Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends.

It is my pleasure to come among you tonight. I should like to extend my greetings to all of you and especially to our new friends here tonight. If it be your pleasure, I should be happy to attempt to answer a few questions for you or perhaps I can share with you my understanding. If it does not agree with yours and you do not wish to accept it this is your God-given right and it shall not in any way offend me. I ask you to take whatever I might say into consideration and dwell upon it and if you wish then to accept it, you may do so or reject as you please. So now do one of you have a question that I could share with you?

Questioner: How are things in communist China?

Yaum: I must say that they are quite similar to what you find in other parts of your earth. There is much Light work to be done there. But I think I must say this, that the people of China, although their situation is not what is to be desired, the population in general is better than it was under the previous reign. Many of its peoples are growing as in your country and as in all other countries. They have their great problems. Life is much different there than you know it. Although there is great suffering, yet there is not as much as there has been. We are hoping, those of us who are working there in the Light, to raise the consciousness of the people of China, as the Light workers in all other countries are attempting to do.

Questioner: Is it because of the cycle we are in that universal law allows you to attempt to raise the consciousness of the people?

Yaum: We can only do the things that are allowed by universal law to raise the mass consciousness. We can put forth the seed, energy and so forth, but the individual response, you see, depends upon the individual as in all cases. Some respond and some do not. Some respond slightly, others respond in greater degrees. We are attempting to help individuals and all those that we find that are attempting to grow, who are seeking to know, we are giving them every assistance possible. And there are many, as there is in your land. I would estimate the percentage to be very close.

Questioner: Any information regarding the status quo in the United States?

Yaum: While I do not specialize in prophecies, however there are many events to come about in your nation that are going to be very shocking to your peoples, especially in your political fields. There are going to be a number of very serious scandals but they are going to be much more than scandals. Many of the corrupt are going to be exposed and many of their exposures will come as a great shock to your peoples. It is difficult to separate the great events that are going to take place upon your planet in the very near future such as famines, cataclysms and floods. There will be many things of this type of great serious nature take place in the years to come between now and the close of the century. The next five to ten years will see some great events of this type to take place. There will be a great amount of pestilence, unknown diseases and the like develop upon your planet. But I do not wish to dwell upon these things. These don't build good vibrations for you, you see. But your great concern is not these things for as your Great Master said, if you live the life, if you live the Law as you know it and as it was laid down to you, you shall not be affected by these things. He said "A thousand may fall on your right, a thousand upon your left but nothing shall come nigh unto thee." For you are dwelling in His house and when you dwell within His house or His Kingdom, these things cannot penetrate to you. And I believe that each of you could point cases of this nature, if you were to think for a moment.

Questioner: Edgar Cayce had predicted that China would one day be the "Cradle of Christianity."

Yaum: To my knowledge there will be a number of surprises to come to the Western civilization, not necessarily to the western, but to what is called the Free World. For out of some of these countries that are considered not to be the most barbaric, shall I say, or attempting to be the most dominating, out of these countries shall come some great surprises. The people of these countries are not inactive spiritually, although their governments represent what you would call atheism, this does not exist in the hearts of all of their people. Some great spiritual giants shall come from these nations. I do not believe that any one nation is going to be the one, but it shall come from all parts of the world, for you see each has its spiritual center, each has its guiding masters. Soon, very soon, the masters of each of the great temples of the spiritual leaders of your planet shall meet again in the preparation for the new age, to form the postulates that are to guide the new age. Each shall have an equal part in this, you see. Out of some areas may come a little more understanding personalities or leaders, but each will contribute its part.

Questioner: Can you enlighten us on the karmic story of the Jewish people and to what happened under Hitler's regime?

Yaum: This, my friends, was fulfillment of the law of karma. To come down to individuals, you would have to make a study of many of their lifetimes, of the events leading up to a certain event in order to understand why a certain individual does a certain thing. You see, my friends, there is a great hierarchy of beings, Lords, who have charge over all of these things. Each group, and there are many, are assigned certain tasks to perform. One of these groups is what is known among some of your schools of special learning as the Lords of Karma. It is their duty and task to watch over that group or that planet, or whatsoever it might be. This, of course, is broken down in their group. Certain are down to even individuals who are given certain tasks to perform concerning the functioning of these laws to see that they are carried out. They keep records of every individual upon your planet. It is their task to direct these laws to see that they are carried out and to bring about certain situations that fulfill the laws. In fulfilling one karma, sometimes we build another. We are continually building karma in one way or another, what you would call either good or evil. For the law, you see, acts either way, when you do good deeds you have good deeds coming back to you and when you do evil deeds you have like coming back to you. So, you see, this is a very great and vast task when you consider the peoples of your planet. You have individual karma, you have group karma, you have national karma and you have global karma. Race karma—these are usually group souls who have worked together to bring about these things. Whatsoever a group of souls do, that shall return to them. I suppose Mr. Hitler was in the situation that he found himself, because of karma that he had created in previous lives. But you see, my friends, where you are looking at karma through the eyes of man-made laws and man-made laws are not the same as God-made laws. They are not carried out in the same way. By man's law you must commit an act before you are subject to it. But in God's law the thought is as important as the deed. To wish to strike a man, in the eyes of the Lord of Karma, is the same as if you had struck him because you have carried out the act in your mind. Thought is all creative. In fact, my friends, there is only thought. To explain to you exactly what karma Mr. Hitler should have to pay, I should have to trace his life patterns to other incarnations, which I do not have the time to do.

Questioner: Would it follow then, the Lords of Karma would bring about these situations in relation to planetary influences. So in our eyes it would appear that planetary influences caused this. This is just the reverse, right?

Yaum: The planetary forces play a part in karmic law. If a person is born under certain planetary influences, he was born under these influences to fulfill his mission or karma in that lifetime. And you are not always born under the same influences. This is chosen so that the influences that will be predominate in your lifetime will help you to work out your karma. The thing you have to be careful of is that you do not create greater karma or that you create the kind of karma that you desire. It is sad that your people do not understand these laws better. Perhaps they would live a little differently. Your religions have been very lacking in teaching these things and even in your bible, this is pointed out clearly, that man must live by the law. The karmic law is the law, that whatsoever you do unto another man he will do unto you. The thought is the same as the act. This was explained very clearly too, by your Master Jesus in His Sermon on the Mount. If you read, it carefully, you will find this made very clear. Is this not so? But your religions and your people have been inclined to brush over these things, to brush over the things that they do not want to face. This seems to be a bit of human nature. Man does not like to face himself. The most difficult thing, I believe, for man to do is to face up to himself. To look himself squarely in the eye and to realize exactly what he is and what he is doing. He will find all kinds of excuses, why he does this, why he does that.

Questioner: Usually because he wants to.

Yaum: This is the answer, of course. He does what he wants to do. And if what he is doing does not conform with the law, well then, he looks very lightly at that part of the law, you see, and he just sort of brushes it to one side and says, "I do not believe this, I do not see this."

Questioner: What about deleting certain information from the bible after the death of Christ? The trials they had concerning that.

Yaum: This has happened in many ways. It has not all come about in just one way. You see, back in those times the church was the rule, the ruling force and the priesthood became corrupt. They did not live the law. They taught the law, but they did not live it. They gradually changed things to suit what they wanted the people to know and to believe. Such things such as reincarnation and other things, that I would not like to get into, were changed or taken out, left out entirely or else the wording was changed a little bit to change the meaning. It is very easy to change the meaning of a sentence by changing one word. Oft times this was done. It was not done by any particular one. Also in your interpretations and translations there were so many of the words that had two meanings, so the interpreters got together and decided what it should mean. The meaning was interpreted a great deal according to their understanding. What they thought it should mean.

So therefore there has been a great deal lost. But you will find that throughout your scriptures many of these things are still there but they are very difficult to find. You have to look closely. They did not get it all out. For instance, there are several references that would indicate that man lives more than once upon this earth. So to go into a great detail as to who changed this and who changed that I believe is not necessary because it can be contributed to many. Although there were some, such as Constantine, through the influence of his wife, who made greater changes than some of the others. Then too, a great deal of the more profound and deeper meanings were not published in the bible, they were not for the masses. They were given what was for them, you see. What Jesus taught to His disciples, He did not teach to the masses, because they were not ready for these teachings. In order to be given the greater teachings, which gives man knowledge of the Universal Laws and how they act, is not wise until he is ready for them.

You cannot use power until you have the wisdom to use the power. You see, this is the difficulty that your civilization finds itself in. It is coming in possession of great scientific knowledge that it does not have the wisdom to handle. Only through the protection of the greater beings of the universe are there any population upon your planet today. If your mad scientists had had their way none of you would be here today. This is one of the reasons there are millions of spacecraft around your planet today, to protect you from destroying your planet in its entirety. You will never know how close your scientists have come to this once or twice already. It was only through the intervention of the hierarchy that it was prevented.

Questioner: Was the teachings that Jesus taught the disciples, what we would call today occultism?

Yaum: Yes, the Kabala teachings and many others. It is the knowledge of universal law, known to some of you as occult teachings.

Questioner: Many of these teachings were given by word of mouth and were not written, right?

Yaum: All of the great secrets of the universe were not put in writing. The name of the Creator whom you call God, has never been in writing and has never been spoken aloud and will never be.

Now, my friends, your hour is growing late and I do not wish to keep you. It has been a very great pleasure to spend this time with you. If I have been of any help to you, I am happy. I wish to thank the heads of this household for having me into their household, Questioner: Thank you for coming.

Yaum: It has been my privilege and honor. Now may the blessings of the Great Ones be invoked upon each of you now. May each of you find his way to the kingdom that is best suited for you and may each of you come into a realization of the importance of developing that which is for your peoples, in this past age, the realization of the Christ Love. May it be born in the hearts of each of you now and may it rapidly grow to maturity, that each of you may know the meaning of universal love as it is known by the Great Ones. Peace be with you beloved ones.

Peace. Peace. Peace. Go in Peace. ✿
