

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Zalhem: Greetings to you, my children, I am Zalhem.

One of your Great Teachers at one time made a very profound statement. He said, "Seek the Truth and the Truth shall set you free." Now I am sure that all of you here are truth seekers but how do you determine what is truth and what is not truth? This is perhaps not as simple as it might seem for through the ages man has been taught many things as truth by those who would be teachers and who have established themselves as authorities in your religious organizations. But many of the things that you have been taught have come out of myths that were handed down for many, many centuries. Many of the writings of your religious history were handed down by word of mouth for many centuries before it was put into writing and all of you know how rapidly a story can change as it passes from individual to individual.

Many of the things that were put into the writings were things that the priesthood or those in power at that time felt that they wanted the people to know so they decided what the masses were to be told and what they were not to be allowed to know. So through the centuries many of these myths have become truths to most of the masses of your world today. Therefore, sometimes it is very difficult to separate truth from myth and truth from intentional misguidance.

But you are in a time now when change must come about and the truth must be known if man is to progress upon the ladder of evolution. Evolution cannot proceed properly based on false beliefs and myths that have been created for the benefit of a few. There are going to be times when it will be difficult for you to discern these truths because of the fact that you have been taught many of these myths as truths. They have become a part of you as you were taught them since birth. Your Mothers and your Fathers were steeped in them as were their parents so they came down from generation to generation and have become a part of your thinking for most of your people.

Perhaps you have noticed how the untruths and the fraudulent ones are beginning to be exposed in many high places. It is beginning in the governments of your world and your people soon will know how they have been deceived and taken advantage of in the past.

As more and more of this is uncovered, your eyes will be opened wider and you will begin to see these truths. Then these exposures are going to extend into your religions and other areas.

Your people will become more awakened and eventually those who are really seeking the Truth will come into a realization of what has been happening and they are going to be able to see with different eyes.

Then as the real truths are brought to them, the histories that have been kept by the Brotherhood, the true histories of mankind, are going to be revealed to the true seekers and through this they are going to find it is much easier to let go of the old and establish themselves in the real truths. They are going to realize their responsibilities and are going to see how they have been misled by the priesthood into thinking that someone else could assume the responsibility for their wrong doing and that it can be passed on to someone else who would solve it for them thus removing their responsibility. They will learn that they have built up some great debts under these false concepts. It is not going to be easy for many people to realize that they are responsible for their own thoughts and deeds and forever will be and forever have been. The priesthood cannot relieve you of your responsibility nor is any Great Master going to assume it for you. Each individual must learn, sooner or later, of their own responsibility.

So I say to all true seekers: Be ready for change, keep an open mind because if you do not, you are not going to be useful in the New Age. This is going to be an age of responsibility and of Brotherly Love where each realizes his responsibility to his brother man, where each one knows that when he wrongs a brother he wrongs himself and all those about him. He will learn the only way you can have a civilization of justice, of brotherly love, of responsibility to each other, is by really observing what you call the Golden Rule. This has been repeated many times by those who call themselves Christians or Buddhists or what have you, yet they seldom apply it or teach their children to apply it.

My beloved friends, I am going to take a few moments again and pass among you. I would like again to check your auras and perhaps repair a leak here and there. So if you will cooperate, I will be most happy to do this.

(Zalhem passes amongst those in attendance.)

It has been my pleasure to spend this time with you. If I have been of any help, I am happy. I now leave you by extending to each of you my Love, my peace and joy and I extend the love of all the Circle. I ask the blessings of all the Great Ones. May their blessings be poured forth upon you now? May each of you make great progress in your search for Truth and may you find the peace and joy that comes with being set free.

Go in peace, beloved, go in peace. Peace, peace, peace. ✨
