Samuel: May the blessings of all the Great Ones be invoked upon each of you here this night. Bless you, bless you.

Beloved children, as I come among you tonight I perceive that there are many unanswered questions in your minds, of things that have not been made clear to you through the media of information that your civilization presents. But I would say to you this: that the road to truth is a long and difficult path. If you are of proper mind, that is, if your mind is kept open and receptive and your search is sincere, you will find your truth changing from day to day and, at times, from hour to hour as things are revealed to thee through the many sources that you will find yourself being led to. So do not become discouraged or let your hearts become faint but know always that the Heavenly Father knoweth your needs and will supply your needs, whatsoever they may be at the time they are needed. Therefore be not anxious of the morrow but put thy faith in Him who is the All in All and the source of all things.

Now, for a moment, I should like to talk to you about a subject which is much discussed, much studied, much written about and taught in your civilization today. This is the power of mind. Today, corruption and sin are rampant in your civilization as it was in the days of old, yet through all of this chaos and disruption runs a silver thread, a shining silver tread, which is the basis for a new religion. It is: The things hoped for and not yet seen ... The things hoped for and not yet seen.

One of your ancients, forsaking all else and doing the will of the Father, proved to mankind that God makes covenants and keeps them. He was the forefather of the lineage of your Great Master Jesus, the Christed One, who taught that man must love one another. He was known as Abraham.

Your Great Master demonstrated great works and great power through this law known as faith—the things hoped for and not seen. And He said “That if you follow in My footsteps greater things than this shall ye do.” But, my brethren, this was not of the mind but of the spirit.

Now, as I have said before, there is much taught in what you call your metaphysical teachings, of the power of the mind and what it can accomplish and there is truth in this for the mind has great power. For when the spirit was created—the ray which was sent out from the Father-Mother God—it was given free will, so man, throughout all eternity, has had the will to choose, the right to choose. He was given free will. So man chooses. He chooses to either do his will or do the will of the Father. If you are to do your will then you will function on the plane of mind and great accomplishments can be made, as is seen all about in your civilization. But in this function you are doing only your will and oftentimes in carrying out your will, others are misled, others are hurt and many are led far astray by this and this is not the will of the Father.

You see this is what is lacking in so many of your metaphysical teachings. They forget that the only important thing is to do the will of the Father and in order to do this one must do it in spirit and not by mind. In other words, it is a matter of aligning your will with the will of the Father and this is done through much soul searching, through much meditation, study and effort upon your part. Plus a great desire to do only the will of the Heavenly Father and this is what is meant by “Seek ye first the kingdom and all things shall be added.”

But the rewards, my friends, will not come in great worldly possessions, in great fame among worldly people, but the spiritual rewards are so much greater and so much more rewarding and they last forever and ever. This is truly laying up treasures in Heaven.

Oh yes, the Heavenly Father will provide for you, your daily needs will be met, but beyond that you will have little desire for earthly things. For all of these things will pass away but His Word, shall never pass away, nor will His Kingdom pass away. This is the way to His Kingdom, working through the only Begotten Son who always has been, is, and always will be.

Now, my friends, before I leave I should like to say that I have spoken with you a number of times and it seems that you need identification. As you know, by the sign that I greeted you with, I am of the Silent Brotherhood as is also the one that has spoken to you whom you call Special #1, I being Special #2. This is not too desirable an identification as we do not feel that we are special. I will say now, that henceforth, you may identify me as Samuel and I will try to remember to identify myself to you as such, and the next time that your Special #1 speaks to you he will give you his identification.

Now, beloved ones, may the love and the peace of all the Great Masters of the multiverse be invoked upon each of you here this night and may each of you in the days forthcoming be able to attune yourself to your true Spirit who will guide you, and direct you on the path of truth. May each of you reach a state in the near future where the Holy Breath can descend upon you, filling you with the love, light and wisdom of Spirit true.

Peace be with you, beloved ones.

Peace, peace, peace. ✿
