

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Copyright © 2012 Clyde Trepanier

June 27, 1970

Anthon: I greet you in the Christ light. I am Anthon.

I would speak with thee this night concerning yourselves for I perceive that there are many things in your hearts that are not clear to you. I know there are times when thou dost wonder what this life is all about and what is its purpose and what you are to attain. Why your paths must cross with certain ones and why certain situations exist between certain individuals.

I say to thee, beloved friends, those of you here, your paths have crossed before in the dark, dim past as it has with many others. Your path does not cross that of another without some purpose, reverting back to another time which thou dost not recall at the moment. Your path does not cross with others without a purpose. And at this time in evolution you can be sure that it has crossed before and there is a purpose in it crossing again. None of you here are new in this world, you have all been here many times before, many more times in the dark, dim past. Perhaps you would be amazed if you were to know how far back your record really goes.

So you are not new, this is not your first experience in the life here, but you are in a cycle at this time that restitution can be made a little more speedily than in some of the ages past. This is because a great Master, the Master of Masters, did come in this age, did show the way and did sacrifice himself and take upon himself the great task of helping those who would follow him. But he can only help you if you are willing to follow him, to place your hand in his and say "Master I accept thee, I would follow thee, I would leave all and follow thee."

His commandments were simple, they were to love one another and to serve one another in every way possible, to lose self in the service of the brotherhood of man. And only through this path, through his way, to accept and follow his way will you find eternal life. And this my beloved, is what thou seekest. The way to eternal life is through him. He has shown you the way. Are you going to place your faith in your heavenly father, take up your cross and follow him?

I perceive that thou dost not understand the true meaning of these words, "Take up thy cross and follow him." And I perceive that thou dost not fully understand how full faith is attained. Faith is man's greatest assets but he cannot attain this faith without much effort and that we shall explain to you, as well as the cross, another time.

It is necessary for you to use all of the understanding that you have to its fullest capacity, for nothing is of value until it is used. There are opportunities for you to serve and share with others, use these opportunities. For, if you can help another to reach another rung on his ladder of evolution or on this pathway to the return to his father, you should do this.

The harvest is ready. The workers are few. What are you doing to help yourself and your fellow man? Think upon these things, beloved, but do not only think, for thought without action is useless.

I leave thee with these thoughts to ponder. And I leave with you my love, my blessings and my understanding. May each of you grow rapidly in your understanding and be able to help many others to raise their consciousness that they too, might find their way to Him.

Go in peace my friends, go in peace, peace. ✠