These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Yaum: Greetings to you, my friends.

It is my privilege to come among you again. I thought it might be nice to drop in for a few moments and perhaps we could have a little chat. If you have some questions I would be happy to share my understanding with you. If I do not have the answers I will say so. Any answer I give will only be my understanding, and if you do not accept it, it is alright.

Questioner: Could you tell us anything about the acid pollution of our water that Samuel brought to our attention earlier this year, and what, if anything, is being done about it by the hierarchy?

Yaum: There has not been anything done about it so far. Your own scientists are scratching their heads because they do not know what to do about it. They know, partly, what is causing it, but they do not know any way to correct it. I am afraid that they do not have the answer and will not have it.

Questioner: What can we do to protect ourselves in this area?

Yaum: This area has not been affected by that as yet, and perhaps it will not be, at least to any extent. You do not have the concentrated industries here that you have in some other parts of your nation, therefore, you do not have the risk here.

Questioner: Would you care to comment on the turmoil going on in various countries around the world at this time?

Yaum: Well, it is all a part of the times. It will grow until it eventually evolves into a major conflict, pretty much as has been predicted in the past. It is shaping up and it is all a part of the times and a part of the culmination of this Age. Things are pretty much on schedule.

Questioner: Psychologists are beginning to investigate the subject of Androgyny. Could you give us some understanding of this subject?

Yaum: This, again, is a part of the times. People are becoming more aware of these things. Also, as Man evolves he moves closer to Androgyny and it becomes more predominant. The division of the Soul was merely the dividing of the positive and the negative polarities.

Man is moving towards Androgyny in the New Age, and he is becoming more and more aware of that, but he will not become Androgynous here. He is merely becoming more aware of the tendency of the individual to be both male and female.

Questioner: Is Man's sexuality to continue on in the same way for many, many years, or is this something that will change with the New Age energies?

Yaum: It will continue on as it is through the New Age, but Man's attitude toward it will be somewhat different. You will not have the exploitation of the sex urge that you have now and have had all through this civilization and others before it. It will be used more for reproduction than strictly for pleasure as it is now. It will be considered more seriously in the future, for Man will know more about these energies.

These sex energies are life-giving energies, and when Man wastes them as he does, he drags himself down. These energies can do great things for Man in the way of spiritual development and progress when he learns how to put them to the proper use. An example of this is the Kundalini exercise, which brings these energies or forces, to where they are used for spiritual growth instead of pleasure or reproduction. Then Man will understand this more and will do these things.

Eventually, Man will return to the state of androgyny as he was originally. This separation did not take place until Man came down into the Soul vibration. Up to that point he was androgynous.

The return to Androgyny will not take place upon this planet. After you finish with this planet and move on to the realm of Soul, you must accomplish the overcoming of the Soul, just as you overcame the physical here on Earth. When you have completed the overcoming of the Soul, the two polarities are rejoined and you become androgynous again.

Questioner: Will there be more equality of the sexes in the New Age on planet Earth?

Yaum: Oh, yes.

Questioner: Is it possible for an androgynous person to serve in our vibration?

Yes, it is. There are people on your planet who are androgynous now, but they are not of this planet. They have come back here for a mission, you see.

Questioner: In the Aquarian Gospel it speaks of Jesus' great longing to be united with Miriam. It sounded very much as though she might have been His opposite polarity. However, Edgar Cayce indicated that His mother, Mary, was His opposite polarity. Is this true?

Yaum: Yes, I think she was, as I recall.

Questioner: Hadn't Jesus become androgynous then?

Yaum: I cannot answer that for sure. He may have been androgynous and then divided. This can be done. An androgynous person can come here if he creates a body, but if he is to come through the birth route to fulfill his mission, then he must divide.

Questioner: Why did Jesus have this great longing for Miriam if she was not His opposite polarity?

Well, haven't any of you ever had a longing for someone who is not your soul mate? These are tests that He went through.

Questioner: I understand that it is not uncommon to have this great oneness in the higher realms, where souls are Androgynous. Is that right?

Yaum: When you reach a state of Pure Love, you have this for everyone. You love everyone. You may have a little stronger love for one person than another, but you would not let that interfere with your decisions concerning anyone else.

Questioner: I have been practicing Yoga for some time now, and I would like to know if there is any danger of opening the chakras, or spiritual centers, prematurely?

Yaum: As far as Yoga exercises are concerned, I do not see any harm in any of those, when done in moderation. I do not believe that these will cause the chakras to open before they are ready. Some may tell you that this is the case, but I do not believe that it is, unless you are doing it specifically for that purpose and are also working mentally to try to open the chakras.

We do not recommend that you try to force the psychic centers to open, but they will open when you are ready and have developed enough. If you force these to open too soon you can get into a great deal of trouble. I do not think the exercises, if done within reason, will cause this to happen.

Questioner: What is your opinion of Tai-Chi?

Yaum: This is another method of developing one's physique. This is fine and I see no particular harm in it.

Questioner: Does this help to increase one's longevity?

Yaum: Yes, it helps. It is used a great deal in the Orient, where it originated. It can be beneficial.

Questioner: Will the great earth changes that have been predicted for the West Coast still take place, or have they possibly been averted?

Yaum: No, they will take place. It will come about pretty much as has been predicted. I don't think anyone can predict the exact place, borderline, or coastline, they will take place. This could vary according to when and how it happens, but they are pretty much on schedule.

Questioner: There have been some predictions suggesting big earth changes in 1984. Is this correct?

Yaum: Yes, there will be some big changes in 1984 and there will be some preceding that. I suppose you are thinking mostly of your own country, but there are already quite drastic changes in progress in other parts of the world. They will come to your country, too.

Questioner: Will there be more severe weather next year, such as we have experienced this winter?

Yaum: Yes, this will be quite common for awhile. Your food shortages and your inflation will worsen. There is no stopping your inflation now. It will continue until there is a collapse of your monetary system. It will be sometime yet before this happens, but it is getting closer all the time. There is no other way to stop it.

Questioner: What about the worsening oil situation?

Yaum: This is one of the biggest farces in your world. The international powers that be are playing this thing for all it is worth.

Questioner: I was wondering about the Chinese invasion of Vietnam. Do you see this as a prelude to a more extended conflict there?

Yaum: It does not appear, at this time, that it is going to develop into a major catastrophe, but eventually the Bear and the Dragon will clash. That will, of course, be the beginning of the end.

Questioner: We recently had a group discussion on the subject of Service. We talked about what our motives should be, the extent and circumstances of the service, etc. I'd like very much for you to comment on the types of services we should be performing.

Yaum: Anything that you do that advances the evolution of Man, that helps another to grow, that gives someone pleasure in the way of beauty or something that develops beauty. One example would be those people who love to work in gardens raising beautiful flowers where their fellow man can see them. That is a service to mankind because it makes someone's life a little fuller and a little happier.

To make money can be a service. Now, some people condemn anyone who makes money. It is not wrong to make money if you are making it so that you can better serve mankind, and if you use it to further the work of the Masters. Your thought should always be that you are serving for the glory of the Great Ones, not for yourself. You should have them in mind in any service that you do. Be sure that you are not doing it to gain recognition for yourself, or to gain power for yourself, or for any other selfish motive. These must be eliminated.

Questioner: Sometimes we think that we are serving with all our heart, only to find that it wasn't a service. How do we discern when we are really serving?

Yaum: You have to learn to use good judgment and wisdom. Now, you are going to make some mistakes for sure, as none of us are perfect. If we were perfect we wouldn't be here. By these mistakes you will learn and gain wisdom and you will not make these same mistakes again. It is a matter of growth, you see, but the main thing is to share and to serve for the Glory of God and not for the glory of yourself.

Anything that is good for all or that will further the evolution of mankind is good. Anything that does the opposite is evil and should be avoided. You can use that as a guideline.

Questioner: Isn't it hard to know the difference sometimes?

Yaum: It isn't really that hard to know. If you come up against a case where you are unsure, you should study the case a little bit and get the background, and then you can pretty well draw the correct conclusions. If it will help that individual to become a happier, more well-rounded individual and help him on his way, then it is good.

Questioner: I'd like to change the subject, if I may, to the question of abortion. I realize that it would be better to deal with the situation before pregnancy occurs. However, since the moral issue of abortion is so prominent in the news today, I would like to know when the soul enters the fetus, and if one is really taking a life when an abortion is performed?

Yaum: Well, this has been a great moral issue in your country, but the problem should not be there to begin with. It is only through the abuse of sex that you have this problem. I think that in many cases the abortion is better than having the child because the child is brought into such miserable conditions that it has no real chance to grow or become anything.

Questioner: Is the abortionist karmically responsible for killing the fetus?

Yaum: For the fetus only. He is not going to harm the soul.

Questioner: Isn't he responsible for taking a life?

Yaum: No, it has not become a complete body at that time. It is like eating an egg. If you are completely against killing, as many people are, then you would have to consider eating an egg as killing. The soul does not enter into the body until just before it is born, but hovers around the mother, helping to develop and form the body of the developing fetus. It does not enter into that body until it is quite well developed.

Questioner: If only people understood this process there would not be such controversy over this subject, would there?

Yaum: People have very little understanding of those things and you cannot expect them to really look at it much differently. As I said, the problem really shouldn't be there in the first place, and in the New Age I do not think that you will have these problems.

Questioner: What if one destroys the fetus when conditions would have been desirable for the child to grow and develop?

Yaum: Oh, many, many souls have to try several times in order to make body develop.

Questioner: Is it worthwhile to pursue the building and control of the "Chi" system in the human body? It is the same system that works on the pressure points by which one can do healing, plus other things—trying to get the physical body in better shape.

Yaum: Much can be done with the working with the pressure points. Those are the points where the energy enters the body. This is quite commonly used, especially in the Orient and used a great deal in your country, even by some of your professional people.

Questioner: We would like to thank you for sharing your understanding with us, and if you can stay and join with us in sending the Light to others, we would be very grateful.

Yaum: It has been my privilege to spend this time with you. If I have been of any service to you, I am happy. I want to thank you for accepting me into your midst.

As I leave I would like to extend to each of you my love and my blessings.

May each of you make great progress in your journey upon the Path and I ask all the Great Ones to pour forth their love and their blessings upon you.

Go in peace, my friends, go in peace. Peace, peace, peace. ☸
