Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends, I am Yaum.

I have felt a vibration of oneness here so I have come to you and will spend a few moments with you at this time. Perhaps I will not have the opportunity again.

My friends, it has been my very great pleasure and my privilege to have been able to become friends with you and I have appreciated your cooperation in listening to my very humble opinions and putting up with my poor English, but I feel we have become very good friends.

Now, beloved ones, perhaps I shall not be able to speak to you in this manner for some time. The instrument through which I speak and his mate are to go forth to a new experience and a new phase in their lives. I'm sure you folk here feel great joy in parting rather than sadness for you know this is necessary in their development.

Many of you are going to see—due to your knowledge and your foresight or information that your search for truth has brought you—you are going to recognize in the events that are taking place, the fulfillment of the prophecies. Great changes are taking place on planet Earth but only those with eyes to see and ears to hear are recognizing these changes. Each circle of events as they come about, brings the greater changes nearer and nearer. As you look back, for only a very few years, you see where the events have started to take place which will bring geographical changes and the changes which are to come about will be more severe. It was stated at the beginning of this year of 1962 that it would be a very eventful year. Has it not been so, my friends? And you may see before the end of the year even greater events take place.

Now, my friends, as you view these things, realize that this is only a cleansing that has begun to take place before planet Earth can be permanently established in a new Age. It must be cleansed, you see. Those who have a sincere desire to serve, to become a part of the new Age, are going to be set apart from these things. They are not going to be affected by them, providing they follow a sincere inner guidance which must be sought for. This true inner guidance is not found unless you seek for it, unless you acquire it. Man must have a sincere dedication, forsaking all other things, as it was stated in your religious works, "There shall be no other Gods before Me." You see, my friends, there is nothing in this whole universe that is as important as one's own soul development.

The I AM in me and in you is the most important thing in all creation, for when I have reached a complete realization of this I have reached a great height in understanding. We must seek first these things, searching our inner most souls and there we will find the guidance that will lead us down the path for our greatest development, our greatest safety and our greatest joy. And, my friends, wherever this takes us—be it over sea or mountains or through outer space—that will be where we will receive our greatest good, the good that will bring to us true happiness, true love and understanding. Do you see what I mean, my friends? Joy is only found within one's own soul and joy is only found by doing that which our innermost soul or higher consciousness or higher self or whatever you wish to call it, demands of us.

There is much unhappiness among your people of Earth because they do not follow the dictates of their inner soul or consciousness. When man truly follows this he radiates love, joy. He brings joy to those with whom he comes in contact. He is loved by all because he gives love to all. It is really quite simple, you see.

I have been rambling on. I get carried away at times and I give a lecture. No offense meant. If you have something to say, you may ask. Your hour is late and I must not keep you.

Questioner: I have been attempting very hard to know that I am that I am. Am I succeeding?

Yaum: This is a realization that sometimes, when one is faced with a great deal of outer influences and obligations, as you call them, it is quite difficult to get the mind quieted and to go deep within and come into a realization of these things. The word I AM has a great and far reaching meaning. I AM for I am all things. I am what you call God but this is the true I AM. This is not what people see. This is not the I which is faced every day by your civilization and its demands. This is not the true I AM.

The thing is that man of Earth, in so many cases, has a distorted idea of what is necessary and he becomes rather controlled, under pressures that he feels are necessary and are required by his environment, rather than controlling it. It becomes difficult to withdraw and bring about the realization of his true I AM. When man becomes truly conscious of his oneness with creation, this takes precedence over all other things, and as this becomes more and more a part of his consciousness, it becomes easier and easier to have a true realization of this. There are many stages of all of these realizations for, you see, as in most, things, there are certain degrees and as your realization becomes deeper and deeper you advance to higher degrees of this realization.

Do not be discouraged, it takes time to reach a full realization, a great, great realization. There are times when I have reached certain degrees far, far beyond my realization, where I can see the vast greatness which lies ahead.

I must vacate this instrument. It has been most gratifying to be with you. If I have been of some slight service, I assure you I am grateful, for life can only be realized in its abundance through the service that we can render.

Beloved friends, as I leave you now, I give to you my very, very, deepest blessings and I ask that those who are in charge, who have greater responsibility, greater wisdom, greater understanding, will invoke their blessings to you also, and I know that this is done.

May the Peace and joy that you shall receive through your service, may each of you be greatly blessed by it. May your joy be great and your Peace rewarding.

Goodnight to you, my friends, goodnight. ☸
