Nathaniel: Greetings, my children, I am Nathaniel.

I would like to say a few words on karma and the Law of Grace, and their relationship. As you know karma is nothing more than the law of cause and effect, but it is a law and therefore cannot be avoided. Now each planet has its Hierarchy, we shall call it, or those Light Centers that have reached states in their development where they are able to give their service in various ways to planets.

There are many different groups who have different responsibilities. One of these groups is often referred to as the Lords of Karma. They are the ones who follow the race in its actions, and its relationship towards cause and effect. They determine how and when the results of these causes will be justified.

There are two types of karma, and we shall refer to them as a positive and a negative. One who does good, who emanates love and concern for his fellow man will receive karma or reaction in the same way. He who is of a negative nature, who emanates hatred, who is self-centered and filled with vanity or what have you, these will come back to him.

Now often we see individuals along the way who, through some self decision, some realization, or through some mystic experience or conversion, or healing, has decided to turn his life around. As many of your religions say, "he repents." He regrets his past and wants to change it, and puts forth every effort to do so. If he really does turn his life around and begins to return good for evil, becomes one who is really trying to build his Light that he might be more helpful to others, then he could be helped. I'm using this as an example; I could give many examples.

But this individual would be open to the Law of Grace. He is not released from his responsibilities, from his past actions. But the Lords of Karma will decide how best this man or this woman might be able to raise themselves up out of their past and become useful Light centers. Then many of their negative karmic debts would be delayed until they could reach a state of knowing and understanding where they would be able to see these debts for what they are. Then at the proper time they would be given the opportunity in one or maybe two or whatever is necessary incarnations to make restitutions. Having at that time reached a state in evolution where they have an understanding of these things, they would be able to pay this karmic debt without creating more negative karmic debts.

This often happens when individuals have created karmic situations of a negative nature. They find themselves in situations where they are making restitution for this, but not having the understanding they create more karma. Ofttimes certain egos may reach a state of adeptship and then return back to planet Earth. They reincarnate for the sole purpose of paying off karma which they have created long ago and through the Law of Grace it has been held back until they are ready. This is not uncommon at all. But the thing that we need to understand and realize is that we are creating karma through cause and effect, every moment of our lives. There is no escaping it for it is a law, and as you read today, the words of the Nazarene stated these facts as a definite, positive law and inescapable. It is the lack of understanding of these laws that cause so much of the turmoil and the violence that occurs upon your planet.

When the New Age is established, a new religion—no, not a religion, I only use that terminology because most Earth people view anything spiritual as a religion—but a new form of teaching will emerge, where man will be taught the Truth of the law as it is and always has been. He will be made to see the necessity of knowing who and what he is. He will be made to understand that he is responsible and he alone, for every thought, every word, every action. He will no longer have the Law of Grace for it will be removed. For those of mankind who are suitable to enter and establish this New Age, will be of such a nature that they can understand and accept these responsibilities, these laws and will live by them.

He will know that if he lives by these laws he will not need armies or air forces. He will not need police forces for he who obeys and functions under the Universal Laws will not need policing. There will be no need for prisons. By eliminating these things you will have much greater resources to develop the things you need for a greater life, for a more abundant life. You will not need to collect great quantities of material things for your needs will be met abundantly because of your understanding, because of your cooperation with the laws.

This, my beloved children, is what you are now preparing yourselves for. There is much to be learned, much work to be done. But if you, as individual centers of Light, want these conditions, they are yours. You need only to put forth the desire and the effort to gain the knowledge necessary to bring about these conditions.

This is an individual thing and each individual ego will gain and move along the Path according to their own desire to reach the point that is necessary to gain this position. It is up to you, you are the creator. You can create that which you desire. So if you desire omniscience and omnipotence, then work toward it. Know that it is yours, and that you will reach that point in due time.

Let the Light of the Great Ones shine forth and surround each of you. May this Light inspire you to move ever upward and onward in your evolutionary struggle.

I extend to each of you my love and my peace.

Peace, peace, peace. ☸
