Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends.

I would like to spend a few moments with you this evening. It is always a pleasure to be with my old friends. Is there anything you would especially like to speak about tonight, or would you just like to have a friendly visit? Perhaps you can share some of your pearls of wisdom with me, I am not all-wise, you know. I can only share my understanding with you. If it is of benefit to you and you can accept it, that is fine with me if you cannot, that is also fine with me.

Questioner: In the event of a nuclear holocaust, where should one go and what should one do?

Yaum: This, of course, would depend on the severity of the nuclear holocaust, as you call it, and how close it is to you. If you were within the blast itself there would be no escape. And if you are within the range of the radiation you are bound to suffer physical damage, depending on how close you are to it. Also, it would depend upon how much nuclear energy was released, how many bombs were detonated. If enough were spread widely, of course your whole population would suffer and there really would be no escape from it. In a smaller area, depending on how much nuclear energy was released and how far it would spread in concentration, underground protection would be useful. Safe water and food would have to be taken into an underground area where it would not be contaminated. The sad thing about releasing nuclear energy is that it penetrates into the moisture in the air, into the cloud formations and falls upon the Earth, poisoning everything as it goes. Of course the severity of this depends upon how much was released.

If your tests had continued at the rate that they were going, the whole planet would have been contaminated in just a short time to the point where your civilization would have been destroyed. This, of course, was realized by your two great powers. I believe that we told you at one time, perhaps this was before you had met here, that we went to great means to impress upon the leaders of your nation and the Soviet Union the results that would occur if this continued. This was done through a dream given to these people, and of course, many of your scientists realized this, too, and many of them did not, or at least would not admit it. Some still do not. There were one or two other events, when we impressed upon them and proved to them the severity and the dangers of what they were doing. So you see friends, it would be difficult to say exactly what you should do in nuclear attacks.

Questioner: What did Kennedy and Khrushchev consider the source of these dreams?

Yaum: They knew not the source. The dreams were given to them so strongly and so vividly that they were convinced that the testing must be stopped and that is why they were able to come to the agreement to stop the testing. They would have been stopped to a greater extent, even the underground testing, had not such great influence from some of your negative scientists been brought to bear upon the leaders of these nations. But they were really frightened from what they saw in those dreams.

Questioner: Has this happened to any of our recent leaders?

Yaum: It has not been necessary since the testing has been stopped.

There has been some influence brought in some of the other countries who have been sort of determined to pursue this and you will note that the testing, for instance, of France and China has been rather cautious and slow.

Questioner: Does Israel possess nuclear power?

Yaum: Israel has been working on this. They have not been able to gather any great power in this field as yet. They do have some power but they have not run any tests yet. They would be capable of building weapons if they wanted to.

Questioner: Were you present when President Nixon visited China and the Soviet Union recently?

Yaum: Oh yes. They did not know that I was there but I was there, as were several others. We are anxious to bring these three powers together, if possible, to prevent a great disaster, but this is difficult.

There are so many selfish power interests in all of your nations that are looking for economical advantages. So it is difficult to bring them together in a truly friendly way where they are concerned about helping each other, This is the only way that a true agreement can ever be reached. I will say and I regret to say this, that there is more sincere desire in the Soviet Union today to come to a friendly agreement, They have less selfish motive than your other two nations.

Your nation has, of course, the greatest industrial power in the world.

It controls more of the power interests of the world, such as electrical power, oil, coal and all of the things that keep industry supplied, keep it going.

Much of this is controlled by evil forces, who are money mad, power mad. There are a few who are attempting to break this up, to overthrow these evil powers.

But they are strong, much stronger than you realize. You would not believe the strength they have and how far they have penetrated into your industry, your money system and your government, But so much for that.

Questioner: I would like to ask about the new sun we have been told is coming into our solar system. How soon is this likely to happen and what will be the immediate effects upon us here on Earth?

Yaum: This will happen before the turn of the century. The exact date I cannot tell you but it will come before the end of this century. The effects will be quite numerous so it would take too long to enumerate them now. I think that you have in some of your literature quite a fair description of this.

Questioner: Would this be Kraspedon's book?

Yaum: I think that is one and it is in some other publications throughout the world, Those are quite accurate descriptions of what will take place.

Questioner: Will it actually amount to a reshuffling of the planets in the system?

Yaum: That is right. You see the magnetic center of your solar system will change therefore everything will shift into a new position because of the different force fields that will be set up.

Questioner: Will this then be the new Heaven and the new Earth described in the scriptures?

Yaum: Right, And this will have a new influence upon the planets, which will bring about a new Age. Even man himself will change. He will have a much greater brain capacity for instance, and his physical structure will be of a much finer vibration. He will be a different physical man, a different mental man because of the influences. Many other things will change upon your planet such as animal life and plant life.

Questioner: Will those who are still here in the physical be refined and changed?

Yaum: To a degree,

Questioner: Will some be able to live through the change?

Yaum: There will be some who will live through the change, However,

I will tell you this those who live through the change in the physical will be given help in making this change.

They will be people who have developed to a fairly high state of consciousness and will be the nucleus of the starting of the new Age and will later on make the transition to be born again into the new Age with an advanced brain and physical structure.

Now it is not necessary for one to remain here, through the change, in the physical in order to go into the new Age. There are going to be many who are in the astral realms who are also capable of going into the new Age. You see, they are qualified, shall we say, to reincarnate into this new Age, They will be the ones who will have the truly advanced brain and physical structure. But the greater development of it will be done by those who will incarnate into it, Do I make myself clear?

Questioner: Would this be after the year 2000?

Yaum: Yes. You see many people seem to have the idea that all of a sudden there is going to be a Utopia, that everyone will live in a new Age a new life with nothing to do but just love each other. This is not true, you see.

Great changes are going to take place upon your planet, great cataclysms will occur, lands will go down, lands will come up. In order to start this new civilization, there is going to be a tremendous amount of work to be done.

It is like starting a new civilization. This is something that so many of your metaphysical students do not seem to realize.

Questioner: Will many be taken off the planet during some of these cataclysms by transportation?

Yaum: It is described in your Bible. Some will be taken into spaceships and will remain there for a time, During this time they will be given a course or training and will be put through physical therapy that will improve their brains and their minds. They will not be equal to some of the more advanced ones that will come later, but it will give them the capability of establishing what is to be established and an understanding of it. Many from the astral plane are being taught and given training there now. Those who are capable and are deserving of it are being prepared there now.

You see the Father's plan is so great. His work so great, that it is difficult to conceive of some of the things that will be done. It is a tremendous thing when you think of it.

Questioner: Are study groups like this being prepared to make the transition?

Yaum: Yes, and many of you are being given training and preparation on the inner planes, during sleep that you are not yet aware of, in classes that are advanced much more than you think. It is difficult for you to realize the capabilities that man has, how many parts a man has and in certain states of consciousness one is not aware of the other or what lies within the other. It is a fascinating subject, is it not? Someday you'll understand all of these things. Is it not said in your scriptures that the Holy Breath will reveal all things to man? Did not your Master tell His disciples that in this time, in this changes that some men will have reached the point where the greater things will be revealed to them and they will understand? That day is fast approaching my friends, and I rejoice that this is so.

Questioner: In the Bible it says that there will be 144,000 people left upon the Earth. Is this literally true?

Yaum: Everything in your Bible has literal meaning and symbolic meaning, but that would be about the number that would be left at the end of this age and all of those will not be in the physical. You see there is not as much separation between the physical and the astral as you might think and the veil is getting thinner and thinner all the time. Soon everyone will see through it.

Questioner: What is meant by the Teachers when they refer to those belonging to the "Order"?

Yaum: There are a number of Orders, I assume you are speaking of the Order of Brotherhoods. There are several, depending upon the type of mission that this particular one is carrying out, I think that most of your teachers are from what they call the Silent Brotherhood. This is a large Brotherhood devoted to helping mankind and spreading spiritual enlightenment, to guide those who are searching and who are sincere in their search for truth. In aiding them in accomplishing that which they seek, guiding them many times into pathways that will be beneficial to them both in their service to mankind, in their spiritual growth, and to aid them in preparing themselves better for service.

Questioner: Did I understand you to say that there would be less than 144,000 souls in the physical at the end of the Age?

Yaum: Approximately that many. It is really not too important whether they are in the physical or the astral.

Questioner: Would that mean that the bulk of civilization would be wiped out?

Yaum: Yes, and those who are left will be the ones who are capable of starting, building and preparing for the new Age.

You see, if you had many more than that you would probably have much more difficulty. It is going to take them approximately a thousand years to build and prepare the way. Then many other souls of lesser understanding, will be begin to incarnate, This was the symbol used in your Bible when it said that Satan would be loosed as these people have not completely overcome self. They still have some selfish desires and are very concerned with self, so they have overcoming to do. This will again inject a negative force into the civilization, but these souls will have a much greater capacity to overcome because they will have a more refined body and a larger capacity to think and to use their brain.

Questioner: Doesn't the Scripture also say that Christ will personally reign on the Earth during this period?

Yaum: He will direct and will be the influencing figure in this period.

Questioner: From the inner planes?

Yaum: The inner plane at that time will be so intermingled with the outer plane that they will be difficult to separate. He will be able to come and go and it will not be uncommon to see Him among you.

Questioner: Will this civilization be widely dispersed around the Earth or localized in certain areas?

Yaum: It will be somewhat scattered, but will be localized in areas where civilization will have the best chance to develop and then it will spread.

Questioner: Will this civilization be composed of the seven tribes, the seven races?

Yaum: Yes, the seven will still be prevalent. It is a mystic number.

Questioner: This is not being done as the result of man's wickedness but rather as a part of the Father's plan. Is that correct?

Yaum: It is part of the Father's plan for evolution of man. But had man never fallen this would not be necessary. Through each Age man has progressed to a certain degree, although perhaps it does not show too much at times. He is now ready to enter into an Age of true spiritual understanding and true brotherly love.

Questioner: Are there any space people working in this area?

Yaum: They are in every city in your country and in every other country. They infiltrated into your civilization so smoothly that they are not even noticed. Your governments think that they have things so tightly woven that no one can enter, yet people are coming and going from other planets all the time, creating the proper papers and money and everything else, yet you do not even know they are here.

Questioner: Are there some people in our government who know they are here?

Yaum: Yes, but those who know do not talk about it.

Questioner: I hope that there are some of them near us.

Yaum: You rub elbows with them quite often, but you are not aware of it.

Questioner: Are they aware of us?

Yaum: To use your terminology, you'd better believe it! They know more about you than you know about yourself.

Questioner: There is a black woman in American politics today, who seems to be able to zero in on the real heart of a situation. Her name is (name).

I feel that she really speaks the truth. Is she being guided by the higher beings to enlighten people?

Yaum: Yes, she is being inspired to bring the truth to people. However, few people listen to her, as it is with all other people who try to bring truth. I'm sure you are all aware of that and have experienced it yourselves. Even in the ventures that you now find yourselves in, it is difficult to point out the truth to people. They do not want to know these things. They like to stay in their own little circle and draw a fence around it and hope that every trouble will go away. Troubles which man created do not go away by themselves. Man must do something to make them go away or they only become more troublesome. He cannot ignore the violation of God's laws.

There is much to be done upon your planet. We hope that you will talk advantage of every opportunity that comes your way to serve. For when you serve your fellow man, you have served the Father and the angels, rejoice.

May the blessing, the love, the understanding and the Peace of the Father, of the Son and of the Mother, of all the great ones, be invoked upon each of you now.

My Peace and my love I give to each of you. ☸
