Samuel: Greetings to you, my beloved ones, I am Samuel. It is my privilege to have this time to spend with you. Zalhem could not be with you today, due to other obligations. Perhaps you have a few questions that you would like to ask? If I can be of any help to you, it will be my pleasure.

Questioner: Will the people in the New Age here be seeing more of the yellow vibration?

Samuel: That will depend upon the people, how much they raise their consciousness and their spirituality. I think you will see more individuals reaching the edges of the yellow vibration in this next age which will start out at a higher state of evolution and grow to even higher states of evolution. There will be other ages before this planet has completely served its usefulness, but it is going to have to go through a period of rejuvenation.

The real thrust of the New Age will not come for quite a long time yet in your time. It is going to take much time to prepare for this and for the earth to replenish itself. The Earth will be, bringing it down to your terms, fertilized in this process which will again make it more productive. This will come about through the dispersal upon Earth of materials of your moon which will disintegrate in this changeover. Much of that debris will fall upon the Earth, acting as another form of rejuvenation, fertilizing the planet.

But it will be quite some time before you see many people beginning to vibrate in that yellow range.

Questioner: Will that be after the Millennium?

Samuel: Yes. Some of those who are chosen to establish the New Age may be vibrating on the fringes of that color, for only the strong souls are the ones that will be left to establish, the New Age. It is the same with any civilization or nations. Strong souls are always the ones who come first to establish any new project.

Questioner: Will they leave then, when the workers come in or will they stay after the Millennium?

Samuel: Those who are of this evolutionary cycle will stay. Those who come in from other cycles who are highly advanced to help in the establishment of this age, will eventually leave as did those in the beginning of the age.

Always some of the Masters come in to help establish a New Age and after their work is done they leave. It is then up to those of that cycle to carry on. Some of the Masters return from time to time, to help in certain cases, certain projects, but they are not always known as Masters.

Questioner: I have read that when a planet is created or destroyed, there are Planetary Spirits who are sending energy of different colors, depending upon whether they are creating or destroying. Will there be some type of higher beings during the cleansing of this planet, sending energy to the planet to help it heal?

Samuel: Everything that takes place on any planet is directed by the Hierarchy that is in charge of that planet or that evolutionary cycle. So there are always these individual egos that are watching and directing energies to a planet and to its people, and these are helpful in the way of aiding the people to evolve. This is always going on.

Questioner: Is the Brotherhood planning other Light Centers at this time?

Samuel: They do not spend too much time in establishing Light Centers. This is more or less left up to the individuals who feel the urge and the inspiration to do these things. Once they have been established and are on the proper Path, the Brotherhood will move in to help them in any way that they can, and impress and encourage them through subtle methods.

Times are moving very rapidly now, so one must be practical in establishing a Light Center.

With your economy as it is, you are going to see changes taking place quite rapidly in the very near future which is going to make it more difficult to raise funds. It is sad but nevertheless a fact that within your system it requires, what you call money, as a medium of exchange to accomplish these things. A smaller type of operation could be established in a short time if one moves rapidly, and has the ability to bring forth that which he or she needs to do this.

There is going to be in the near future great turmoil about your people. There will be much panic among the unenlightened ones, but this is a process that your people must go through. You have moved to a time in your evolutionary path when the sheep must be separated from the goats, so to speak. This is the time spoken of in your religious writings as the Judgment Day.

I know that it is difficult to not have great concern and sorrow for those who must be left behind, but when it comes down to hard facts, they have made their own choice. Everyone upon your planet who has evolved intellectually to any degree at all, knows within themselves that there is a choice to be made, and they have made that choice. Therefore, we cannot as individuals, be responsible for the choice of another individual. So you are going to find yourselves in difficult situations as to choices you will make regarding certain individuals who may be close to you in various ways. But you cannot force upon another that which he or she does not or is not capable of perceiving.

I know that I have gone a long way around to answer your question but we do not particularly have plans for various Centers. There have been many established, some of those have done well, others have not. The lower self has entered in and caused much turmoil in many Centers and they have gone on the wrong path. Others have done better. Some are still in the process of being finalized, and their path will depend upon the individuals involved. We cannot control people, we can only suggest and help in ways that will make it somewhat easier for the individuals involved. But the final decision and the final acts are up to them.

We have high hopes and have had high hopes for many Centers, but the human element we cannot control for we cannot interfere or take charge of the lives of others. They must learn to stand on their own two feet. They must learn to control these lower emotions, this animal nature.

This has been the failure of many attempts to establish spiritual communities. This has not only happened in the past few years, this has happened over many, many years. Many attempts have been made, few have succeeded.

Questioner: How does one gather the ability to know when to turn to another way, or when to forge on and overcome the obstacles in his way?

Samuel: You are asking, "How do you know and know that you know"? This is what man needs to learn. These are the things that our Circle of Teachers has been talking about for a long time. Little attention has been given, and often we are somewhat criticized for repeating ourselves. But it seems that we need to repeat things over and over. The things that the Nazarene has taught and said, is being repeated and has been repeated for two thousand years, and people are still not practicing them. So if man is to evolve, and is to control his environment and not become wards of charity, then he must learn to think for himself, to make his own decisions. For each of you are Creators, and are creating your future every moment of the day.

The reason there is so much indecision is because man has not developed his mental capacity to where he can hold his thoughts upon any one subject or concentrate upon it for more than a minute, and few can do that. So we must develop these abilities, and when we have developed them, we will see more clearly. The problem is that man does not see clearly as was mentioned before. Learn to analyze, learn to analyze yourself and do it honestly.

Ask yourself, "Is this something that I desire for myself, or is it something that is going to be very beneficial to me and to others whom I wish to help? Do I have the capacity, the abilities to do the things that I want to do, both physically and spiritually? Can I quiet myself and analyze and think these things through in a logical, sensible manner"? See it through and if this is what you want, then you know that this is what you must do. If you have analyzed all of the situations that you need to confront, and you feel within that you can accomplish this, that you can do this, then concentrate upon it. Put that will to work, and know that you will accomplish it, and if that be the case, nothing can stop you. You will bring things together and it will happen.

When there are doubts and your purpose is not clear, when you are pulled in one direction and then another, when you have emotional ties and what have you, the way will be difficult and perhaps you will fail. Your eye must become single. But you do not in any way cause damage to others, or do things that will trample upon other people. Some people move forward regardless of their negativity in a project, or of what it does to themselves or to others. They will go to any means to get that which they want.

You see individuals here in your civilization who have trampled on others to gain the wealth, or the goal for which they are striving. Of course this will not be profitable in the long run. So if you are to decide to do something, then you need to do a lot of work in the way of bringing it all together. Analyze it, put forth every effort of your mental capacity to bring it about and to see that you use good judgment in your choices.

Questioner: Can you tell us how long it will be until severe economic problems will come to this country?

Samuel: It is difficult at this time to set a date. There are many variables, but it is bound to happen very soon in your financial system. Your banks are tottering at this moment. The international bankers are doing everything they possibly can. They are holding meetings and discussing how they can prevent their wealth and power from crumbling. They are going to try a number of things which may or may not work for a short time.

But you all realize that the great debts that have been incurred by some governments of the world, cannot be paid. Therefore, some system or some method must be found to try to solve this problem. We do not believe that there is any answer. The only answer is that there will be a complete crumbling of the system. But as more and more of your developing countries default on their payments, you are going to find more and more of your banks failing. This already is in progress. I think that within the next two to three months you are going to see more and more of them failing. But the system itself will not completely crumble for quite some time yet as there will be other methods put into practice. Gradually it will go to a no money system which has been talked about and of which you are aware. These events are moving very rapidly.

The situation in the Middle East is not going to get any better. We believe that it will not be more than a year or a year and a half, two years at the most, until a major conflict will develop there. This is going to bring about more hardships on all of your nations. The "times" are upon you.

Questioner: In the next two months would it be wise to put all of our resources in gold, metals or real estate or should we work along with the paper system?

Samuel: We do not like to give financial advice. Of course your precious metals will always have value. I think there is going to be a great deal of manipulation done in those markets for awhile. You are going to see the prices of gold and silver fluctuating. As your financial institutions and your financial system becomes weaker and weaker, the value of your precious metals is going to go higher.

But I don't believe that is going to occur for another few months, and if you have seen the market at all, you know it is being manipulated considerably now. Every rumor and every bank failure immediately affects your stock market and your prices of gold and silver. But the time will come when the prices of these metals will go higher and higher. I believe eventually, gold will become worth sums that are almost inconceivable at this time. Silver will go along with it but the value will not be as high.

Questioner: Are you saying then, that it is better to exchange our T-Bills, or Money Market paper, for gold and silver permanently?

Samuel: T-Bills will still be good while your government still has credit. When it is realized that the bankers, the lenders, can no longer lend to the government, then the government credit has run out. Then the T-Bills will become worthless, too, because they will not have anything with which to pay for them. Your present situation can change very suddenly. A lot depends too, upon where the unemployment goes. Your manufacturers are hoping for better times, and it is possible that there may be some improvement temporarily. But I believe that it will be a small improvement and I believe it will be short-lived. Your unemployment will continue to increase, and when it gets to the point where your people are no longer able to receive unemployment compensation, and they begin to become hungry in great numbers, you are going to see a great pressure put upon your government to do something, and to feed them.

This could happen in less than two or three years, depending upon how the unemployment rate goes. If it goes as high as eighteen, to twenty, or twenty-five percent, you are going to see revolt as you have never seen it before. When the government is pressured in that way by millions of its people, it will have no choice but to declare martial law, and that means dictatorship.

Questioner: We were told two years ago that this would happen within five years. Is this still an approximate time?

Samuel: I would stand by that.

I have stayed my time. If I have been of any service to you, I am glad.

I leave by extending to each of you my most sincere love, my blessings.

I ask that the blessings and the love of the Great Ones be bestowed upon each of you now.

Peace, peace, peace. Walk in peace. Be peaceful. ☸
