Mr. R.: And the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were greatly blessed.

Greetings to you, my friends, I am Mr. R.

All of you have been greatly blessed, this night, rest assured of this. For tonight, there have stood among you, great Masters. The time has come, beloved ones, the time has come, when each must stand upon his own. When each must develop and bring forth that great love which shall open the way. It is only through the manifestation of this great love that the great one who walked your Earth many years ago, demonstrated for you, that you shall reach the heights to which you aspire.

This, beloved ones, must be your first achievement, for on this hinges all things. As you receive this love, and allow it to flow through your being, many, many of the mysteries shall become clear to you. Your eyes shall be opened to the now unseen. The rest shall follow more easily once this cleansing has taken place. When this great love center is opened, the others must follow.

Give yourself in selfless service with that great love and desire to serve your creator and your fellow man. Let your heart and your soul sing forth in joyous praise and thanksgiving, and his light, his love and his understanding shall engulf you. Let not your heart be angered from any cause what so ever.

Let it sing only forgiveness, joy and praise, for in this state you are all receptive to the light that shall make all things known unto you. These are the things you must develop, beloved ones. Recognize only the good, for those that persecute you know not what they do so. Pray for them. Forgive them. Have malice toward none.

This sounds like a big order, does it not, beloved ones? But I say unto you, it is the only way. It was his way, and so it must be yours. There is no other.

I leave you, beloved ones, by extending to you, the love, light and understanding, from my deepest soul.

Odina, Peace be with you. ☸
