

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Copyright © 2012 Clyde Trepanier

October 13, 1973

Zalhem: I greet you, my friends, in the light of love and understanding, I am Zalhem.

Tonight I shall be addressing my remarks to the younger generation of planet Earth as did my brother Nathaniel. First I should like to spend a few moments upon the remarks that you were making prior to your period of silence.

There was some discussion about how you would know what the will of the Father would be for you. In my understanding the will of the Father would be that which is for your highest good, that which would bring to you the experiences that are necessary for you to develop and to grow and to become a well rounded and knowledgeable and experienced soul.

You can determine what the Father's will is for you by developing your own intuitive senses. The things will come to you through these senses. Too often man ignores this sense, he does not pay heed to it. But this, my friends, is your most valuable guidance. Properly developed it will lead you always in the path that is right for you. Learn to recognize and follow those first impressions. Too often man, through his intellectual reasoning, discards his intuitive guidance, for at the moment it does not seem that that would be the logical path to follow.

Yet by and large, he discovers as time moves on that he would have been much wiser had he followed this inner guidance, this inner urge. Many of your people refer to this as hunches.

It is true that in the beginning before you have developed these senses, that often you might confuse intuitive guidance and intellectual urges or self desires. Learning to lay the self aside and follow these inner guidance's is one of man's important lessons that he must learn.

Man often goes astray by wildly seeking hither and yon for his knowledge and his wisdom and wastes much time and energy when if he would have but followed that inner voice he would have saved himself much time and much wasted effort.

Man will never reach great heights in love and wisdom and in power through the intellect. Intellect can only be a tool. But the true wisdom, the true knowledge and understanding, man will find only deep within himself. There he will find the knowing, the understanding. That which he reads, or hears, or sees, is only someone else's opinion or description or idea and you can never know from this. For to know one must experience and you can only experience certain things by finding the inner man.

Those of you who are of the younger generations of planet Earth have a great responsibility upon your shoulders. You have much to accomplish. The things that you must accomplish are going to require great knowledge and great wisdom and great power. But first of all you must develop that Christ love within your own heart. Experience it and know it. Without this love and this wisdom you would certainly not be qualified to be endowed with His power. Power without love and wisdom can only bring destruction. So I say to you, seek and develop this Christ love. Let the Christ child be born in your heart and nourish it to maturity so that the Holy Breath or the Holy Spirit might breathe her wisdom into you, that you might be endowed with this power. So, endowed and fortified you can go forth into the new Age and establish that kingdom of brotherhood of justice, of Peace, of love and understanding.

Many opportunities will be opened to those who are seeking in His Light, to develop themselves, to fortify themselves, to become stronger beings. Take advantage of those opportunities when they are presented but also be aware of what you are doing. Be not led astray by those forces who would offer you power of the carnal nature in His name. And there will be many of these, many will come who would lead you astray, but walk steadfast in His Light. Let always your eye be single and pray ever that you be guided and protected and that you walk in His Light.

The path is not going to be easy. You will face many situations that will try you in the very, very, most severe ways. Many times you may cry out and wonder why you have chosen such a path. But unless one is able to stand in the fire, he cannot hope to gain the heights of the great Masters.

No great accomplishment is reached without great effort and suffering and sacrifices. But in the end their rewards will be worth their efforts for the Father has great things in store for those who serve Him and serve Him well.

So to the younger generations of planet Earth. I urge you to prepare yourselves. Prepare by purification, purifying the body that it might be strong and capable of carrying you through the trials that are ahead. Strengthen the mind and soul and purify them also, for only those who are pure of heart can enter the inner sanctums of His temple. And if you would enter the innermost chambers of your temple, you must attain a state of purification. I have said enough.

May the peace, the love and the blessings of all the Great Ones be invoked upon each of you here this night. May you walk ever in his Light. May that Light become greater day-by-day in the life of each of you.

Go in Peace, my friends, go in Peace. ☸