

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Copyright © 2012 Clyde Trepanier

August 26, 1972

Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends, I am Oxal.

First off I should like to greet my old friend and his mate who are with us tonight and have traveled across your country to spend this time with you. My greetings to you my dear ones. I would like to say that we have been watching your work and your progress, aiding you wherever possible, as have many others. We are well pleased with what you have done and are doing. Your efforts have not gone unnoticed and you can expect more help to come to you as the demands for your service increases. And believe me my children, it will increase, for the momentum is increasing at a rapid pace upon your planet. There will be more and more who will be searching for answers, who will be wanting to know some of the higher truths and who will want instruction and help in qualifying themselves to serve in His service.

But upon the other side the activity of the negative forces is also increasing. So you can expect more activity upon this side of the fence. There are many across your nation and across your planet who are just beginning to peek over the fence, to realize that there is something beyond this fence that has surrounded them for so long. And they are beginning to wonder about it, to want to take a further view of the other side. These will be approaching many of you, looking for guidance and help in their search.

Let me assure you, one and all, that we have not forgotten our pledge that we made to you in years past. We are still watching and observing from our vantage point and helping and guiding and influencing those who have made that choice of which we spoke in the past years, and we are fulfilling our pledge.

Time is running out for those who have not yet made this choice. The cosmic clock is rapidly approaching the midnight hour. We have attempted for many years to bring to the attention of your peoples the things that they face, the things that the future will bring and the necessity of them preparing themselves to meet these times. Yet by and large, the masses have not listened, they have continued to go upon their merry way, saying to themselves that this cannot happen here.

This is not a new story. Other civilizations that have come and gone upon the surface of your planet have found themselves in similar positions. They, too, did not listen and many of those same ones, those same souls are not listening today and will again experience a similar fall, only this time the fall will be greater. The climb back will be harder for they will find themselves, in due time, upon another planet in another solar system, working themselves through another civilization taking their class work over again, only they will find themselves starting at an even lower rung of the ladder.

But those who have made the choice to serve their humanity, to serve in the everlasting Light, will have an entirely different experience. They in due time under a new vibration in a new Age, will become a new and greater man, a more developed individual. He will have a more refined vehicle or physical body as you call it, in which to make his sojourn. A new and greater brain capacity, a greater ability to understand, to comprehend, to recall, to know, will be his. He will be a man without selfish interest, a man who loves his fellow man for what he is and who understands more fully what he himself and what he, his fellow man is. A man who will not serve for the benefit of self but will serve for the benefit of all humanity, knowing that what is good for all must also be good for him. Is this not something to look forward to, to strive toward?

This, my brothers and sisters, is but one more step forward in the evolution of man as you know it. Beyond that lies greener fields, mansions of more beauty, sources of more knowledge and wisdom. Striving for Truth is a never-ending spiral. It moves ever onward and upward to greater and greater things. Man's limitations, as far as I know, has not been limited but man himself changes with his evolution. The man you are today could not comprehend the man you may be tomorrow—and I use that term loosely, tomorrow, for time is only a state of consciousness. Time as you know it does not exist in other realms. There, time becomes a different thing. A thousand years here upon planet Earth can be but as a moment in other realms.

But, my friends, I have rambled long enough. I do not wish to bore you, I know that you have things upon your minds that you would like to discuss among you, therefore, I shall take my leave

And in so doing I wish to extend to each of you, the love, the light and the understanding of my people.

I am Oxal. Chose wisely this time. ♣