Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends.

It is my pleasure come among you again. I wish to extend my greetings to each one of you and to your special guest here tonight. Anthon invited me to visit you tonight and I accepted his invitation, thinking that we might have a friendly little chat again. What would you like to talk about?

Questioner: It seems we have trouble thinking of our questions when you first ask us. Then, later on we have more than there is time for.

Yaum: You should be prepared at all times. You know that you have been taught for many years that you should always be prepared. Keep your wicks trimmed and your lamps filled!

Questioner: Would you comment on Oxal's statements concerning the 54 year cycle that we're in at present?

Yaum: Of course you are continually going through cycles. Everything in nature or the universe functions in cycles. This cycle of which he spoke was one of the minor cycles, you might say, of your planet. As he said, this cycle began with the rise of Hitler and if you will look back, you will see that the violence has continually increased since that time. It will continue to the end of this cycle and then it will begin to taper off. There will be a great increase in violence over the next 8 to 10 years, both from Mother Earth and from the people and the atmosphere about you, which is only a reaction.

Questioner: Have we attended any classes on the etheric plane recently?

Yaum: There have been some. I am not sure exactly how many for I have not attended all of these. It is not always possible for me to attend these. I am sure there was one a month or so ago. Since that time, I am not sure. I have been very busy in my own field and have not attended any of these.

Questioner: I'm sure that you have been very busy. Can you share any of your observations of current events on the international scene?

Yaum: Well, there is a great deal of negotiation going on concerning your energy problems. There is a great struggle for control of the energy, for he who controls the energy controls the people. There is a great struggle in the Middle East over the price of oil. Some want to drastically increase prices while others do not. The ones who do not are concerned for they realize the ultimate effect this will have upon your economy. Some of the others do not care. They are thinking only of their own purses and do not realize the impact that it will have.

Regardless of what they do, it is going to bring about some great changes in your economy and in your political systems. This is known and realized by most of your money interests and they are making plans to meet this emergency, which is the collapse of your monetary system. You do not have to look too closely about you to see some of the results of these plans. They have it in mind to eliminate the use of money and the system is pretty much completed so far as the planning is concerned. The preparations are now in progress to put this into service. You are going to find some very interesting things if you watch it closely. You will find 666 turning up in this system.

Questioner: Aren't those who are using 666, the "mark of the beast," aware of its connotation?

Yaum: No, it will just work out that way in the computer system. There will be groups of numbers that will work out to that. There will be some other very amazing things come out of this. It is possible that you will have a number put on you electronically that will be invisible and will be picked up by the computers. You will have to have this number put on you in order to function in the system. It would be put on your forehead, your hand, or somewhere so that it can be passed over a computer.

Questioner: Will they use our social security number for this?

Yaum: No, I think they will be giving you an entirely new number because this is a world wide system and everyone does not have a social security number. The main computer bank will not be in your country. It will be located in Zurich, Switzerland. This is known by many of your people and you will probably hear it discussed more and more.

Questioner: Will Henry Kissinger continue to be a powerful political figure after he leaves office?

Yaum: It is doubtful that he will be. He will probably go into industry of some kind. He is even considering going to a foreign country. He has offers from some of these that are very attractive.

Questioner: We were interested to learn that some of our so called conservative establishment intellectuals were alarmed and concerned that almost all of President Carter's appointees and cabinet members are highly educated in one special field, and were perhaps lacking in practical experience. It is hoped that they are not educated above their intelligence.

Yaum: Yes, there is too much emphasis put upon specialization. These men were picked as specialists and specialists do not always use the greatest wisdom in making decisions because they base their decisions upon their knowledge of their specialty. One who is of wide experience and has the ability to make decisions and to draw information from others will do a much better job than the specialists. Specialists are usually so dogmatic and wrapped up in their specialty that they will not consider anything outside of their own beliefs and their own attained knowledge.

Questioner: Many of our loved ones need healing prayer. Will you please lead us in a healing exercise?

Yaum: I shall be glad to. Let us first understand some of the things that we must do if we are to be successful in receiving healing. Healing, more than you realize, comes from within yourself, and if you have things within yourself that cause a block, it is much more difficult to receive healing. One must especially eliminate resentment, for this can be a great block to healing. One must do away with this type of thing, for if you have resentment, self-condemnation, hatred, etc., and carry these things in your heart, they set up a great block to healing.

When you meditate for healing, or for that matter, whenever you meditate, you should go through a procedure of eliminating all of these things. There are many procedures you can use and you should choose whatever suits you best. Some like to visualize dumping these things into a sack, like a sack of potatoes, and the visualization of this helps very much in getting rid of these blocks. Also, worries and cares cause much turmoil within one's being, so I would suggest that you relax and use a procedure of this kind. Use whatever you can visualize best and get rid of all of the blocks that might prevent the healing vibrations.

Now, as we relax and become still, we see all of these things flowing from us. They are flowing away and we are left empty of them. As they are released and flow from us, we feel a great weight lifted from us and we feel lighter, much lighter. Now, let us visualize the rays of Pure Love and healing energy flowing to us. We are filled to overflowing with this Love and this healing power. We are offering no resistance whatever. We are letting it flow to us in great abundance, and it is recharging and balancing each cell of our entire body. Actually visualize this energy and see it flowing to you. Feel it!

Now, we ask the Masters of Healing to pour forth their Light and energy to help us. Keep open and receptive to this. Your blocks have all gone. You have emptied them from your being, and you are receiving the energy that is there for all to use. Absorb it and let it fill you to overflowing.

Now that you are filled and have absorbed as much as you can, direct this energy to those for whom you would desire healing. Visualize strongly this energy flowing to them, filling them to overflowing, and everything coming into perfect balance and health. We give thanks that it is so.

As I leave you, my friends, I extend to you my most sincere blessings, my love, and my peace. I ask that the blessings and the love of all of the Great Ones be invoked upon you.

Go in peace, my friends. Go in peace. Go in peace.

Clyde: Anthon, (upon Clyde's request and during Yaum's conversation with our group) took Clyde to a meeting of Indian leaders.

They were sitting around a campfire and among them were Rolling Thunder, Sitting Bull, Big Bear and others. They greeted us and we joined them in their circle.

They were discussing ways that the White Man might, hopefully, make some restitution to them for the injustices done to them—thereby lessening their own karma.

The Indians were really very deeply concerned about how they could help the White Man. ♣
