Yaum: Greetings to you, my friends, Anthon asked me if I would like to visit with you for a few moments and I said that I would be happy to. I have not been in the presence of some of you here for quite some time. I give you my special greetings and love and also to all of you. Now, is there a subject you would like to talk about?

Questioner: We are at a point of making a change and moving. We would like to be in tune with others of like mind and serve the Teachers.

Yaum: In other words you are at a point of decision?

Answer: Yes.

Yaum: These are times when many people are finding themselves in somewhat the same situation. There are changes to be made. You are living in very confusing times. I do not know quite how to say this, but a large percentage of your people are feeling a great urgency within themselves. They feel that changes are coming. It is in the air. Those who are more sensitive are feeling it more than others. But in your particular case, you find that you have to make a decision shortly and that, plus the other pressures, are making your feelings much more intense.

But your Teachers have been urging you for a long time to develop your intuitive nature, to practice using your mental capacities to a greater extent, that they might be developed and grow stronger. They have been doing this because they knew that the time was coming for all of you when you would find yourself in situations when you must make decisions and make them wisely. Wise decisions can only be made through your intuitive ability. And the greater that power is in you the more wisely will your decisions be made. Now, I know you are saying to yourself, "But this does not help our immediate situation," and I realize this. But we cannot make these decisions for you.

First, one must determine what he really wants and once this is determined, then work toward that goal. Set up your process of visualization, visualizing exactly what you have decided. you want. Then listen to that still small voice within you, that intuitive nature, and you will find that things will begin to work out as they should and will bring about that which you desire. But always be sure that you really want that which you desire.

If you are not pleased and have not the right feeling for the place where you now find yourself, then you should determine that which would be suitable for you and start working mentally upon it. Then follow that guidance or the intuitive suggestions that come to you, for we must have action. And in so doing, if you are sincere and really want to develop that which you desire, it will come to you as rapidly as you can visualize it. But never waver. Know that, that is the way it is going to be and see it no other way.

Now, in your case, you have two individuals involved and it is necessary that you agree upon what you want, that you both in unison visualize and work toward that which you desire, for there is power in numbers. You must be of like mind, otherwise you are pulling in two directions and Universal Mind cannot fulfill a requirement when it is not clear. If there is not unison, then there is a problem of which one to fulfill.

So there must be a meeting of the minds and you must be positive as Zalhém has taught you to be. Be positive. Say, "I am positive, positive, positive," and be positive. It is not enough to say it, you must be it. It is always necessary when asking Deity for a fulfillment, to be positive about that request, knowing that it will come to you and that it will be fulfilled. Now, I think I have expounded long enough upon that subject

Questioner: Recently we saw a television documentary about a severely retarded eight or ten year old boy. He could not speak and required constant care. He was like a vegetable. An older couple who had raised their family took him and completely devoted their lives to caring for him. One night they heard piano music and found this young man playing their piano. He demonstrated, almost the ability of a genius He could play any complicated music perfectly after hearing it only once. I was overwhelmed by the quality of love that this couple gave to him as I know about love but I do not understand the kind of love that they gave to him. Please speak about this love and healing.

Yaum: Did he have a complete recovery?

Answer: Almost. He was still blind.

Yaum: I would say he was a very advanced soul who had made great accomplishments in other lifetimes, such as in music and knowledge of whatever he studied. This was already a part of him, but it was not or could not be released, due to his disabilities. This couple who took him must have had great love and compassion which perhaps they had developed in other lifetimes and perhaps some in this life. No doubt they had some knowledge of the use and direction of cosmic forces. Through their knowledge and their devotion, in time they were able to improve his mental capacities, so that the talents that he already had, could express. You see talents are not given, they are something you have earned at some time or another.

These talents were there and they came out as his capacity and his abilities to function improved. Great things can be done if you have the knowledge and know-how to use the proper energies, and also to work mentally with another individual and give him this unconditional love. Almost anything can be either alleviated or greatly improved if the proper application is made of these forces.

Now, as I leave you, I extend to each of you my love and my blessings. May each of you quickly find your way and may everything work out for your very best. May it work soon, so that you can serve in a greater capacity.

Peace, beloved ones, peace, peace. ☸
