Mr. R.: I greet you my beloved friends, in the love, light and understanding of the Infinite creator.

I have been among you tonight. I have heard your conversations. All of you here on this night are sincerely seeking truth, understanding and wisdom. This, my friends, shall be given you in degrees that are suitable to you as individuals. I am a new comer among you. I spoke last evening through your instrument for the first time. I am one of the new comers to your city. This is a new and delightful experience for me. I pray that my service shall be well received by your people. I sincerely hope that I shall be able to do my part in raising the consciousness of Earth people.

It is our duty, or at least one of our duties, to work with those of you who are sincerely seeking light and understanding. We are doing this although many of you are not aware of our presence. You too, are doing your part in the service to your brothers and sisters.

Let each of us rededicate ourselves each day to their service. Let us be ever more aware of opportunities to serve, to send forth our light to let it shine that it may help others. But as I stated last evening, our most effective way of teaching is through example, through manifesting of our truth so that others might see. Little is gained by shouting from the house tops or from the street corners, but through example, we can accomplish a great deal, for as others see our light, they too, shall want their share and shall come seeking it. For when they come sincerely seeking, then, and then only can we lead them.

Children of the light, you have much work to do among the people of Earth. A great deal of light must be spread, and those like yourselves who are dedicating their life to this purpose, in love and understanding and humbleness, those are the ones who shall inherit this planet.

Time is growing short beloved friends. Your development must come rapidly in order to fulfill your mission. Seek within through that higher consciousness, that creative part of you which is able to reach out and draw forth from that great store house of knowledge, wisdom, of light. Spend as much time as you can in this manner, for there you shall receive your enlightenment, your wisdom and your understanding.

We who have come here to serve and to help, to help those of you who are serving in the lower vibration, we are spending much time in meditation, in sending forth our light, our love and our understanding to you that you might be helped to a greater extent. Try to instill in your consciousness the realization of who you are and what you are. Place no limitation upon yourself, but realize that you are this great power and intelligence which rules the universe. You are one of the many expressions to this intelligence, therefore, locked within you are the powers that shall manifest all that you need. You need only to unlock them through your love and understanding, your seeking.

There are no miracles, beloved friends, there is only law. You need only to understand and apply the Universal laws. The laws that have always been present and always will be. True, we know not where the spiral ends. It goes beyond our understanding and beyond the understanding of all whom we have contacted, but we know that the spiral, the spiral gets ever more beautiful, ever more lovely as we rise. So let us climb onward, beloved ones. Always reaching a helping hand to those who are struggling just below us, for as we extend our hand, someone else shall extend theirs to us. It is a never ending chain. All those who work and live in the light and love and understanding, move ever onward and upward, and they grow by serving.

Now, beloved friends, before I leave I would like to pass among you and place my love, my blessings upon each of you. It shall take me but a moment. Now, beloved ones, I shall leave you. It has been my pleasure to speak with you. My love, my blessings and my Peace I leave with you.

Odina, my friends, Odina. ☸
