Zalhem: My greetings to you, my beloved friends, I am Zalhem.

Your numbers are few tonight but this is of no concern for when we speak, we speak not only to those of you here but to all those who receive our word through other means.

We were aware of your conversation prior to your silent time and I should like to say that we are reaching many more people than you realize. And we are grateful to those of you here for passing the word on to others who can make use of it.

We are not attempting to reach the masses. We have words only for those who have the ears to hear and the eyes to see. The masses have been so blinded and their ears so deafened that they cannot see nor hear the truth. They have had their opportunity and they have failed. Now they shall have to wait until the opportunity returns again in a far distant time.

There is so much happening today upon planet Earth that these people are not aware of because they are blinded to the truth. The Christ Spirit and the Holy Spirit or the Holy Breath is moving upon your planet today as it has never moved in this civilization. Yet your masses that are so numbed by materialism and self cannot see, hear or feel these things. More people upon your planet today have received the gift of Spirit than has ever been known before in your civilization. The gift of healing, the gift of prophecy, the gift of seeing beyond the physical, the gift of interpretation and the gift of speaking in tongues and many other gifts of the Spirit, for there are many.

Perhaps the one that has received the most criticism from some of your metaphysical sources as well as many other sources is the gift of speaking in tongues and perhaps there is a reason for this. There has been much said in regard to this gift. Perhaps too much emphasis has been placed upon it by many for many feel that unless you have their gift you have not had what is referred to as a rebirth or a baptism of the Holy Spirit, or that you have not attained but a low degree of spiritual development. But this, my friends, is not so. One gift is not more important than another, each has its place, each has its own importance and each is given to the individual who can best serve with that particular gift.

The gift of speaking in tongues is of little value unless you have an interpreter for of what value are a lot of words that you do not comprehend? They are merely words. So, you see the interpreter is as important as the speaker of the tongue. Due to the fact that it is emphasized by many in certain circles of religious groups that this is necessary before a rebirth and many believe this and attempt to accomplish it. They spend much time praying for it and asking for it in trying to bring it forth. When this is done the ego—or perhaps you would call it the subconscious—begins to try to accommodate and draws forth from past lives languages that perhaps may lie back many lifetimes in their memory bank. This is brought forth and so the individual begins to speak in an unfamiliar tongue.

But what they are saying is likely to be of little value or the fact that they are saying it or bringing it forth is of no benefit to them and does not bring them one iota to self realization.

But in the true gift of speaking in tongues, it is either the Spirit, your own Spirit—and I am not referring to the soul but to the Spirit that is speaking from wisdom gained in the far past. In some cases the Holy Spirit or the Holy Breath expresses through man in this manner. But unless the interpreter is there to translate there is still little meaning. But this gift is only one of the gifts of the Spirit and the fact that one does not have this one gift does not exclude him from the Kingdom.

As one of your great teachers from the past has said, "If one has all of these gifts and has not love, he is but a sounding cymbal." These were words truly spoken. The Christ love is the greatest gift that man can have and in this physical life you will only experience degrees of it. A degree can be experienced in this life that would take you to heights beyond your comprehension at this moment. But even this would not be the fullness of the Christ love. It is Infinite and until you become infinite you will not experience it in its fullness.

I pray that each of you will experience it to your fullest capacity in this sojourn and it will be an experience that will be impressed most deeply upon your consciousness and will never be forgotten.

Now I know that it is customary at the end of your silence to join together in sending His light and His love to each other and to others that you know have need, so I am going to join you tonight in this and we will do it much in your usual manner for this is good.

I would like each of you to become light. Let the light of the Infinite Ones flow to you and we are going to ask the Great Ones—those who manifest greater light than we—to join with us and to fill each of us with this light energy, that we in turn might send it forth to others. So let us take a moment and as we do so, let us visualize this light flowing to us. Let us raise our arms and call it forth and let it fill our bodies and souls to overflowing.

Now let us concentrate this light on each one separately, beginning on my left, then proceeding to the next one, after he or she has absorbed the light to his satisfaction. Let us begin.

(Pause)

Now let us hold the planet in this light.

(Pause)

It is done.

We give praise and thanks to the Infinite Ones and to the Great Ones, that they heard us and joined us, that they care about us and all mankind.

I ask that the Christ love may grow in you to your fullest capacity, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Breath. ❀
