

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends, I am Oxal.

As we observe your planet and your civilization from our vantage point, we see very little awareness among the people of your Earth. Even in many of those who should be aware we do not find it.

Much has been said, much information has been given through many sources to your people as to where your civilization stands at this time and what is to be expected in the very near future. Yet most of your peoples who even bother to listen seem not to be able to comprehend that these things are at hand. But they prefer to project them into the far future. But I say to you, beloved ones, that the events that have taken place within the last few months upon planet Earth are very minor events compared to those that shall occur in the near future.

We have attempted to make your peoples of Earth aware of these things so that they might be prepared. We have explained to them how these things can be averted, both on a national scale and on a personal scale. Yet little has been done to help the situation by most of your civilization. Few of your leaders will even consider these things as being facts. They prefer to ignore rather than investigate and hope that the threat will disappear.

As we see it from our vantage point at this time, little can be done on a mass scale. The die has quite well been cast. But on an individual scale it is a different matter. For those who truly desire to prepare themselves for the New Age and those who are sincere and make the effort by repenting and turning to the light, accepting His love into their hearts and then walking in His love and His Light. To those who do this and dedicate their lives to the service of their fellow man, they shall walk with Him into the New Age unharmed, shoulders back and head high.

So we say to the People of Earth: Walk in his love and light. Abolish from your hearts all hatred, all lust and all fear. Hate and fear are great enemies of mankind. Fear is fostered by hate. When you can eliminate hate from your heart, fear will automatically disappear.

None of these things will exist in the New Age. For those who enter therein will not carry these things in their hearts. Their lives will be dedicated to the good of all mankind and to the service of all mankind. And when you have served your fellow man you have served God. You cannot love the Father without loving your fellow man. It is the law. For all mankind is one in the sight of the Father, each a minute part of Him. So when you have served the least of these you have served Him.

So, People of Earth, do not look up or down for Him but look within. There you will find Him, there only will you find Him. The Father dwelleth within you and there only will you find Him. But you must search in love, in light, in understanding and in wisdom.

I leave you by extending to you the love, the light and the understanding of my people.
