These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Nathaniel: My greetings to you, my beloved friends, I am Nathaniel. I would spend a few moments with you at this time, attempting to bring you a realization of the importance of self realization, of self growth. The realization of the necessity of developing one's own understanding that you might be able to cope with the situations with which you will be faced in the future.

It is important that each accept the Christ and invite this Christ love into your being that it might grow and become a part of you, become your savior. For this is your savior, it is this Christ that will save you from the sins of Earth and will lead you down the path of love and only through love can man conquer self. So I repeat what many times has been said, "Love ye one another, do good unto those who would be your enemies, pray for them and extend to them your love and your understanding for love conquers all things." Nothing is too great nor too powerful to resist the power of true love. Not a love as Earth knows, love but a love that encompasses all mankind and all things of God's creation.

Also pray that the Holy Breath may descend upon you and bring Her wisdom, Her peace and understanding into your heart and your life. Ask and ask again and again that this might come to you and that She might lead you ever onward on your path, teaching you the Truths as you go, guiding you and protecting you in every step as you trod the Path of Truth. The path that you will be led upon is a very narrow path, in many places it will be rough.

Man comes by knowledge, by wisdom, understanding through effort, through sincere seeking and hard work. Nothing that is worthwhile is gained without effort, so each will receive according to their efforts and their sincerity. The Father works and so you must work if you are to conquer worlds and to gain the doorway to His wisdom and knowledge. The doorway is opened to all those who would seek the entrance to it, but the entrance way is narrow and is therefore impossible to enter until you have stripped yourself of the carnal things and by this I mean not only the desire for the carnal things but the thoughts.

One's mind cannot be loaded with inconsequential things of earth, with carnal desires or selfish desires, for until one has stripped himself of these things they will be too large to pass through the entrance way. That is why it is important to be endowed with the Christ love and with the Holy Breath for these will be the things that will aid you in discarding the load that will hold you back.

So I say to Earth people, who have the desire to walk in the footpath of your Great Master, your Great Way-shower. These are the things that must be done if you are to walk in His footsteps. He has shown you the way. He has demonstrated for you. He has given you all of the formulas that you need. Read His words and understand them.

I leave you, my friends, and as I leave you I extend to each of you here this night my most sincere love and blessings. I ask that all the Great Masters invoke upon each of you their love and their peace and their blessings.

Peace, peace, peace. ☸
