Anthon: My greetings to thee, and my blessings I extend to each of you, I am Anthon.

We have stressed in the past the importance of gaining knowledge, and this we believe, is the only path to what you call the Kingdom. For many centuries the Brotherhood or the Occultist has tried to bring to mankind the esoteric teachings through the churches and were not successful. For awhile they were successful to a degree, but the power-mad Priesthood opposed this course and organized against them. Thus, they have been driven from the churches in almost every century since the time of the Master, you call Jesus. By and large it has never been successful, but there have always been a few, of course, who benefitted.

At the beginning of this, your twentieth century as you call it, since Earthman had advanced as far as he has in his knowledge, it was decided that it was time to make him more aware of his true self. Therefore, knowledge was brought forth that would help those who had open minds and were seeking knowledge of what and who they were and are. Many sources were used to bring this about. Fundamental churches were not included. This was brought about by teachers and writers in small groups, and in publishing books that contained this knowledge.

It was felt that man had reached the stage of his evolution when he should realize the power held within him, the power of the mind. Gradually, since the beginning of this century, this has received more and more attention. Today man is more and more aware of this than he has ever been in this civilization. I am speaking, of course, of the normal individual who keeps at least a partially opened mind and is willing to experiment, to demonstrate the teachings coming forth.

Those who have reaped the benefits have gained greater knowledge, but there is still much to be learned. Man has to be fed knowledge very gradually. It is not a rapid process to erase old thoughts, habits, etc.. It comes about very gradually. But many upon your planet today are coming to the realization of the importance of gaining knowledge of these things. There are many teachers going about today teaching various aspects of the mind, and of the psychic abilities of man, who are not qualified, and there are those who are qualified.

The qualified teacher is one with humility and a great desire to help his fellow man. He tries to understand his pupils, he tries to understand where they stand in the evolutionary cycle, and what they are capable of receiving. He uses safeguards so they do not find themselves in trouble with no one to help them. He is cautious, he does not give his pupils a lot of information for them to experiment with and then go off and leave them on their own. He gives them only what they can handle at the time, safely.

But there are many who are going about with very little knowledge of their own, expounding what they have read in books that may not have been too well written. They may not have been written with the very best in mind for the reader. They are going about teaching things that are very dangerous for the pupil who has not the experience or the knowledge to handle these situations. Later he finds himself in deep trouble. So, in your seeking for knowledge, develop your intuitive powers or abilities so that you can discern between these two forces.

There are those who claim to be highly spiritual. They use this term, yet they have very little knowledge of the Universe, of its Laws and how it functions. They have no knowledge of the scientific nature of Deity. If one is to become spiritual then he must gain knowledge of all things. Deity or Universal Mind is a scientific function. Everything in nature works on a scientific basis. All of the laws of nature are scientific. Deity Itself consists of all of the sciences. They all come forth from Universal Mind.

There is nothing that man can produce by scientific methods that does not come through this Consciousness. It is all there and it is flowing forth to all mankind continually. The reason that Man of Earth has advanced so rapidly in this century is because he has learned more and more how to tune in to the scientific nature of Universal Consciousness. Whatever this individual's interest might be, whether it be mechanical or musical or art, etc., he draws it from Universal Consciousness. What he draws will depend on his own consciousness, his own being. The more highly developed the mind is, the more it can draw from Universal Consciousness that which it desires to know.

The greatest thing that an individual can ask or pray for is knowledge, and he who seeks it, asks for it, desires it, it will come to him. The opportunities will open widely to him, and knowledge will flow to him or her. It is all ours for the asking, but we must do our part. We must be sincere, we must follow through. He who spends all his time in meditation contemplating his navel, will never become a Master Mind. He may claim to have reached this status but the fruits will prove otherwise.

So, beloved ones, if you seek to become a spiritual ego, one who can be referred to as being spiritual, then seek that kingdom of knowledge. The kingdom spoken of in your religious history, is knowledge.

That was a statement that was very much misunderstood when your Master first said, "Seek ye first the kingdom and all things will be added." The true meaning of this statement for those who claim to follow Him for that kingdom, is knowledge.

But most of His followers consider it a place, a heaven, a place of bliss and harmony, of peace. But the kingdom is entered through knowledge and knowledge is the pathway to the kingdom. So seek ye first the kingdom and gradually all things will be added, according to your progress.

I leave you, beloved ones, by extending my blessings, my love and my peace to you.

May you reach great heights in your understanding and your love. May that peace come to you that transcends all else.

Go in peace, beloved. Walk in peace, be peaceful. ☸
