

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Teacher: Bless thee, my children, bless thee.

I come to thee tonight, my friends, to bring you a blessing and I ask that you might grow in understanding - and in your search for truth that you might reach the heights that you desire. It is necessary for you that if you are to receive the blessings and the understanding you desire, to spend great periods of time in prayer and communication.

I know that often you feel that you have been forsaken, that you have not received the things for which you have asked, but I say to you, beloved, ask, and ask and ask again and then ask again. Always and continually knowing that your prayers have been heard, anyone who asks of the Father and is sincere and is pure of motive will be heard and will be answered.

Perhaps not when and how he would choose, but the Father always knows what is best for you and He will answer in His way and you will receive when and how is best for you. For the all-knowing one knows your every need before you ask, He knows that need much better than do you and He will be much wiser in the fulfilling of your requests. But you must put your trust in Him. Once you have asked then it is time to give thanks and praise to the all-knowing one. He who seeks for spiritual enlightenment and seeks from the heart will find that which he seeks. The doors will be flung open to him and he will receive as he is able to comprehend.

Now in your present rate of vibration, or plane of expression you are not aware of your soul growth, but your Heavenly Father is aware and He knoweth what experiences you need, what knowledge you need for that soul growth. And if you will follow His way, putting your trust in Him, letting him guide your hands and your feet, you will find all things working for your highest good. As you spend time in communicating with your Creator you will find the great knowledge of the universe being revealed to you through Him. He will speak to you in His ways and will reveal unto you the bread of life and will quench your thirst with the waters of life.

Not of life as you know it here but of the greater life, the true life, for now you are only in an illusionary dream life. It seems real to you now but the day will come when it will no longer be real to you but rather be as a dream and you will find you have entered a life that is more real than you could now imagine.

True knowledge, my children, does not come through the intellect. In your three-dimensional existence most knowledge is gained that way, but this is not the true knowledge and the knowledge for which your soul is seeking. The day will come, my friends, when you will not need to read books, you will not need to listen to the viewpoints and the understanding of others, for you will gain the knowledge and the wisdom through the communication of universal wisdom, a process of becoming one with this great universal storehouse of knowledge and absorbing it into your consciousness. But this does not occur in its fullness in this dimension.

Certain degrees of this might be reached by one in this dimension, but the greater communication will come at a time beyond this present level of life.

My friends, you are all destined to reach this level, when and how soon depends upon you, how willing you are to forgo the carnal desires, to become master of them, to become the conqueror of the great beast, the lower self. This lower self and the debts that you have allowed him to create for you, is all that is holding you back from these great experiences.

It is all that is preventing you from moving on to higher levels of spiritual understanding where you shall experience greater wisdom, greater power and greater love.

So, my friends, work to this end if you would reach these heights.

I know full well the struggle, I know full well the strength of these desires, but they are only desires of the lower animal man. And you, my friends, want to become a human; you want to cast off the animal and become completely human. It has been done by many and is being done by many more. It is possible for all, but, you, my friends, are the master of your own destiny and your destiny will be determined by your own desires and efforts.

If the human desire is greater than the animal desire then you are on your way and you shall be master.

My blessings I give unto you, not the blessings of the world, but the blessings of the Spirit.

Go in Peace, my friends, go in Peace. ☼
