

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Copyright © 2012 Clyde Trepanier

April 9, 1982

Nathaniel: Greetings to you, my children, I am Nathaniel.

I would like to extend a special greeting to our visitor here tonight, and I would like to say to her that the Brotherhood is always aware of all of those who are seeking the truth. This is perhaps the greatest quest that one can embark upon.

The Nazarene once said, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall set you free." This phrase is often quoted by your clergy, but little thought is given to the true meaning of this phrase. What is truth? I would say that truth is knowledge.

Often the reference is made to the spirit of truth, referring to what your religions call the Holy Spirit or the Holy Ghost. The real spirit of truth is knowledge, and from this spirit of truth, comes all knowledge. This is the part of Universal Consciousness or Universal Mind out of which all truth comes. It is only by gaining this knowledge that you can be set free from the bondage that you find yourself in. You are bound by materialism, you are bound by environment, by custom, and by ignorance. The only way you can break these bonds is by gaining the knowledge that is necessary to accomplish this.

When one has gained the knowledge of who he is, of what he is, where he has come from, where he is going, what his goals should be: then he must seek the knowledge to attain those goals. This can only be done through your own efforts, through searching, through knocking. When ye seek earnestly you shall find, and when you knock, it will be opened unto you. It will be opened unto you only, as you can receive and perceive.

As you gain more knowledge of the laws and how they function, you then must demonstrate them to yourself, prove them out, work them. It is only in this way that you will know. A law that is not demonstrable is worthless. Therefore you must work with what you have at the time, and as you master one thing, another will be opened unto you.

The speed with which you move upon the Path of truth and knowledge depends entirely on you. How sincere are you? How hard are you willing to work? What sacrifices are you willing to make? These are decisions that only you can make.

The time is rapidly coming upon you when it will be more and more desirable to be able to control the environment about you. This cannot be done without the knowledge of how to accomplish it, and these accomplishments will only be made through your ability to use the Laws and to make them work.

You are a Creator in your own right. You are endowed with all of the abilities of the one Source from whence you came. It is your duty as an individual, an ego, to learn to demonstrate these abilities, and you can only do it through hard work, determination and your desire.

You can do that which you will to do. Unless you awaken that part of your subjective mind and put that part known as will, in command, your accomplishments will be mediocre. So you must awaken that part and put it in control, with wisdom and determination.

It is time for Man of Earth, if he is to continue on the upward path of evolution, to take control of this lower nature rather than let it control him. It is time that the subjective, in its completeness, take over the command of the objective, and rule it in no uncertain terms, and become the master of it. The greater becomes his power in this, the greater his power to control his environment will be.

So, beloved ones, awaken that will. Bring it forth, and it will give you the power to be in command, rather than to be commanded. You can determine your destination, your destiny and your environment.

I do not mean to say that this can be accomplished in a few hours, a few days, or a few weeks as it must be done step by step, building stronger will each day. You must put the Higher Mind more in command each day. Gradually as time goes by, you will find your whole life style changing.

Your thinking will change, for new and greater things will come to you. You will find yourself doing things that you never thought you could accomplish.

These, my friends, are not idle statements. If you were to observe some individuals or egos who have come up through your civilization and have advanced to greater heights you would marvel at what they can do and accomplish very easily.

Perhaps you would think to yourself, "Can I ever reach a point where I can duplicate these things?" The answer would be, "Yes, you can." Nothing can stop you if you have the will to do so, and the patience to wait and to work. I have said enough.

As I leave you, I extend to each of you my most sincere love and my blessings.

I invoke upon each of you, the love and the blessings of the Great Ones.

May your accomplishments increase rapidly. May you make great strides in your search for truth.

Go in peace, beloved, go in peace. Peace, peace. ✨