Good night, beloved friends. ☸

Mr. X.: I greet you, my friends, in love and understanding. I speak to you tonight from a craft within your vicinity. Our craft is of the smaller type which is operating from what you call a mother craft. The activity, though seemingly at a stand still about your planet, is very active. The numbers have not decreased. We have just not been displaying ourselves. In the not too far distance though, there shall be another cycle of events take place that will again arouse the interest of people of Earth. It is becoming more and more difficult, for the powers that be to discount our presence. Yes, many more people are aware of the presence of our craft and our people in your skies than you realize. Many hesitate to talk about it to their friends, but within their hearts they know that it is so.

The activity of the workers upon your planet, such as yourselves, has also been passing through a lull, so to speak. But this, my friends, is only temporary, for more and more, you shall find events taking place to awaken the interest of yourselves and the less interested. Take advantage of these periods, my friends, for your own development and your own growth. Add to your store house of knowledge and experience during these times, that you might be better prepared when you are most needed.

The awakening of the people of Earth is taking place, but this must be a gradual process. People, concepts, cannot be changed too rapidly, for this could be detrimental to them. This, each of you should know by your own experiences. More of our craft will be contacting you in the near future.

Each of you, by making that contact through your higher consciousness, shall find more enlightenment, wisdom and knowledge, of wide variations coming to you. But you must become still and listen, so that you might receive. Still those racing thoughts and let your mind rest with your creator so that this inflow of knowledge might be brought to you. Now is the time to grow, to grow in every way, to tap in to that storehouse of knowledge and wisdom so you may use it to your advantage and to the advantage of your brothers.

I leave you, in Love.
