

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Copyright © 2012 Clyde Trepanier

February 29, 1960

John: Peace be with you, my friends. Not so many years ago I trod the surface of this planet. I made my livelihood as a fisherman, and then came the great Master and teacher, and I was made a fisher of man.

I have watched the progress of your planet through the years, and gradually I have noted a great advancement in the science of man. Man of Earth feels that he has made great strides in the advancement of his civilization in a few centuries, and this be true, but man has not yet changed his thoughts or his attitudes. I have observed no great change in these.

Greed, lust and hatred still prevails among Earth man and a great departure, especially in some of the so called civilized nations upon your planet, a departure from respect in their attitude toward their creator. But rather man has turned to the mighty dollar. In your words, gold is his God. It is his power. He trusts not in his creator. The gold and silver has also taken the rule of your religious institutions. Even they respect this above their creator, although upon the surface they attempt to appear otherwise.

Man upon Earth now stands at the crossroads. He must make his choice. He must now bring into balance his religious—no, I do not like this word—his spiritual and scientific knowledge. These man of Earth must bring into balance or his civilization must perish. Hate, greed, lust, deceit, all of these things must be replaced with love, with love and understanding. Man of Earth must soon come into an understanding of love in order that his civilization might be saved.

The time is here, my brothers and my sisters, when man must act. When man must come out from among the multitudes and do something about the principles for which he stands.

Children of the light, accept your duty to mankind. Accept your responsibilities. Pray to your creator that you be given power and wisdom to carry out these responsibilities and duties, and then go forth reinforced by love, light and understanding and do that which you know you must do.

It has been my honor and my pleasure to spend a few moments with you tonight. My Peace and my blessings go with you.

I shall be ever ready to help in every way possible in this crusade.

And now, I leave you in love.

I am John.

Peace. ☸