Nathaniel: Greetings, I am Nathaniel. Well I do not think that it is necessary to repeat all that I said, it is general information, and it is always difficult to repeat something exactly once it has been said, unless it is a prepared thing. We speak mostly extemporaneously or to use your terminologies, off the shoulder or the top of our heads. But if you have some questions or something that is disturbing you, I will be happy to work with you.

Questioner: I thought it was interesting the comments that you made, about what Jesus said about sharing or going forth and giving truth to people.

Nathaniel: What I was trying to convey was that the general consciousness was that they must go forth and convert everyone to Christianity and the forgiveness of sin. If they accept a savior, He will absorb their sins and they are free but this is not what the Nazarene really said and a lot of these things have been lost in interpretation. There are many times in Scriptures where certain words have been translated into certain terminologies where the word should have been truth.

Questioner: What about the Aquarian Gospel, it uses extensively the words baptism and sin?

Nathaniel: That is something entirely different. What I am talking about is that the world must be made aware or at least those who are seeking and who are willing to be open minded and who are wanting to know truth, that they be taught the truth about themselves, or be given the truth, and isn't this coming now from all directions? And from various levels of society? You see the law of concentration and visualization being taught now and the effect of the mind upon the body, and the welfare of the individuals. This is truth. It is telling man that you are responsible for your own welfare, your own prosperity, your own environment, your own health.

Questioner: Yes, I understood that point. My present question or comment is that of the accuracy of the Aquarian Gospel. It was supposedly from the Akashic records, in using these terms, as they are used in the Bible, baptism and sin?

Nathaniel: Well you have to understand that many books of that type and those individuals that wrote those books, that every word of that book did not come from the Akashic record. Do you understand that?

Questioner: No, it has been believed that every word was from the Akashic records.

Nathaniel: Many of the statements and things that was said in the Aquarian Gospel are colored by Levi's own belief. He was a great Bible student, a student of philosophy and a certain amount of the terminologies that he used were the same as were used in the Bible. This is not to say that he did this on purpose to mislead anyone, but they were his own beliefs. The main thing that he took from the Akashic records was the life of the Nazarene. What the sequences were of his life.

Questioner: Well that would be interpreted in his own words too.

Nathaniel: Not to the point to certain sayings could be. It's a matter of terminology and often terminologies mean one thing to one person and another thing to another.

Questioner: This is why it was said, I guess, by Yaum I believe, that the Aquarian Gospel is the most accurate record that we have of the life of the Master.

Nathaniel: Yes, I would agree with that. It is the most accurate record that you have of the life of the Nazarene.

Questioner: But he did not go on to say that it was colored by Levi.

Nathaniel: This is like what many of your Christians say that every word in the Bible is the gospel truth, because it was inspired by God, but a great deal of the sayings in the Bible were the opinions of an individual.

Questioner: Yes, I understand but it would have been helpful if that statement had been qualified to the accuracy, accurate to the point where Levi colors it himself, but that was not said. Also I'd like to point out in my experience that many people who have been so-called converted have had a wonderful life of serving, and joy, and peace, after this has taken place.

Nathaniel: This is true, and the reason they did, is that they turned their lives around, they had an experience and through that experience they turned their lives around, and began to live, and anyone who decides to do this will have the same experience, but this is what we are saying about those who choose to put their foot upon the path, to trod the path, they have to come to the point where they know and realize that there has to be something better, that there is a better way. They have to turn their lives around, turn away from the materialism, and seek the spiritual, and this is what the Master meant when he said you could not serve two Masters. You can't. You cannot serve two masters. You will favor one or the other.

Questioner: When Universal Mind, in the process of evolvment created, expressed I should say others, or other entities or egos, that it wasn't possible to express a perfected One, that they had to suffer in order for Universal Mind to grow, that this had to be. Is this true?

Nathaniel: When man was created he was created as nearly to perfection as could be perceived of at that time, in that evolutionary day, and then as he began to evolve, he lived in a state of what you would perhaps call perfection. He did not experience pain, he did not experience hunger, he lived from the ethers, which surrounded him. He was mind, and mind alone. But this was not giving him knowledge. It was a very boring existence.

Questioner: Why did Universal Mind have to do this to begin with, when it must have known that there would be suffering? That this imperfection would result, why did that have to happen?

Nathaniel: Let me continue. In order for man to grow and experience farther, he had to come into a lower vibratory existence. You and your higher self is the highest vibratory thing upon this planet, and the only way that it can exist here, is to possess a physical body, and this was necessary for them to have, and therefore a body had to be evolved, and this body was evolved up through the animal kingdom, and I am being very brief about this, to a point to where it could be used by those minds, and gradually they began to migrate to this planet and join with these bodies.

Questioner: Did this happen simultaneously on other planets?

Nathaniel: Not necessarily no, but it is happening there on millions of different evolutionary systems. There are seven planets in each system, and they evolve from one to the other. This is the fourth planet of this system. Merging with these animal bodies was a new experience, prior to that they had never experienced the senses. The sex desire, the food desire, and all of the other desires. So what happened was that they became engrossed in these carnal pleasures, and forgot their original purpose. Then taking place for many, many years, the higher mind is trying to conquer the lower mind, to become the master of it, in other words to bring the vibration of it up to the vibration of the higher mind. But many get lost, many get lost in the satisfying of the senses. Of the lower self, that they become more a part of the lower self, than themselves.

Questioner: Well, couldn't have Universal Mind have foreseen? Isn't there a better way to gain knowledge than this way? Couldn't they have foreseen what was going to happen?

Nathaniel: I would assume that they did see what was going to happen. And that they were working this out to the best of their ability. And that each Cosmic day will bring a better civilization, for everything is in the process of evolvment. People are like seeds, scattered upon the ground. You may go out and scatter millions of seeds, as millions of these have been scattered upon the planets. Some will find fertile ground, will grow very quickly, others more slowly. Some will develop much faster than others. And some will fall on rocky soil and will perish. This is the way it is throughout all nature, and man is no different than the other kingdoms. But those who fall on rocky soil, who do not develop, will go back into Universal Consciousness to come forth in another time, and perhaps do to the evolvment of the Creators, of Universal Mind itself, their opportunities will be much better. You see this same thing happening all around you. It is a process of nature.

Questioner: It is hard to keep ones sights on this perfection, and the positive side, and to believe that there really is one, when the other is also a necessary part of it. It is hard to determine the side one wants to be on. Maybe it's better to go back and wait for another Cycle?

Nathaniel: But man was created with a free choice, he can choose his way. But the trouble is man becomes lazy. He becomes mentally lazy. He does not use the facilities given him. Rather he expends his energies in the pursuit of the carnal things.

Questioner: Well my point goes way back farther than that, I understand all this carnal, material desires, and animal natures. It seems so tragic that Universal Mind has given us the freedom of negative or positive, that this choice exists to begin with.

Nathaniel: You think then that they should be given only the power to do the positive things?

Questioner: Well that is what we're striving for.

Nathaniel: Then you wouldn't have to strive at all would you. You wouldn't have anything to accomplish. It would be a free world, everything would be for free.

Questioner: I think Universal Mind would be beautiful, and spiritual, or happy enough, it would not want to create this possibility. The only way to evolve is by suffering. Its hard for me to conceive of anyone experiencing such great joy, and such great beauty.

Nathaniel: You see the big problem with so many is they would like to have everything done for them. They think it would be so nice to just lay back and have everything come to them, not have to put forth any effort at all. Like your heaven is depicted.

Once they are there, all they do is walk around on the streets of gold, float around on the clouds, playing their harps.

Questioner: See that doesn't bother me the effort, it's the suffering of the little children, and the animals, and people that goes along with gaining this perfection. The effort of doing it is nothing as compared to the suffering entailed.

Nathaniel: You see you are putting all of your emphasis on the negative side of life, instead of on the positive side. So long as you do that, you will not be able to do anything to change any of these situations, because you are adding to it, you are becoming part of the problem, rather than part of the solution.

Questioner: I'd just like to know why it all had to be, to begin with.

Nathaniel: It only has to be because man made it so.

Questioner: No, that possibility was there when man was Created.

Nathaniel: The possibility was there, but why do you think there are always a few in every generation who move off beyond all of this, above it, and those are the ones who are really doing something to try to solve these situations, to make them better.

Questioner: Well you see, I've never come to terms with this. I could never understand why this was part of creation to begin with, and I guess I never will, in this lifetime.

Nathaniel: It was not a part of creation, as I explained to you, it was the fault of the individual egos themselves, in allowing themselves to get lost in this.

Questioner: But they had to in order to gain knowledge, they had to be subjected to all of this freedom.

Nathaniel: Nothing is forced upon anyone.

Questioner: Well you said in order to have knowledge, they had to go through this experience.

Nathaniel: They had to go through it because they allowed themselves to get lost. And as they became lost in this, and sank lower and lower into the materialistic side of life, they brought upon themselves more unhappiness, and more suffering.

When that individual ego reaches the point, if he does, where he, to use your terminologies, feed up with his suffering, and says to himself, there has to be a better way, there is a better way, then he turns his life around, and this is what happens, to the people that you are talking about that have these experiences, and then turn their lives around, through this experience they come to the conclusion, to the determination that there is a better way, and that they are going to pursue it.

Questioner: But you see, I see something good even in that.

Nathaniel: Sure I'm not saying that there isn't anything good in it.

Questioner: Salvation, and all that, it brings them to that point, where they can turn it around, because of the belief that Jesus is helping them, and has prepared a better way for them, without that foreknowledge they would ...

Nathaniel: He is not preparing the way, they are doing it themselves.

Questioner: I know, but they wouldn't have come to that point if they hadn't been exposed to the idea.

Nathaniel: But sooner or later they will learn that it is their own efforts, and if you look at those that have been successful, it been due to the way that they have lead their life, after that. They start giving instead of taking. They start serving.

Questioner: Then are you saying that some of those egos that were expressed through Universal Mind evolution, that they didn't all then fall as it were, in the seeking of knowledge?

Nathaniel: I think fall is perhaps a poor word, to use. I think that this was more or less a process that is a part of evolution as you advance from one stage to another.

Questioner: Is it true then that some of those, in order to gain knowledge did not have to go through the negative part?

Nathaniel: They experienced the negative part, but they recognized it, and overcame it much more quickly. They did not go through thousands of lifetimes of the same mistakes, as some have been doing. And some will never change, some grow worse, they sink lower and lower and lower, until ...

Questioner: A Being said to us once "I am one of those who did not fall with the fall of man," this is what raised the question.

Nathaniel: I would assume that what he meant was, if you were to dig into the true meaning, was that he was not one of this civilization. That he perhaps was from another cosmic day. You see what happens is those beings who have reached Great heights, and have made the decision to go on serving, and have become Solar Spirits, or Creators, many of those are carryovers from another cosmic day. They have gone into rest during the rest period, and when the new day starts over again, they are awakened, and are the Creators of that Day. And they are the ones who carry out the will of Universal Mind. Universal Mind itself does not do the creating. It only impresses upon those, that which it desires.

Questioner: That you could give as you did yesterday, in being able to be helpful if others seek this kind of help, in evaluating the kind of treatment, or information or whatever that is being given out, that you know that we have been involved. I know that there will be those that will be wanting to know what C. thinks about it or what you the teachers say about it, and if you could just give some general rules that could be used in this case, such as you did yesterday, I would appreciate that.

Nathaniel: I read you as saying, that you would like to be advised as to how to react to those who have either decided to follow or are considering some of these others sources of information.

Questioner: Not our evaluation, but what Universal Law, what you of greater understanding would say.

Nathaniel: Each one, each individual must make their own decisions about these things. If they are not wise enough to determine what is truth and what is not truth, if they have a desire, weather they realize it or not, to have their egos inflated, then that is their problem, and they will only learn through experience. Time will tell.

Questioner: But we've already been asked what do you think about ...

Nathaniel: It is not my prerogative, or your prerogative to make judgment on these things. I would put it right back in their own lap. You decide for yourself what you think.

Questioner: Well, I think that there should, or there can be guidelines as we've been given them.

Nathaniel: We have given guidelines time after time, and all of these people that you know, that are in any way exposed, know these guidelines. If they are not wise enough to use them, if they allow another ego to overcome their judgment, then that is something that they will have to suffer for. It is a way that they will learn.

Questioner: If I'm asked point blank about a certain passage or something, and to me it's very dishonest if I would not say straight forwardly, "to me that is ego, this is my understanding, this is ego." That would be an honest answer. How do I not answer it in an honest way?

Nathaniel: You do not have to answer at all. You can merely say I do not care to judge, I would rather you would make your own judgment.

Questioner: Judging is evaluating something, or having your own understanding and sharing your own understanding is not necessarily judging.

Nathaniel: Well, there is a fine line there. Often we are judging, when we don't think that we are judging.

Questioner: But I have to make my own determination, I have to ...

Nathaniel: Sure you have to make your own, but you do not have to sway others with yours.

Questioner: Well, I wouldn't have much respect for a person if I asked them a question, and they were not able to give me their true answer.

Nathaniel: But in many cases, and perhaps ninety-nine cases out of one hundred, they would resent your answer rather than accept it, and in so doing, they are directing negative thoughts to you, because they think you are being over judgmental, and over enthusiastic about giving your opinions.

Questioner: If I have to listen to a discourse on this from another source, and then I cannot express, in honesty, my reaction, or my evaluation of it, then how do I get out of the situation without having to listen to it to begin with?

Nathaniel: You don't have to listen to it, but if you want to listen, to get your own reactions that is fine.

Questioner: Then be dishonest about how I react.

Nathaniel: No all you need to do is say, that was interesting, or something of that type, or if it's something that is given for the future, such as predictions, all you need to say is time will tell. And it is only through time, that those who are falsely teaching, that they will be exposed. Such as, for example, this man Benjamin Cremes. He spent several years with his Teachings, and had a very large following, but in the end he was exposed, because what he was expounding did not come to pass.

Questioner: Well if I had been, if the recording had taken place yesterday there was much said that if anyone would ask what do your teachers, what would they have to say about this, what is Universal law, or how would they interpret Universal Law to apply to this.

Nathaniel: I did not say anything yesterday that I did not say today with the exception of when you asked about this being addressed as a master, and all I had to say about that was that it depends in what text the word master is used. It can have several meanings. The teacher might be using it in one terminology or one context, where the individual might be interpreting it in another context, and the teacher could be using it just to inflate the ego of the individuals. But I am only giving general information there, that can be applied anywhere.

Questioner: Well, I appreciate your further comments, and your enlightenment to some of these issues, but thank you for coming, and if there are any other comments you'd like to make I'd appreciate it.

Nathaniel: Well, I don't know that there is to much more that I can say, but we cannot get to concerned about the things that other people get into, and try to promote, we may see through our own eyes the errors of something of this type, but we cannot persuade them, or try to, it only makes matters worse. They have to just stand back and watch the procession take place, you do not have to become involved.

Questioner: My deepest concern, or regret is that all these things have to be experienced by some, and we're so far short of the real mark of what needs to be done at this time, in preparation of our own growth, and the growth of a Light center in the future, that it all seems to take so long.

Nathaniel: If an individual or individuals are of a nature that they need personal attention, and need to entirely have their egos inflated and be told only the positive side of life, then they are in trouble, for when the negative side affects them, they will not be able to cope with this.

They will not have the poise necessary, and we have to develop poise if we are going to deal with life.

Questioner: As you probable very well know, I lost all kinds of balance, or poise in the course of the joining of the forces around me, and the race consciousness helped a great deal, because I left my self open for that.

Nathaniel: When you join with that constructive side, it can be very constructive to the individual themselves.

Questioner: Well as you know, I fell again, all the negativity around me, and in me, that it just became paramount. I'm having a terrible time getting out of it. But that's something that only I can do I guess.

Nathaniel: You have to begin to see and to function on the positive side because as long as you are sunken in the mire of the negative side, there is little you can do to improve the situations.

Questioner: Well it was all based on this lack of being able to accept the knowledge, of what its all about, and why should it be that way, in the first place, this was the basic underlying disturbance which brought in all the others.

Nathaniel: But until man is taught and learns his responsibilities, he is not going to come up out of these things. And this is what I was emphasizing the other day, when I said that the Master Jesus, when he said to go forth into the world and before these times, these later days that everyone would have to be given the opportunity to know the truth, but the Christians have interpreted this to saying that everyone must know about Jesus, and must accept Him as their savior if they are going to be saved, and this is not what he was saying, he was saying that everyone should have an opportunity to know the truth, and as I said before, the truth is being presented on many levels today. There are any number of different ones that are coming to the realization that the laws of cause and effect, and giving and receiving, and the power of the mind over ones circumstances, and ones health. All of these things are a part of the truth being presented to the people. They will not all accept it of course, but everyone has the opportunity. But unless they open their minds to seek, and open their eyes to see, and their ears to hear, it will not benefit them.

Questioner: Well, you will concede I'm sure that this point ... that I have seen this turnaround, or this knowledge come to people through this sin and conversion method, so it has had good results.

Nathaniel: Sure, I am not condemning the charismatics.

Questioner: Even out of the worst of things some good can come, right?

Nathaniel: They have done immense good in the world. They have brought many people to salvation, or shall we say have turned their lives around. They are using the law, but are not aware of it. Just like many of them, of the healing, and many of them, talk about God speaking to them. Universal Mind does not speak directly to anyone. It comes through one of the servants, but if you were to tell them that they had any psychic powers, they would throw up their hands in horror. But that does not matter, so long as they are using the law and using it properly. Ignorance of the law does not exempt the use of it. And this is why it is so important to know about these laws because you are using them every day, Whether you know it or not. It is better to know and use them properly, than to ignorantly use them against yourself and others.

Questioner: Thank you very much for coming.

Nathaniel: But anyone who teaches that they are going to do it for you, they are going to raise your vibrations, and they are going to do this and do that for you are teaching falsely because the only one who can do it, is you yourself. You might be given some spiritual experience which would awaken you to the realization or the necessity of learning more about these things, but in the end you must do the work, the effort.

Questioner: I've heard some of these charismatic teachers always say, "read the bible, follow Jesus' teachings, live the law, serve your fellow man, feed him," and many of them follow up with improving ones self. So that is good too.

Nathaniel: That is good. But there are others in individual groups that are dealing with certain entities that are giving them false information, and the teacher whomever it might be, are doing a lot of these things for them, and they're not, and usually those things lead to downfall.

Now I must leave you, and as I leave I extend my love and my peace, and my blessings. I invoke the blessings of the Great Ones. May you find peace with yourself. Be at peace with all things, and all things will be at peace with you. Go in peace, peace, peace. peace. ☸
