

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Copyright © 2012 Clyde Trepanier

April 27, 1974

Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends.

It is my pleasure to see so many of my old friends here tonight. I should like to extend my special greetings to each of you. It is always a great joy for me to come among you and I wish to extend my gratitude for being accepted into your household. If I can be of any service or help to you, I shall be happy to do so. I should be glad to talk about any subjects that you choose. I do not say that I will be able to answer any question that you may have, but I shall do my best. If anyone has a suggestion will you bring it forth?

Questioner: As you know we don't understand the process of becoming androgynous. Do you think that we are far enough along the spiritual path that we might understand it a little bit more?

Yaum: This is a deep and very intricate subject which requires a great deal of time and detailed explanation which really does not have too much importance to earth people as they stand today. This is in the future for them and can be understood and accepted much better at a time when you are more ready for it, you see, we have found that Earth people sometimes get into more difficulties by knowing about some of these things than they would had they not known about them.

Questioner: Are you aware of Dr. Alsleben and his work here?

Yaum: There are many, many projects being put forth upon the planet today. I am aware of what you are speaking, but it is not something that I have followed in any detail, because I have my own particular field that I am working in, and it is not possible for me to follow in detail all of the things of this type that are going on all over the planet. You see, you are more inclined to observe in local areas whereas my work is more overall upon the planet, and we are concentrating upon larger problems.

Questioner: I heard on a recent news broadcast that the United Nations has been holding meetings to discuss the plans for the new world monetary system. Were you present at these meetings?

Yaum: I have been at some of them and some of our group have attended all of them. This is true. There are these preparations being made, and of course your big money interests, the international bankers see the handwriting on the wall. They know that the monetary system is crumbling and is bound to go because it has no foundation anymore to hold it up, so they are planning other ways of handling this. There are a number of plans under discussion but eventually everyone will have a number and you will not handle money as you do now. It will be all handled on paper through computers, and of course you are already all numbered and catalogued.

There are records on you that would amaze you if you could examine them and see how much they know about you. These include your educational records, records of any law violations, family records, etc. All of these are being put into computers.

Questioner: How about our spiritual affiliations?

Yaum: Much of that is also being recorded. Some of your people, even some of your government people are becoming concerned about this and rightly so. They should because this is a violation of human rights, you see. But this is what is spoken of in your scriptures when it refers to the "mark of the beast." It will not be a mark put upon your forehead, but it will be a number and a record. These things are going on and there are some very devious plans in certain areas or higher echelons as you would call them.

Questioner: Would having a UFO contact be considered a negative part of one's record in their eyes?

Yaum: It could be because they do not condone this sort of thing. It is because of these sources that these things have been suppressed and held back because they do not want the masses to realize what is going on.

Questioner: In David Wilkerson's new book on prophecy, he stresses the religious persecutions which will take place.

Yaum: Oh yes, this will come. You will be tested as in the days of old when the followers of the Master Jesus were persecuted. This will happen again. It is hard to conceive and understand, for such a thing to happen to what is supposed to be a civilized people.

Questioner: Will this be just the metaphysical groups, or will the orthodox religions be persecuted also?

Yaum: Anyone who follows in the path, for we cannot isolate ourselves as the only ones here or there. There are people in all walks of life in all religions who are good people, and are following the dictates of their hearts and are trying to follow the teachings of the Master that were brought here for them to follow. It will happen to anyone who stands forth for what he believes and will not yield to the will of the oppressors. What they are trying to do is bring the people under their control. You see there has been too much freedom gained in certain parts of the world. The great money interests are not really after money, it is power over people. Monetary wealth only helps them to gain this power. In the United States, for instance, your middle class has become a very powerful group, and this was not to the liking of the great money interests. They have been able to hold this down more in other countries than they have in your country, so for years they have been planning a way to break down the power of this middle class.

The only way that they can do it is to gain the power over them by placing more strain upon them in the way of inflation, higher taxes, and all of this, to break them down to where they, too, are struggling for life itself.

Questioner: The solution then, would be to become as self sufficient as you can get, regarding food and other necessities, correct?

Yaum: Right, for if you read your scriptures carefully, you will see these times being described. They are using terminology's that do not exactly fit the language of today, but nevertheless, if you read a little between the lines you will understand. It definitely states that those who do not have the mark of the beast will neither be allowed to buy, to sell, or to trade, you see. By having these records and by knowing who stands where, they can put the pressure on these people.

Questioner: What is the universal purpose of the great drought in Africa that they estimate may take the lives of as many as ten million people?

Yaum: Well, my friend, you would have to know the past records of these people back through other lifetimes, you see, and know what their karma was to draw a judgment on what is happening to a certain group people now. You could say the same thing about any catastrophe that happens such as a tornado, earthquake, or what have you. There have been times when certain groups of people from other civilizations through their own actions have brought about certain starvation conditions for other races or groups of people and these things all react, you see. Also, gradually this civilization is being removed, as is prophesied in your scriptures. Different segments of your population upon this planet will be removed in different ways depending a great deal upon the karmic pattern of these individuals. As time goes on you are going to see greater masses removed in shorter times through sudden catastrophes such as earthquakes, floods, etc.

Questioner: Would this be race karma, or just karma that is being fulfilled for a number of people from all over the world that happened to incarnate together in this particular lifetime?

Yaum: I would rather think, without having this traced out, that this perhaps is a race karma. You see there have been times upon your planet, for instance, when the black race dominated the white race, and this is part of the reason that the black race has been suppressed so much during this time. At the time that this happened, the black race was quite ruthless with the white race, and this has been true with some of the other races. Karma has caught up with them, you see. But to know the facts would take a tracing back of these races into other times and other, civilizations.

Questioner: What is the length of time that the races have been upon this planet?

Yaum: Since civilization first developed, there has always been different races which developed in different parts of the world. The color, for instance, could be due to the environment in which they lived, to a certain extent, but there have always been the different color races.

Questioner: It would seem then, that we need to develop our inner strength, learning to abide in the Presence, so that we might successfully meet our challenges.

Yaum: This is true. You should live for today and do the best you can today. For if we do the best we can today, we are creating a better karma for tomorrow. We must meet the daily challenges as they come to us and often by meeting these in a proper way, we are paying off past karma, and building a new and positive karma.

So, you must live in love, understanding, and tolerance for your fellow man, and follow the teachings of your Master, which he laid out for you and told you what you must do. But your people have not listened to this. They have listened to the opposition which tells them no, you do not do it this way. You must get an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth. They have misinterpreted this part of your scriptures. It was not saying that you should get an eye for an eye and tooth for a tooth, but that you must pay an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth through karma.

Questioner: Is it not true that when you raise your own consciousness that you are helping to raise the consciousness of others in the world?

Yaum: When you raise your own you are helping to raise that of the race, and as an individual, if you can raise your own high enough you can escape that of the race.

Questioner: In terms of helping these poor people in China, Africa, et cetera, this is probably the best way that we can help them for the present, is it not?

Yaum: Yes, you should help them for by helping them you are creating better karma for yourself, you see. This is one of the problems that your civilization has created. They have not helped some of these people and in turn they have created reverse karma for themselves, you see. In the case of the black race of your country, they were brought here in slavery of course, but your people, by and large, did not help these people as they should have. Yes, they freed the slaves, but it was not done in reality to free the slaves, it was a monetary thing. Then after they freed them what did they do for them? They did not educate them nor help them to raise their consciousness. They were left on their own and they did not know-how to handle it, you see. Your people of the white race here, have created a karma that they someday will have to pay off.

Questioner: One of the popular teachers of today, says that love can transcend karma in that it enables us to rise above a situation, is that correct?

Yaum: I would like to add a little bit to that. This is true to a certain extent. By doing this, your karma will be paid more easily and much quicker, but nevertheless, that karma must be paid. It is debt that you owe in universal law, but you can lighten this through love, service, and understanding, and it can be paid with very little effort and suffering.

Questioner: This is where service becomes very important, does it not?

Yaum: Yes, service to your fellow man is most important, and little is this realized among your masses. More often it is how much service can I get for myself, not realizing, of course, that by giving service they are bound to have it come back to them many fold. This has not been emphasized and taught in your civilization and this is sad. If this had been taught in your schools, in your churches, etc., you would have a much different civilization today. It would be a wonderful civilization, would it not? Everyone would be trying to serve the other. He would be thinking in terms of what is best for all rather than what is best for self. But little of this do you see.

Questioner: Then this is the type of consciousness that we must build in order to face the persecutions when they come, is it not?

Yaum: Yes, this is true. This is something that you have to acquire, a selflessness, you see, where you do not think in terms of self. As your Master has often said, "he who gives his life will save his life," and of course, this is true. The physical, chemical life as you live it here has but little importance compared to the eternal life, which is the real life that you are striving for. So why worry about losing something that is not very valuable to you anyhow, when by losing it you will gain a much higher life beyond.

Questioner: Knowing the importance of maintaining a high level of consciousness continually, I find myself wondering how I might do this and still keep my feet on the ground concerning responsibilities I must carry.

Yaum: You are wondering how you can be in this world but not of this world. Well, this does require a bit of doing because as long as we are living in the physical, we have certain responsibilities. We have certain things that we must accomplish, so one must keep his feet on the ground, being practical and yet be able to realize and know what is beyond and strive for those things. He must be able to meet his fellow man daily in love and in understanding in order to build for himself a better life. One must be careful that one does not get too far afield either way, and try to live entirely in the spiritual or higher plane and forget about your responsibilities here. It is a matter of balance and using discretion in all that you do. It is very wise to be discerning, to weigh all things carefully and through meditation come to conclusions as to what is right and what is not.

There are those negative forces which try very hard to lead those who are seeking the light astray, and they are very, very clever and devious sometimes in the methods that they use. They will creep in where one will not suspect sometimes and lead them astray, and I'm sure that all of you have seen this happen. And it happens to sincere people because they have not realized the danger of this sort of thing. So one should be discerning and test all things, and in your spiritual searching you should weigh all of the information and experiences that you have. Wisdom is a part of God, you see, and we are supposed to use wisdom in our choosing. We should at all times ask and endeavor to be endowed with this wisdom of the Holy Breath, and if we do receive this, we will be guided into the right paths. We will have the wisdom to choose and to discern.

Questioner: We were wondering if it would be wise at this time that more people be informed of the dangers of the negative powers? Do you think that there is not enough generally known for one's own protection?

Yaum: I think that your masses are very ignorant of these things and of course, this is one reason why you have the possessions that you have. There are many more of these than are recognized and many of your people do not want to believe in that sort of thing, not wanting to know about it because they fear it. They fear the unknown, but this is a lack of education, and your civilization, especially in your nation, has been very, very prone to ignore this sort of thing and say that it does not exist, so psychic defense is a very important part of one's development. When you know and understand something you do not fear it, because you have the wisdom to deal with it.

Questioner: Would you care to comment on the status quo of world politics at this time?

Yaum: Well as I have said before, the whole situation that has developed in the last few months on your planet is a great conspiracy, and it is part of the plan to gain more power over your people.

Questioner: Could you comment on our relationship with Egypt and that situation there?

Yaum: It looks like this situation will probably be eased for awhile. Your Mr. Kissinger is sincere in his efforts to do this and has been quite successful, but eventually there is going to be more trouble there. It is what you would call in your terminology, a "powder keg", and things could happen there, but I think they are going to try and hold it down at least for awhile.

Questioner: I am trying to understand this new friendship that the United States has established with Egypt. Apparently, we are still going to give financial aid to Israel, and now we are going to give money to Egypt also. Is this going to enable them to have a "greater go" at each other later on?

Yaum: Well, they cannot fight unless they have something to fight with. Russia is not so anxious to give their resources away as is your country, and they have demanded payment for much of the material that they have furnished, and Egypt has not been able to pay, so they are looking for another source now, and the powers that be have a way of manipulating their puppets so that the money flows where they want it to, and they let the poor tax payers pay for it.

Questioner: Evidently the Egyptians are very well ruled by these money powers, since they had all those missiles lined up and aimed at Israel and none were fired.

Yaum: Yes, these powers pull the strings and the leaders are told what to do, and if they don't do it they are eliminated.

Questioner: Apparently, the Arabian takeover of the oil production is bringing them a great deal of money. Will this make them a contending power against the great money interests?

Yaum: Most of this is just a front. They are being allowed to have more, but it will be taken away from them. It is only a maneuver, and through all this the big money interests are piling up profits. It is even coming out in your news, and you all know and realize this. Of course, they are using excuses that they are going to need this profit to develop more power so that your people will have enough energy. But they have been developing it for years and making big profits, too, so why do they need to make two or three times as much profit now to develop a little more?

Questioner: Will solar energy become widely used before we are fully into the new Age, or will we have to wait for this to come about?

Yaum: I think you will have to wait because they are not ready to allow you to have this. They have not yet developed a way that they can make the huge profits from it that they do from the other power sources. Eventually they will, if they are allowed, but I think that time will run out before this happens, for time is running out quite rapidly. Many of the things that are talked about will never mature because of the times that are ahead. But in the new Age as it grows and develops, new sources of power will be developed which are very cheap, plentiful, and unlimited, you see.

Questioner: Not too long ago we saw a film on China, and it was a very lengthy illustration of the way the masses are indoctrinated and disciplined through the use of the "red book." I noticed that they were not allowed to film the interior of China. Is it not so well developed as it is along the coast and the main cities?

Yaum: Yes, this is true. When you get back into the interior there has not been the development there that there has been in the more populated areas. They want to show you the progress that has been made, not the areas where they haven't progressed, for that does not impress anyone. But the Chinese in general are better off today than they were under the old system, so what can you say, particularly, against that? The methods that they used have not been of a high nature, but neither are the methods used in many other countries, or in your country, so we cannot condemn them for the methods they have used. Many of them have been ruthless, we know that, but by and large, their people are better off today than they were under the old monarchy system, so they have made some progress.

Questioner: Right but it occurs to me that these people are being shut off from intellectual development in areas of free pursuit. How long can a nation go on with a setup like that without becoming very ill-balanced in a short time?

Yaum: Well, this is gradually changing as it is in other countries. Russia has the same thing, and it has been done in many countries, so they are not really any worse than many other parts of your world. What you do not realize is that although propaganda in those countries is heavy, it is also heavy in your country. Much of what you hear is propaganda, too. You do not always hear the truth through your news and other media. We do not condemn any one country or any one type of government. We see great discrepancies and faults in all of them. Some are a little better than others. Yours has probably been one of the best, but it is rapidly deteriorating. Your people are no longer in control. They could be if they would realize it, and as a mass do something about it, because they hold in their hands this power through the ballot but they would have to clean up their whole political system and see that the people that they are allowed to vote for are people they want and not the people that some few choose for them.

Questioner: We have never discussed Ireland with you, Yaum. Do you foresee a resolution of the conflict among the peoples of that country

Yaum: It is very, very doubtful. This is a bitterness that has gone on for centuries in that area, and there is so much hatred there, that I foresee no solution to it. You cannot solve a problem with hatred and this is what they are trying to do, you see. If love could be injected into this and the attitudes of the people changed then it could be brought to an agreeable solution, but I, personally, see no solution to that problem. I believe it will continue on to the end of time as we think of it in this Age, and this hatred may carry on with these people into other areas in time beyond, until they come to the realization that it must be solved through.

Questioner: How do we keep from reacting emotionally to the negative world conditions that we have been discussing this evening?

Yaum: It is difficult not to have reaction to these things, but the thing that you need to realize is that this has been allowed to come upon you. It has been lack of foresight that has allowed these thing to happen. The people of Earth have been lulled into a sleep, thinking that everything is rosy, everything is fine. I just need to glide along and as long as I am getting try three meals a day and my pleasures etc., why be concerned about who represent me in my government? So, you see, you have allowed these powers to take over, and gradually they have gained the power to control your congress and everything. This is one of the reasons that the things that are coming about need to come about in order to wipe all this out and to start over. That is the only way now. It has gone so far, and it has such a great hold, and your people are in such tight chains so to speak, that there is no other way, as it was in other civilizations.

Questioner: Many of the younger generation have no interest in becoming a part of the money owing establishment as we know it. Evidently this is very wise.

A: Many of these young ones that are coming in today are from areas in civilizations where they did not have this sort of thing to face, and they quickly see through all the falsity of this, and they do not wish to become a part of it. They can see no future in it and they are sort of backing away from it, yet they do not know what to do about it. They see how vast it is and how difficult it would be to eliminate it for it would take a mass effort to eliminate these things, a revolution, so to speak. Few of your people would be interested in even doing such a thing, because they would not feel that it was worth it.

Questioner: A year ago, Yaum, you were saying that our young people should attempt to take part and attempt to right the wrongs in their own way, didn't you?

Yaum: Yes, everyone should, and if this had been done you would not have the wrongs that you have today. You would not have allowed them to develop.

There have been men down through the history of your country who have realized this and have tried to do something about it, and to a certain degree have accomplished this. Your big monopolies were broken up at one time, but they have over a period of time, gradually relaxed the controls on them and they have gained even greater power back again. One of your presidents, Theodore Roosevelt, was notorious for that. He did great service for your country at that time, but those who came after did not follow through, and they allowed it to get out of hand again. Now it has gotten to a point that it is worldwide and it would take a great deal more effort than your people would be ready to put forth to make it right.

Questioner: So what are the young people supposed to do if they cannot turn the tide?

Yaum: They will have their place in the new Age.

Questioner: Are they just supposed to wait?

Yaum: They will go along and find a place for themselves doing certain things. Many of them are finding places in your society and are contributing some to its betterment, but it will not be enough to overcome it. Eventually, the whole thing will break down and they will be the ones who will have the ideas and the morality to assist in setting up new systems that will be just.

Many of these young ones are very much wiser than they are given credit for, and many will be awakened to new knowledge when the right time comes. But, there are also those of the other element, because both elements will be coming in and out of your civilization as long as it is here. The control of this will not be put on until the new Age is in full swing.

I am told that I have overstayed my time. I would like to thank all of you for accepting me into your presence here tonight, and I should like to extend to each of you, my love and my blessings. As I leave you, I ask, that all of the Great Ones pour forth their blessings, their love, and their peace upon each of you. May your hearts be filled to over flowing with the Christ love, and with the wisdom of the Holy Breath, and may each of you reach a new height in love and understanding for each other and for your fellow man. May each of you go forth with an attitude of love, peace, understanding, and service.

Go in Peace, my friends, Peace. Go in Peace.

April 27, 1974

Philip: Greetings in the light of love and understanding.

It is my privilege to have this opportunity to speak to you for a moment and it will be only for a moment, as I understand the instrument has worked for quite some time this evening.

I am from the planet Venus. I have been in your city for five years in your time in a physical body as yours would be.

At one time or another I have rubbed elbows with each one of you here. I am known among the Earth people with whom I work as (name). This would not mean anything to you but for your information this is the name that I use here upon your planet.

I have been aware of your activities for sometime but have not had the opportunity to make this contact until now.

I will not take more of your time for I know your hour is late and your instrument has worked long. But I will be speaking to you again in the near future.

It has been my privilege and my pleasure to come among you in this manner.

May each of you find great joy and peace as you go forth in your daily duties and occupations.

I bid you goodnight and my blessings are with each of you. Peace, my friends, my peace I give unto you each.

✿