Clyde: I see a light over the heads of each of you. Now these lights are gradually taking the shape of a round ball which is a silver color, about the size of a basketball. They are about 3 and a half to 4 feet above your heads, at identical heights ... Now a silver circle with a cross within is forming on each of the balls as though they were engraved on it. They are starting to descend over your heads very, very slowly, until they are about a half inch above you. They are setting still now. (This lasted two or three minutes.) They are starting to ascend very slowly, to their original position and are now disappearing simultaneously.

There is still a hazy light above each of you and something else is now forming but now each one is different. Over H is a triangle, over JE is a circle, over JH is a square, setting on one corner. These are gold in color and they are lines, not solid, about one inch width and one foot in size. They are now descending as did the first ones until they are a half inch from your heads. They now have a fluorescent glow around them which appears to be emanating from them. They are ascending again to the first position and beginning to fade.

Something else is now forming. It is a long and short armed gold cross which is beginning to descend. Now it is one half inch above your heads, pausing for a few moments, then ascending to the first position and now fading out. Now they are gone.

Each of your Teachers is holding their hands above your heads and saying something that I cannot hear. Now they have touched your forehead, the solar plexus and both shoulders, which makes a cross and now they are gone. ✿
