Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends. I am Oxal.

As we view the situation upon your planet today, we see a great fear increasing in the hearts of the masses, and especially in the hearts of your leaders, of your world leaders. They have, so to speak, backed themselves into a corner. They have through their scientific know-how and experiments created a monster that is about to destroy them. This they realize. They are now face to face with this monster which they have created, and they view it with great fear, for they know that once it is loosed, it will not only destroy the people whom they are leading, but it shall also destroy them.

There is a great movement afoot among the world leaders to try to establish a peace and still hold their power, and still be able to control their people. But the mistrust, suspicion, hatred among them make this difficult to accomplish, for no nation upon the surface of your planet has faith in another. But the fear in their hearts is driving them to make an attempt to come to some agreement whereby they can avoid facing this monster which they have created. Eventually, this will be accomplished to a degree, but never will a satisfactory peace be established until there is love and understanding, truth and faith between all peoples of your planet.

Divisions must go. How can you have a world peace, a love between all mankind, when walls are built between the colors, the creeds, etc. There must be understanding in your great nation at this time. There are great disputes going on between the races, disputes of equality. Why should this be? Man's soul has no color. The color of your skin or your faith, your concepts, do not raise you above another. These, beloved ones, are the things that must be instilled in the minds of earth people. Some of your great Masters in times past have not been of the white skin race, but nevertheless they were Masters.

I am sure that all of you working in the Light at this time know and realize this, but it is not enough to know it. For the time has come when the workers in the Light must take their stand, must be willing to stand and be counted on such things. And I use this only as an example, for there are many, many concepts of Truth which you know within your being to be true. There is no more time to hedge.

The vibratory rate of your planet is increasing day-by-day, and more and more you shall see strange things happening. For as man rises on the ever increasing spiral, as he reaches farther and farther into the higher realms, the lower part of him, or as you refer to it as the negative, battles harder and harder to stay with you. But it cannot stand these higher vibrations, so as it falls away from you, it clings tightly and causes you much distress. It's leaving—the Ego does not leave easily—the battle sometimes becomes very heated.

So you see all about you these things taking place. It is evident in people, in nations, in world affairs. It is apparent everywhere you look. So the cleansing process is in action. I mention this only that you might realize and know, and recognize these things when you see them, for you shall see more and more until the final time has arrived.

I say again to you, love ye one another, for in this manner, your Truth shall come to you much easier—and I do not mean a physical love as you know it, but an understanding, a feeling of knowing each other and understanding. Learn to know yourself, for only through knowing yourself can you know your fellow man, for he is only a reflection of you. You are all one, beloved ones, you are all one. We are one with you, and you are one with us. I am in you and you are in me. We are a part of the whole. To love myself is to love you. So I say again, love ye one another.

And now, my beloved friends, I must leave this instrument. I extend to you the Love, the Understanding and the blessings of my people. I am Oxal. ☸
