

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Zalhem: Greetings to you, my children, I am Zalhem.

Those of you who have chosen the Path of Truth, who have chosen to search for greater understanding are going to find that in the not too far distant future some very difficult choices. And even in the very, very near future you will find choices to be made that are not going to be easy.

To those who are concerned only with the materialistic world about them, who see nothing else, the choice will be easy, for to them there will be only one choice to make.

Those of you who are treading the Path will find it much different. You have been raised in this lifetime and in other lifetimes to believe only in what your five senses register for you. These concepts and teachings are much more deeply imbedded in the subconscious than you realize.

So when it comes to making choices you will find that sometimes it will be very difficult to choose which way to go. For something within you will draw you one way, yet another knowing or realization within you will be drawing in an opposite direction. The reality at times will be very difficult for you to see.

But these choices will come to all of you as they will to many others and they will have to be made. Often those near and dear to you will choose to grow in a direction that you feel is not right and they will want to draw you with them. Yet through your learning and your experiences you will see the reality that is beyond what we see here in your chemical, physical world.

These will be hard choices, my friends, but it is through these choices that man must prove himself. Will he be able to stand in the fire? These tests will tell. Will he take the easy way and accept the "Mark of the Beast"? Or will he choose the Path of Right, the Path of the Son and stand firm in that Path before all men?

The time must come when all men, all mankind must stand and be counted and only those who stand in the fire will be the ones chosen to bring about the new Birth, to establish the new Earth in its rightful form.

We pray that each of you here this night will be able to stand in the fire, will be able to make the choice that is right, regardless of the cost as it may appear to be. Reality is as you see it. Man makes his own gods, man through generation after generation has been building his own gods. They can be what he wants them to be.

Most of your world today has created materialistic gods and they have worshiped them. But when these gods begin to crumble around them, to disintegrate, to vanish into a nothingness, they will have nothing to cling to. For those who've seen the Light have established principles of reality as it exists, have come to see or to get a glimpse of reality. They will be the ones who will not perish in the wake of the storm for they will know where they stand and they will know that they are standing upon the rock which weathers all storms.

Now beloved, as I leave I extend to each of you my most sincere love, peace and blessings, and may each of you rapidly come into an understanding of Reality, of true Reality. May each of you begin to understand and know thyself for in knowing thyself you will know all things.

Peace, beloved, peace, peace, peace. Go in peace. ✿
