Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends, I am Oxal.

As you gather together here in an attempt to establish love and understanding among you, we are observing and recording the results. A great deal of love and understanding is necessary to accomplish the ends to which you aspire. I say to you, beloved children, love ye one another. You feel you are accomplishing this, but the love of which we speak goes far beyond that which you conceive. It is necessary to really feel within your heart a warmth, an understanding for all mankind. To see within him that which you would be, had you reached the heights to which you have aspired. This is not a love that you feel for those who are close to you, such as family ties, but it goes far beyond this, my friends. It reaches out to all Life, to everything your Creator has created. It is a knowing within your consciousness that of all Creation, you, and all about you are a part. Therefore you are all One, and if you are all One, then you should feel an aoneness.

This reaches even beyond our concept, but as you begin to take on this realization, you will find life in itself and all Creation has taken on a new concept for you. Trials and tribulations that annoy you, the little things that cause you to become disturbed, shall not exist, for they are no more a part of your consciousness. For you are, beloved ones, just what you think you are.

Be careful of what you see in others, for you may be seeing yourself.

You were told, my friends, some months past, that many concepts would be brought to your attention, for your consideration and evaluation. This you have seen taking place, and it shall continue. This is definitely for a purpose, for it is very important that you evaluate these concepts. For it may be necessary in the future for you to pick from these concepts certain Truths. For you see, my friends, sooner or later upon your planet must be established a universal understanding, a Universal Truth.

Your planet has been saturated with religious concepts, and as we have told you before, each one contains some truth, but not one has all the truth. So you see, eventually, in order to bring about a universal understanding, the thinking and the concepts of earth people must undergo a great change. Those of you who have reached the high understanding in your consciousness will play an important part in the New Age, in bringing about a universal planet-wide understanding. Many of you have not given these concepts the consideration you should have, in order to bring about your own understanding. As these things come to you, we ask that you give them closer understanding and consideration, for in so doing, and by taking these into meditation, you shall reach a higher understanding.

I had intended to go a little further in my talk tonight, but it seems we are having a little trouble with the instrument. So I shall discontinue for this time.

I leave you, by extending to you my Love and my Blessings.

I am Oxal. ✨
