

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Teacher: Greetings to you, my beloved friends:

I was delegated here tonight to speak to you by the rest of your mentors. I am very close to one of you here. I will not identify myself at this time but the instrument will know who has spoken for we are doing this to test the a oneness, or the awareness rather, of those here. We, who are working with you as what you might call mentors or whatever terminology you wish to use, are trying in every way to come closer in consciousness with you that we might be of greater help to those whom we are concerned with and are attempting to help. The veil between us is much thinner than you might think and it is possible for you to penetrate this veil and become more aware if you will only follow the instructions that have been given to you in the teachings that have been passed on to you through the many lessons that you have been given. You see, we can give you unlimited knowledge on the intellectual level but unless you apply sincerely these laws and principles and really work at them they are not going to be of help or value to you.

There is much information in your own culture that is available to you and we recommend that you search out this knowledge and avail yourself of it. For the more effort that you put forth in trying to acquire knowledge and wisdom the greater volume of it will you find flowing to you from all sources. Nothing can be had without work and effort on the part of the individual himself, nothing is accomplished without effort, without work. For as your great Master teacher said, "The father worketh and I work." And it is necessary even in your everyday life obligations and work that is required of you, that you give your best to each and every phase of your life. For the more efficient you are in all of those things, the greater will be the help from other sources.

In other words, the greater your efforts are, the easier it is for those who are trying to help you to bring their help to you and to magnify it. So, as you work at your development, so can we.

I hope that I am making myself clear. I am not what you call a public speaker. In fact I would rather not have done this tonight but since I was chosen I will do my very best and I hope my efforts are not inadequate.

But anyhow, to get back to our subject.

We who are working with you from the other side of the veil, are watching and waiting, hoping for more opportunities to help you. Hoping that each one of you will, one by one, break down your walls of resistance so that we, and the greater Masters, can be of more assistance to you.

Now, my beloved friends, you have before you some very trying times. The experiences that your people are to experience in the near future and even now, are not going to be pleasant or easy. We would that these things could be avoided but they cannot. It is the karma of your civilization. And karma must be paid, there is not escape. So, my friends, learn to walk in as much light as you can possibly develop for this will be your greatest protection in these times to come and we, who are working for you from the other side of the veil, are going to do all that we can to help and protect you. We also ask you, most sincerely, to help us to help you in every way that you can.

May the blessings of all the great Masters now be invoked upon each and every one of you here.

Bless you. Bless you. ☸
