(Chants)

Samuel: Peace be with thee, my friends and greetings to each of you here.

It is my privilege and joy to come among you at this time and with your permission I should like to speak to you for a few moments. As you are all aware time is running out for your civilization. The hand on the cosmic clock is rapidly approaching the midnight hour, yet your people madly pursue the pleasures and desires of the lower self. They are spending their valuable time and effort in pursuing and accumulating those things which they feel will bring them security and pleasure for the carnal man. But I say to you, beloved ones, the value of the treasures that you build here upon Earth have never been of great value and are becoming of less value day-by-day.

I am sure that if most of your people had the slightest knowing of how close your economic and social system is to collapsing, how it is teetering upon the razor's edge, that great panic would occur among your people and those in power. Those who are ruling the systems are trying desperately at this time to keep this knowledge from the people, hoping that they can do something to swing the balance. As it has been in the past, they will be able to do this for a short time, or at least to keep it from falling. But you would be amazed to know the concern that exists among those who rule your great world economic system. They themselves, do not even realize the danger that really exists, and those who are not in the very highest seats of control, do not realize the insincerity of those who rule them.

So, I say to each of you and to all who would seek the light, who would follow the path of love and understanding, to search for the higher truths, to attempt in every way to follow in the footsteps of the great way shower of your civilization, Jesus the Christ. He who came to show the way, to demonstrate the path of love, of wisdom and of power. Appreciate the sacrifices that were made for you in order that you might know the way. Build for yourself the treasures of spirit by following his laws, by extending the helping hand to your brother to really demonstrate your understanding for your fellow man. For he who builds these treasures has nothing to fear in the times to come, as your great Master has said, "A thousand may fall on the right and ten thousand upon your left but none shall come nigh to thee."

These beloved ones, are not empty words for those who will align their will with the will of the father, blend it with his will and say "Let thy will be done in me, Oh Father," and really mean this and really follow it. Through prayer and meditation your will and the father's will can become as one. And when you do this you are really on the path, you will follow in the footsteps of the Master.

Your accomplishments, although they may not be praised by mankind, your glory will not be sung by men, yet it will be sung by his angels and there will be rejoicing in the heavens. For you will have truly returned to the father's house and great rejoicing shall take place. This is the accomplishment that all men must make sooner or later if he is to inherit eternal life.

So, I say to the people of Earth, awaken from the grave of ignorance and come forth into life, come alive and live forevermore in his presence.

May each of you, beloved ones, rapidly fall into the full realization of what is meant by truly being one with the father and may each of you walk, now and evermore in His footsteps, that your accomplishments may be as great as his.

Peace. Peace. Peace.

Questioner: Can you tell us who you are?

Samuel: I am one from the Brotherhood, the Silent Brotherhood and I have used our symbol. Our names are not ... we are only recognized by our vibrations and the work that we do.

Go in Peace my friends. Go in Peace and may he walk with you. ✿
