Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends, I am Oxal.

Once more, my friends, it is my privilege to speak with you. As we are sitting here in space outside your solar vortex continually making observations and calculations, we find that the negativity that has collected in the aura of your planet over many generations of your peoples, is beginning to have its reactions upon your peoples and their affairs. We find a great tension growing among your people, a great unrest, but as we look farther, we find that behind this unrest is a desire that is growing in the minds and consciousness of your people.

As we told you in the beginning of our contact with you, people of Earth are being awakened to a choice. They are beginning to realize that there are two ways to go, and that they must make a choice. However, the choice in the minds of all people are not as we would like to see it. There are those that are not choosing the path of service, the path of light, love and understanding. But many too, are those who are coming into the realization that to follow a path other than the path of service to humanity, would be folly. And also, in the minds of these, is being raised a realization that they must be freed from the shackles that have bound them for so many generations.

And so you see a great movement beginning to take place among your peoples, a movement to free themselves from the bondage that they have found themselves victims of. But the realization of the true desire that lurks within their hearts, has not yet come into the consciousness of most of them, a realization that burns deep within that has not yet been recognized for what it is. And this my friends, is a desire that burns within the hearts of all mankind, to truly know who and what he is, to come into a true realization of the inner man, of what it is, and what he consists of, and what are his desires and abilities. Earth man has not yet come into the realization that he himself is a great spiritual being endowed with great powers to create, that he carries within him the full power of his creator. If man but comes into a slight realization of this, he is on his way to new heights in understanding, to new heights of experience, to experiences that are beyond his fondest dreams.

Search for truth, my friends, is a long search, but as man treads the corridors of time with a realization that he has within him locked all knowing, and realizes that each moment, each experience, is bringing him nearer and nearer to some of the great realizations that man is destined to experience.

We, who have experienced somewhat more than Earth man, perhaps have a greater appreciation of what lies ahead. Yet, our understanding of this great power that lies beyond, is only slight. We to, are searching for higher and greater truths.

We realize how we too must search and grow. We also realize that those who have stepped beyond us in understanding, are reaching back to give us a helping hand. And therefore, we also must reach down and give a helping hand to our brothers who have not yet reached our level of understanding. And so it goes, my friends, each extending a helping hand to his brother man who needs and can use his help, and thus we all grow together. Sometimes I think, my friends, that we are more anxious for Earth man to grasp these realizations than he himself is.

Man must grow by his own efforts. The more effort he puts forth, the more he can be helped. So, you see, beloved friends, it is important for each man to realize the importance of his own efforts in his spiritual growth. Earth man has reached the point where he must grow spiritually. Many civilizations have come and gone upon your planet. The failure of each civilization has been its lack of balance. Man has not kept pace with his spiritual growth and understanding. He seems prone to put forth great efforts to achieve scientific advancement and neglects his spiritual growth. Thus, the balance becomes more and more unbalanced. And so man has achieved scientific knowledge, but lacks the spiritual understanding to handle the powers that he finds himself in possession of.

Thus, he brings destruction upon himself. Earth man again stands at this point. We hope to be able to bring into man's heart a realization of these things, that he must bring about his own salvation.

We do not want to intervene in the affairs of Earth man, and we sincerely hope it will not be necessary, but for the good of your system, your solar system, it is possible that this might have to be done. But we shall do everything in our power to bring man into the realization of what he must do to bring about his own salvation. And believe me when I say, many minds that are in high places in your civilization are not easy to influence. The greed for power has so possessed their hearts that they are not easy to reach, and Earth man is going to find it necessary to pass through some very unpleasant experiences in order to bring these realizations into his heart. But these things are only the results of man's own actions. They are only the working of the law. For universal law is so constructed that it brings about its own reaction, and no one escapes the law.

My friends, I leave you by extending to you the love, the light, and the understanding of my people.

I am Oxal. ❄
