Zalhem: Greetings to you, my children, I am Zalhem. My love and my blessings I give unto you.

When your great Master, Jesus the Christ, departed from among you, He told you that another would come, who is spoken of in your Scriptures as the Comforter. This Comforter He stated, would guide you, would come into your being and would impart to you that which you need to know, that He would guide you through times of stress, of trials and tribulations and would give you the words that you were to speak in these times. All of this He promised and all of this has been available to Earth People all through these years. But Earth People have not taken advantage of this, rather they have ignored the words of this great Master.

To them, perhaps, it does not seem feasible that such could be the case but this Holy Breath or Holy Spirit is available to all men and women who seek this guidance, who prepare themselves for this Power to work through them. Know this, my friends, know that this is available to you, that this Great Power can guide you into the right paths for your highest goals. It can impress you as to the words to express when words of your own may fail you. But you must learn to trust in this Power, you must invite the Power as you do the power of the Christ to come into your heart and to work through you and with you. Many have achieved this but many more have not.

I say to you people of Earth, more and more each day you will find the need of this Holy Breath in your life, as you will the Christ love. As time marches on those who walk in the Light are going to find more and more opposition placed in their path. It would seem, in your world today that religious persecution would not be possible.

But, my friends that day is not far off when you will see this happening among your peoples.

Many of those who profess to be Christians and have not followed the Christ Path, will come face to face with the decision in the near future. They will have to decide whether they are or not a Christian. I use the word "Christian" only because in your particular section of civilization this seems to be a widely used term. But they will have to face their accusers and decide whether they will stand upon what they have professed or will yield to the will of their accusers.

Only those who will stand strong in their faith, faith in their guidance by the Higher Powers and in their protection only those will stand in the fire. All will meet the test and will have to prove their faith. There is no place for the meek, the weak and those who lack power of decision on the Path of Light. They must be sturdy, staunch and stand forth for what they believe and know to be true in the face of any opposition that they might encounter.

People of Earth are you ready to meet this challenge or are you going to hide behind the bush? Those who are not capable of standing forth will fall in the wake and in the final day will be cast aside. They will cry out for mercy, they will point out all of their virtues but this will be of no avail for they have failed the test. So those of you of planet Earth who would stand with the victors, who would carry the banner of glory and victory prepare yourself now. Become one with these greater and Holy Powers that they might be your protector and your guild and might lead you on to victory with Him.

Go in peace, my friends, go in peace. May the peace of the Great Ones find its way into the hearts of each of you. ☸
