Samuel: Greetings to you, my beloved ones, I am Samuel.

If you continue on the Path of Probation you will find that you will learn many things. Many changes will take place in your beliefs and your concepts. You will find many of your old beliefs and concepts will no longer appeal to you. But you will find that new ones will replace them which will give you greater insight, knowledge and wisdom. You will find that new terminologies will replace the old.

Do you know how the people of today came to use the word God in reference to the One Great Intelligence or Spirit of Creation in the beginning of man's existence upon planet Earth? At that time those were chosen who seemed to have the greatest wisdom by the great Masters of the invisible, to be trained and taught and developed. And they were the ones that were given the ancient sacred writings, the writings of wisdom. These referred to the great Masters as the Gods and they were in communication with these Gods and were guided and directed by them. But down through time many, with the exception of a few, lost contact with the Gods.

But the reference to these Gods came down through time, and then as time passed and new religions developed, the religions who used the One God concept or the One Intelligence concept, discarded the Gods and called this One Intelligence or Spirit of Creation, God. And thus it came down through the present civilization in that way.

This terminology is not used by the Masters or the Adepts except sometimes in communication with Earth people. In order to not confuse them, they used this terminology. But this great Spirit of Creation is far beyond the concept of finite man. And the complete realization and understanding of this is only understood by those in the very high brackets of intelligence and wisdom. It is not necessary to completely understand this. The knowing is enough.

But even in your own writings in the far past you find the reference to the gods and the misconception of your religions today is that they believe that the people of those days worshiped many gods. But this was not true of those who had knowledge of these things. They did not use the terminology of god in reference to the one Great Source.

But there are many things that will take place as you move down the Path. It will not be an easy path and you will not gain it quickly. You will learn that nothing is free. Everything must be bought. There is a price for everything. Those who seek to gain without paying will not gain. You will learn that before you can leave this wheel of incarnation, that every debt must be paid.

You will learn to know a true Adept or Master when you meet one. You will learn that they do not publicize themselves, that they do not expound their wisdom or demonstrate their powers without a cause or without a good reason. And even to those whom they might choose to teach or share some of their wisdom, they will not reveal their true identity. You will find them very humble, very loving, yet very firm. You will never find them teaching in public places for monetary gain or any other reason. Those who go about calling themselves masters and adepts you will learn to be aware of for they can lead you down a path that in time can be very detrimental to you. This, a true Adept will never do.

You will learn that you will not choose your master, that he will choose you. And when you are chosen, if you are chosen, he will be one who has a special wisdom and understanding that is best suited for you. There are no two individuals that are the same, that can be taught the same.

We are all part of the whole yet we are a definite individual and follow a definite path, and must learn in a certain way and these ways are not suitable for anyone else.

No one is chosen until they are ready, until they have fulfilled every requirement of the particular path which they are on. Each is chosen by his own merits, his own efforts, his sincerity and his accomplishments.

Do not become discouraged for nothing is gained without work. Learn to labor and to wait. But labor always in joy and love and understanding. Let no task, no matter how great or how small, be neglected. If it is yours to do, do it with a joyous heart, a singing heart. That is the way on the Path.

He who goes about his tasks grudgingly will never be chosen. Love, joy and peace must become a part of your being. The overcoming of the lower man can only be accomplished through developing the attributes of Love, Joy, Peace and Understanding in your own being.

As I leave I extend to each of you my greatest love, my peace and my joy. I invoke the blessings of all the Great Ones upon each of you.

Go in peace, beloved ones, go in peace. Peace. ♣
