February 12, 1960

Hatton: I greet you in the love and light of the infinite creator. I am Hatton.

Earth man, in his evolution, is now facing some of the greatest and fastest changes that have taken place in the present civilization. The evolution of Earth man is marching on at an ever increasing speed.

This, your year 1960, will be eventful in many ways. Several things shall occur that will baffle your scientists. Yes, I might say they may be greatly embarrassed, after they have attempted to give explanations as an authority, and find that they must retract their words. It seems that it is difficult for intellectual minds to admit lack of knowledge in their field. The intellectual minds are often quite vain, so to speak. The great truths, my friends, are not going to come from the so called authorities, but rather from the common man, the humble man, the dedicated man.

It is often said that in our contacts we should have contacted those in authority, those who are in the know, so to speak. Yet, when these contacts have been made, and they have been, the results were negative. For, so great is the ego in this breed of people, that fear will not allow them to bring the truth of their experiences to their fellow man. But truth cannot be suppressed for long, for truth has a way of finding its target, regardless of opposition.

To those who seek for truth, it shall be found in abundance. The path to truth is always open to those who seek. That is all that is required of you, is to seek the truth and step by step you shall find it, but it shall not be found in the high places. True, each of your religions or sects, each teaching contains segments of truth. Yet, we know of not one upon the surface of your planet that contains the whole truth. For truth to man is an individual thing. For no two beings stand at the same level of understanding. Therefore, no two beings will have the same truth. For individuals, truth is ever changing. True, we have the absolute, but that, beloved one, lies in the far distant future.

So we more onward step by step, each a stepping stone to a higher truth, a greater truth, and sometime in the far future we shall know the absolute.

We, as you know, make no claims to the absolute, for we too are growing, as are you. We are only a step or two ahead of you in our understanding, and being thus, it is our duty to extend to you a helping hand, as those beyond extend to us. This, beloved friends, is love and understanding.

We can only point the way as is done for us, and as we hope you shall do for those a step behind you. No, my friends, planet Earth is not at the bottom of the ladder. There are others following behind, and to these you have an obligation to fulfill, and we hope you shall see this obligation and fulfill it in the near future.

Now, my friends, I shall leave. May each of you reach new heights in your love and understanding each day, and may each of you through your experiences in this sojourn be wiser and better individuals.

May the Peace, love and understanding of the radiant one be with you on your journey.

Odina, my friends, Odina, Vasu Borragus.

I am Hatton. ☸
