

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Copyright © 2012 Clyde Trepanier

April 13, 1981

Zalhem: Greetings to you, my children, I am Zalhem.

You are about to celebrate an historical event that has been celebrated for many, many years by those of your Christian religion. Great emphasis is placed by the Priesthood on why this great Master was crucified, placed upon the cross, as the story goes. But I would like to give you something to think about, and reason about.

As it is told, he died upon the cross and went through the crucifixion to absorb or sacrifice himself for the sins of mankind. This is the reason that is given. Now anyone who has studied very deeply into metaphysics or occultism, is well aware of the fact that no one can forgive the actions of another. We are totally responsible to ourselves. Now if this be the case, for what reason would this man have given his life upon the cross? What would be the reason? Certainly if we are to believe that this great occult Master had the powers that he displayed, and had the support of many others with equal powers, then why, in the name of common sense, would he give his life upon the cross and suffer the torments that would accompany such a death? What would be the purpose? This, my friends, is food for thought. Think it over. Perhaps you can come up with some good reason.

It is too bad that the religious organizations and histories have overlooked the true meaning of the actions, the words and the deeds of the great Masters who have come to Earth to help mankind. Few there are who grasp the true symbology of what actually takes place. It is true that no great teacher can teach the multitudes the same that he can teach his close pupils, those who have evolved to a point where they can receive the deeper teachings and understand them and be trusted with them.

All of the great Masters who have come to planet Earth have used the same methods of teaching as did the Master you call Jesus. They taught the multitudes in parables; to their close followers they taught the esoteric truths. They all have given to the multitudes the same teachings, but in different ways. The lessons that have come to the multitudes over many centuries have been, "Love thee one another, do unto others as you would have them do unto you, as ye sow, so shall ye reap." Yet the multitudes do not understand these truths. It does not take much effort or study to understand these simple truths, yet they avoid it. They want to continue to pursue the pleasures of the carnal life and have someone else assume the responsibilities for their ill-doings. Does this make good sense?

Until people of Earth begin to think for themselves, to really ferret out the truth—and these simple truths are not that difficult—until they do understand these simple truths, their lives and the world about them will continue to express chaos. The reason you have the chaos that you have upon your earth today is because these first simple truths are not adhered to. They still pursue the satisfaction of the lower senses, that lower self or mind.

If you are to become the slave of the lower self, you cannot enter the Kingdom. If you are to enter into the Kingdom you must master and conquer this lower self. You must go through the crucifixion and the ascension. It does not mean that you have to die upon a cross. Crucifixion does not necessarily mean death. Many people are crucified every day in various ways, but it does not necessarily mean death.

So, my friends, think upon some of these things. Use your God-given power to think and to discern. Practice your meditation. Take these things into your innermost chamber and ponder them. "Knock and it shall be opened unto you, seek and you shall find."

But few there are who truly seek or who knock upon the door of knowledge. Many knock upon the door of intellectual knowledge. Many there are today who are great masters of intellectual knowledge, but their knowledge of esoteric things and of the subjective spheres is nil.

I do not condemn intellectual knowledge. It is necessary. But to have the wisdom to use that knowledge it is also necessary to have knowledge in the field of the esoteric and the subjective, for therein lies the true answers to all things.

So, my friends, if you would rise high upon the ladder of evolution, then you must search and study in all fields and become a well-rounded ego. Now I have taken enough of your time.

As I leave I extend to each of you my most sincere love and my blessings.

I call upon the Great Ones to pour forth their blessings and their love upon each of you.

As you go forth, may that spark within you grow ever stronger, that spark of desire to know and to grow.

May it grow ever stronger and drive you on in your search for knowledge and wisdom.

My beloved children, go in peace, walk in peace. May you find within you that peace that transcends all things. ☸