

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Zalhem: Greetings to you, my children, I am Zalhem.

The subject that you are now studying is a very important study, but right now primarily, we want you to be aware of color. We want you to be aware of the fact that everything has its color. Vibration is color, and the rate at which the vibration takes place determines the color. It is very important in the scheme of things that you learn and understand colors, for these are the universal energies that flow through you and surround you at all times.

These energies have many uses which you will eventually learn if you pursue the Path of Occultism. But in order to use these energies you must develop your power of concentration and visualization. The highly developed mind is aware of these colors and their uses, how they can be applied in giving life force in healing and in many other uses. But in order to use them, you must be able to call them forth and direct them. This is where the power of mind comes in, for without that power of concentration and visualization, you have no control and you can receive only the normal benefits that anyone would receive.

The mental attitude of an individual also determines what energies will flow to him. That is why the aura reflects colors to the clairvoyant. The colors reflected in the aura are the colors that the individual is drawing to himself through his own thinking, his own thoughts. When one becomes angry, he attunes himself to the red vibration and draws it to him. The more angry he becomes the more of the red vibration he draws to him.

One who becomes very angry and violent is tuning himself in with all of the anger and violence upon the planet. This is why those who allow their emotions to run uncontrolled, who allow themselves to go into fits of anger, become more and more angry as they allow more and more of the anger vibrations to be drawn to them. And only as these are released through their own thinking do they return to their normal state of consciousness. So by your own thoughts you are drawing these colors and energies to you. Those who optimistic, are happy and positive, have a tendency to tune themselves more to the blue range. So you see as you think, so you are.

But the highly advanced mind who becomes knowledgeable of these vibrations and learns the various uses of the various vibrations can look at an individual and immediately know where he stands on the ladder of evolution. He knows how he stands physically, and what color would be beneficial to use upon this individual if he were to help him or heal him.

All organs of the body vibrate at a different rate, and therefore to apply healing energies to that particular organ you would draw to yourself the color necessary for that organ to be healed, then direct that color into that organ. But it takes effort to reach that state and much time. So if you would be that type of person who could perform what you call these miracles, then it is necessary for you to work and develop this attribute of mind, the power of mind.

There is nothing that is impossible to the fully developed mind. It does not live by the sweat of its brow. It lives simply by mind power, creating that which it desires and needs at the time and the moment that it needs it. You must always use wisdom with your mind power. As you gain more and more mind power, develop also the wisdom to use it properly, for the greater becomes your power, the greater becomes the temptations. Always be able to say and mean it, "Get thee behind me, Satan. I will have no part of you. I will work for the good of mankind selflessly, not requiring recognition. I will be selfless."

When we serve for the purpose of being glorified or recognized, we are slipping into a state of self. We want our little selves to be recognized, to be honored. Honor does not come in that manner. True honor comes from selfless service with never a thought of self. If I can always serve in that manner, the glorification that I will receive will be much greater. For the glory that I will receive will be to grow to a higher state of consciousness, to become a more powerful being. But when I serve for self-recognition, then I am sliding backward, and I am becoming a weaker individual.

These are things that should be kept in mind as you walk the Path. The temptations will always be there, for he who has never been tempted has never been proven. He who has never been tempted is only negatively good. To become positively good you must go through the temptations even if you fall here and there. This does not necessarily mean that you will continue to fall. But if, when we fall, we recognize our error and correct it, we will become a stronger individual, much stronger than he that is negatively good but has never been tempted.

There are steps and steps along the Path. We grow and gain our knowledge gradually. We apply what we have learned the best we can. We must prove it to our satisfaction so that we know and know that we know, and do not just believe because someone has said that it is so. Believing is a weak knowledge of anything, but to know because you have proved it to be so makes you a strong individual. So, my friends, work, study, demonstrate, search, and you will grow.

I leave you, beloved ones, by extending to each of you my most sincere love and blessings. May the blessings of the Great Ones flow to you now. I leave you in peace. Let your heart be peaceful, let it be positive, let it be happy. Let your heart laugh and be joyous.

Go in peace. ♣
