the carrying out of your work. The power comes with the knowledge. So we want you to have the proper balance that you might use this power lovingly and wisely.

Some will be required to make decisions that will be of great importance and will affect the lives and the safety of many others.

Others will be required to carry out orders and missions directed to them and these must be carried out with love and with wisdom.

You will be tried in many ways. The strain at times will be great but if you are strong in the Spirit you will be able to carry out your work to the ultimate. Many tests, many trials will come but you will stand firm because you will not be able to be broken because of your spiritual strength, your love, your compassion and your wisdom. This may seem a little “far out” to you at this time but you will comprehend more fully as time moves on.

We will give you strength, as much as we possibly can but primarily the job is yours. We have helped to prepare you as best we can. We will be watching and standing by with great interest as you pass through these marvelous times when your great civilization is making its transition into a new cycle, the cycle that will bring a greater understanding of this love which we talk about. Brotherly love will be much better understood and applied and not just talked about.

The Light Workers of planet Earth are being prepared at this time to march. The Army is being prepared to go forth with its banners and to conquer that lower self and to bring into power the Higher Self or the Greater Man. We wish God speed to all of you.

There is no one job in this Army that is more important than the other for each will be placed where he can best serve. You must have those of special talents in certain fields to carry out the plans there and to direct, and this may seem to be of more importance, but in reality they are only one of the workers in the Light.

Each must carry out his mission whether it be what you might consider as a menial or a great one. None will work without the other, each is dependent upon the other, therefore the chain is only as strong as its weakest link. So each link must be strong, must be able to stand in the fire and come out unscorched.

As I leave I wish to extend my blessings and my love to each of you and may each of you grow stronger day-by-day spiritually, physically and mentally. May your souls be strong.

Now I ask the blessings and the love of all the Great Ones be bestowed upon you now.

Go in peace, beloved ones, go in peace, peace. ♣
