Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends.

It is my very great pleasure to again have this opportunity to come among you. I should like to extend special greetings to our friend here, from back in the other part of your nation, and I would ask him to convey my love and my greetings to my good friend, Baird, and all of his group. Now, my friends, what would you like to talk about?

Questioner: We have missed you. Can you tell us what you have been doing?

Yaum: I have been very busy in my work, following the world affairs and attempting to help in some way to ease the situations which are developing upon your planet today.

Questioner: Could you tell us a little bit about that?

Yaum: The situation is very serious today. Your monetary system is at a very, very low point, and will continue to go lower, in our observations of the meetings of the great financial minds of your planet, known among some as the international bankers, it seems they just about have your nation in the situation that they have been trying to maneuver it into for many, many years. In other words, your nation is bankrupt, and it looks as if the whole world monetary system may collapse in the not too far distant future. Plans are being put forth already in the meetings of the international bankers to work out a new and entirely different system, which will do away with your dollar entirely. Perhaps there will be no money as you know it at all.

Questioner: Will these same people be in control?

Yaum: They will. This is the beginning of what is spoken of in your prophecies. More and more you will come under the control of the powerful ones. They will know more about you than you know about yourself. The data, or the methods of obtaining the data on individuals is being developed. It has been in the process of development for quite a number of years, but it is being gradually more and more intensified. A concentration has been put on the gathering of information on individuals, and in the new setup it will be a very simple matter to check any individual quickly to know where he stands politically, to determine his philosophies, how he thinks, how he moves, and all about him. This, my friends, will be the mark of the beast.

Questioner: Could you be more specific regarding the mark of the beast?

Yaum: This is only a symbol. There will not be a mark on your forehead, but you will be marked by the powers that be. They will have a system that will mark you. They will feed your card into a computer and come back with answers all about you

Questioner: Will we be allowed to meet in groups like this with spiritual freedom?

Yaum: This is a question. You will not be doing it unknown. They may allow you to do it so long as it does not interfere with the system, but if you show opposition to them, this is when trouble will begin.

Questioner: Would they be opposed to us revealing information about UFOs and spacecraft?

Yaum: Well, this remains to be seen. They will not be bothered by people's thinking and talking as long as it does not bring opposition to them, and as long as the people are cooperating and doing as they want them to do. As long as you have the mark of the beast you will be in favor, but without it you will not be, as is quoted in your scriptures. Without it, eventually you will not be allowed to trade, to buy, or to sell.

Questioner: What kind of people will qualify for the mark of the beast ?

Yaum: You would have to be a materialist all the way. You would have to cooperate and do as they wish you to do in order to be one of them. This is why my friends, you have been urged through time to prepare for these times, to build your strength, to build a foundation so that you may be able to weather the storms, to be able to take care of your selves. In other words, through knowledge of the spiritual laws, developing your abilities, your wisdom, your knowledge, so that you will be able to cope with these situations.

Questioner: Won't one almost have to conform to a degree in order to have food and shelter?

Yaum: If you are prepared, you never have to conform. This has been the problem in your civilization. Most of your people have been conformists. They have conformed, and most of them will continue to conform because this is the line of least resistance, but the path that I am speaking of is not an easy path. It is not a path of least resistance. It is a path that requires work, sincerity, persistence, and a desire to be one with all creation. Those who follow this path, although it will not be easy, will receive help, and their rewards in the end will be much greater.

Questioner: Is this what Oxal meant when he said that those who walk in His Light shall be protected, and that a thousand may fall upon your right, ten thousand upon your left, but none shall come nigh unto thee?

Yaum: I would say that was perhaps what he was talking about, but I would not say that there would be none that will receive physical discomforts or harm.

Once you understand, and have the knowledge and the wisdom, those things become less important, you see. Physical life becomes less important. You have a different outlook, and take a different viewpoint on these things, and in so doing, you will find that you will be able to face situations with less discomfort, less possibility of receiving physical harm, and you will find that the whole picture will change for you. It is the path of nonresistance that your Master took.

Questioner: Would you say that this is part of the international Communist conspiracy?

Yaum: No I would not. In reality, the Communists have nothing to do with it.

This same control has gone on for years and years, before Communism was even heard of. I mean that this international group has been in control for perhaps two hundred years. They have not been visible to the average person. They do not work in the open.

They work undercover and pull the strings on your politicians, kings, etc. Communism has been a tool for them, they have used it no a tool, but Communism, of itself, has really nothing to do with it. If Communism had not come along when it did, something else of the same nature would have come along with a different name, that's all.

Questioner: You say that they use it, it doesn't use them?

Yaum: That is right.

Questioner: How long would you say it will be before these people will be put out of control?

Yaum: The only thing that is going to put them out of control is a complete collapse of your whole system. This is one of the reasons why your planet will have to go through a cleansing process to eliminate all of this, and those who are in control, and those who follow their process. Nature will take care of it.

Questioner: Are you familiar with Robert Preston, the Mormon, who has written several books about coming events, such as the monetary crisis, and the political scene?

Yaum: No. I'm not familiar with him, but this has been known and written about by many of your peoples throughout the world. However, your masses do not read these books, and if they read them, they don't believe it.

Questioner: We wondered how valid these particular books were as they mentioned that there were those who were preparing to issue a new constitution in 1976.

Yaum: There are many, many plans being made behind the secret walls, of which your people are not aware. There are those who are aware, and have tried to alert your people, but how many of your people would believe? As long as things are going along fairly well, they don't want to be bothered with such things as liberty, and freedom, and those kinds of things. They believe they are free now.

Questioner: Is Nixon being used by this secret group?

Yaum: Very much so. He has allowed himself to be taken in by these powers. Many of his associates are people who have been used, and of course, those who are used are well paid. They have great material possessions, which are what they want. You see this has been the problem. Your civilization has more or less judged success of people by their accumulation of monetary or material wealth, and it has become a must with so many people. With some it, is an obsession.

Questioner: How can these people be so deceived and not know that they are being, used?

Yaum: Some of them do know that they are being used. Some do not know the real powers back of the whole thing, and many of them, are not aware that they are being used as they are. They are willing to sacrifice their morals and certain principles to gain wealth and power, as you have seen revealed recently by some of your top men in politics.

Questioner: Would you care to comment on the Watergate Affair?

Yaum: This is only something that happened to be uncovered. This is nothing new. This type of thing has been going on for many, many years. It is just that now through certain events that some of these things are being brought out, but the real truth will never be uncovered. They do not want to uncover it, so certain people will be used as scapegoats.

Questioner: Are we in any danger of radioactivity from the hydrogen bomb set off recently in China?

Yaum: Not any more than you have been from any of the others. It is going to add to the pollution of your atmosphere, and will be a contributor to weather conditions in the future, but this one has not raised the level of fallout to where it is a great hazard over what you are already exposed to. If this is continued, you are going to be in more trouble.

Questioner: Are there things that we can do such as taking more iodine, etc., that will help us ward off the effect of the radiation?

Yaum: There are some things that are effective against Strontium 90. I am not an authority on that, but I think that you can find this information in some of your own publications that are put out on these subjects.

Your food situation as a whole is getting more and more serious, and it would behoove any of you to have a little extra on hand. The crops are going to be less and less productive due to floods, storms, and drought, and you are just now beginning now to feel the pinch. This is going to get much worse and everyone, of course, is trying to get their share of the higher profits from higher prices, and a lot of this is propaganda, to drive prices up and to make greater profits. You are going to be fed a terrific amount of propaganda concerning your food supplies, prices, and all of these things.

You will find your food becoming higher and higher priced, and more and more difficult for those who do not have the monetary supply that some of the others have to obtain it. Are there any other questions?

Questioner: With all of the religious philosophies and ideas that are being presented how can we listen to people's ideas and thoughts and be discerning without judging? I am having a little difficulty understanding how this is done.

Yaum: You can only receive from another what is acceptable to you. You see, we go through various stages of growth in our search for truth, and as we move forward on our path, we run into many, many philosophies and teachings, and it is good to listen and weigh them. You do not have to judge the person, you merely weigh what he says.

Take it into your own being in meditation, meditate upon it, and if it seems right to you, if it can be of good use, if it is not going to harm anyone else, if it can be beneficial to you, then take it and use it. If it is something that you do not understand, if it does not fit into your present understanding you do not necessarily have to reject it altogether and say that it is wrong. You just lay it aside on a shelf in your consciousness. You will find that as you travel down the Path, sooner or later you will be able to either fit it in where it belongs, or you will be able to cast it aside as worthless. So you do not have to judge. Being discerning is not judging. By being discerning you are merely weighing certain facts or statements as to whether they are true according to your understanding or whether they are not, or, whether they may have a place later.

You will find many, many philosophies, and there are many paths to truth. Everyone does not follow the same path. It is not necessary. There are many roads leading to a given point you see, and each one chooses his road. There are certain guidelines that you go by, and they are as follows:

Can it do harm to anyone?

Can it cause them any unhappiness, any discomforts?

Can it do good?

And as you receive from others, those who are trying to give you a philosophy, or asking you to follow their philosophy, you need only to make certain decisions. You do not have to follow anyone because within you is all truth, and by going within and becoming one with your Creator, Creative Intelligence, Universal Mind, or whatever you wish to call it, you will be able to tap those truths and know. But, in order to do this, you need to purify your own self because only those who are pure of heart enter the deeper sanctuaries where the great wisdom is revealed, and that also is within you. Does this answer your question?

Yaum: Yes, thank you.

Now my friends, I have spent my time. It has been my pleasure to spend this time with my good friends again. I wish to extend my love and my blessings to each of you, and may each of you go forth this night with now determinations to find yourself, to know thyself, that you might be prepared for the times that you will encounter, for to know thyself is to know all things.

Peace, my friends, Peace. Go in Peace. ☸
